REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President of the United States
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
OF INDIANA.
For Vice President of the United States,
WHITE-LAW REID,
OF NEW YORK.

Clark D. Frost has been appointed postmaster at Las Vegas Hot Spring, vice A. T. Hunt, resigned.

The club meeting last night was a rousing success. People are beginning to wake up to the fact that something must be done if San Miguel is to redeem herself.

Felix Martinez left for Santa Fe last night. As Mr. Joseph is there, and we here that several other prominent Democratic politicians are also there, it's likely there is some wire pulling to be arranged.

The recent appropriation to pay Indian deprecation claims will distribute about $35,000 in San Miguel county, $20,000 in Mora, $20,000 in Colfax, $40,000 in Bernalillo and $15,000 in Valencia.

A special dispatch to the London Times from Calcutta says the leading papers there, in view of the alarming fall in the rates of exchange, urge the government to immediately close the mints to the free coinage of silver. They complain that the government is doing nothing to face the great crisis.

FIXING WORLD'S FAIR RATES.

The committees appointed by the several traffic associations to prepare a rate to be charged to the World's fair excursions held their first meeting and J. F. Heafford was chosen chairman. No business of importance was transacted, but views were exchanged, so that it may be said considerable headway was gained. It seems eastern and western roads are divided, the former holding out for one and one-third fare, while the latter say that better must be done. The Centennial rate was quoted by eastern lines, showing that for the first half of the time during which the fair was open a rate of only 9 per cent less than the full rate was charged, while at the close of the fair a rate of one and one-third was charged. To this contentment the western lines held that the situation in 1876 was different than it is now, and that the high standard of rates in force then was because the Pennsylvania road was able to command the situation, and it was openly said that no one road nor number of roads excepting the entire lot could maintain a rate in 1893.

It is useless to attempt to make a one and one-third rate for so big a thing as the fair. One thing alone will bring the eastern lines to time, and it is the fact that the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk, of Canada, are already contracting to carry passengers from Montreal and Quebec to Chicago and return for $18. Foreign visitors to the fair are likely to take advantage of this inducement to leave by the Canadian routes, and it will be strange indeed if the trunk lines do not decide to meet the competition.

ANOTHER NEW MEXICO YARN.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat's New Mexico liar is again in the field with another good lie:

"I once had an adventure in New Mexico that made a terrific draft on my nervous system," said Walter Phelps, as he joined the experience meeting in the corridors of the Lindell. "I had set out to walk from the station to the ranch of an old friend, some four miles out, and when I had covered about half the distance, a gigantic mountain lion came sidling up to me. I had not even a pocket-knife, and, as the fiction grinders say, my feelings can be better imagined than described. When a few feet distant, he stopped and looked me over, and I thought he was trying to make up his mind what portion he preferred for breakfast. I had heard much of the power of the human eye, and I proceeded to put on my most tragic frown and to stare at him fixedly. This so overcame him that he sat down on his haunches and batted his eyes lazily. I continued to stare and frown and he came slowly up to me, rubbed his head against my trembling knees and made a purring sound that resembled a giant coffee mill in motion. He was evidently not hungry. I walked slowly along in the direction of the ranch, and that powerful cat continued to rub against my limbs and purr. There was not a tree or house for the whole distance, and the brute stuck to me like a cockle burr to a merino sheep. When I rapped at the door he sat down and made his toilet by rubbing his big paws over his face. When my friend opened the door, I found that I had inadvertently dropped my voice along the road somewhere. I could only point to my companion as I hastily scrambled inside. 'My pet,' said he; 'raised him from a kitten; harmless as a dove and sociable as a grass-widow.'"

THE SANTA FE AGAIN.

Once more does the Santa Fe call attention to itself in the matter of rate disturbances, and thus does the merry war go on. Yesterday that line made a request for relief to Chairman Caldwell, of the Western Passenger association, and asked that a round trip rate of $5 be put in for the Knights of Pythias between Chicago and Kansas City. As a reason for making the request, the Santa Fe states that rate agreement has already been grossly violated, and the Cleveland, O., rate is stated to have been cut from $20 to $10, with similar reductions from Lima, Toledo, Cincinnati and Fort Wayne, while from Chicago a round trip rate of $4.50 is being named as against the agreed rate of $10.

It is now two weeks since the Journal published the fact that the Ohio rates had all gone to pieces and that a certain high officer of the Knights of Pythias had notified his brother officers here that "the Knights of Pythias will be as well taken care of as were the Knights Templar by the railroads." In the article referred to it was stated that a rate of $11 round trip had been made from Cincinnati. There was no other conclusion possible than that the Chicago-Kansas City rate had been cut, as that rate alone was $10, and it was not to be supposed that the Eastern lines would be willing to haul passengers from Cincinnati to Chicago for the remaining $1.

This action on the part of the Santa Fe is no more than has been expected by every one, although it was not known what line would make the break. By its vigorous fight made in the Denver business, the eyes of other lines have been opened to the manner in which the Santa Fe goes into a rate war, and Mr. Caldwell must needs display much tact in order to avoid another such avalanche of trouble as overwhelmed him in the Knights Templar rate.—Kansas City Journal.

THE OFF OK.

Detroit Tribune: Mr. Cleveland is fully justified in believing that he will be notified in advance when Senator Hill decided to call.

New York Tribune: A man who was found at large with a big knife has been sent to prison for six months. This is ominous news for Democrats who have been expecting to have fun with big knives all through the fall.

Denver Republican: Senator David B. Hill sailed past Gray Gables the other day, but forgot to call on Mr. Cleveland. Evidently there is some lack of harmony in the Democratic ranks in New York.

Chicago Tribune: If Cleveland and Hill took the same pains to meet that they do in dodging one another,

It would lessen the suspicion which lurks about Democratic habitations.

New York Advertiser: The silence of David Bennett Hill is so thick it could be cut with a corn knife.

Philadelphia Press: David B. Hill didn't go to see Cleveland after all. He took a bath instead, which, considering his politics, was about as surprising as a visit to Buzzard's Bay would have been.

Philadelphia Record: Even in his outings, the movements of Senator Hill are suggestive. The first stop on his yachting trip was at Watch Hill.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

As the Republican Central Committee of the Territory has called a Territorial convention to be held in Las Vegas, N. M., on the 25th of August, 1892, to nominate a candidate for delegate to congress, and as it is made the duty of the Republican Central Committee of this county to call a county convention to select thirteen delegates to represent this county in said convention, a convention for that purpose will be held at the court house in Las Vegas, on the 24th day of August, and each precinct is requested to send delegates thereto, according to the number allotted below.

The prospects of our party for success in the coming campaign are good, and we hope for the co-operation of all the Republicans in each precinct in making a solid and harmonious organization, and being represented, and that a committee of three for each precinct will be named to work under the direction of the county central committee, and their names immediately forwarded to the undersigned.

A PEEK AT PIKE'S PEAK.

For Knights Templar and their friends, the great meeting of 1892 is that of the Silver Triennial Conclave at Denver, August 9.

The rate is less than the usual summer ticket costs. It is low enough to catch business.

Will it catch yours for the Santa Fe route?

Perhaps that depends upon what the Santa Fe route offers. It offers this: A 117 miles view of the Rocky mountains; cheap side trips to various points in Colorado, Utah and New Mexico; good service at reasonable rates. Address
