CHEAPER

anywhere between here and Chicago than you can right at home at

THE FAIR

AND THAT IS NOT ALL.

For the next 45 days you can buy all of the above named goods 15 per cent. cheaper than anywhere else. This is decidedly a and must be done so I can get room and more money for the Spring stock. First come first served, so don't hesitate.

Weighty

Respectfully, A. Lustfield.

N. K. Green, of the drug firm of Fuller & Fuller Co., of Chicago, was in the city on Thursday.

Rev. W. T. Doggett, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, called at this office on Wednesday.

John H. Parks has so far recovered as to be out again. His legion of friends hail the fact with gladness.

Benj. Surr, the accommodating blacksmith, has got the stiffest neck of any man in town. Rheumatism.

Mrs. H. C. Kimball and Mrs. N. Ferrand made Tim Diamond Drill office a pleasant call on Wednesday evening.

Prosecuting Attorney Crandall was called to Iron River on Wednesday, to attend to some law breaker.

Our county clerk, Pat. E. Dunn, was in town this week looking over the field for a suitable location for his office.

G. Phipps, of the firm of Robinson & Phipps, dealers in druggists' sundries, Green Bay, did the town on Thursday.

John H. Kirchgasser, Jr., of Chicago, one of the Ross Labor Agency victims, was a caller at this office, on Wednesday.

C. C. Olin, of Florence, was here several days this week, looking through gold-bowed eye glasses at his business interests here.

Mrs. Lee Peck returned from Marquette on Thursday evening, where she has been the guest of Mrs. J. M. Case since New Years.

H. D. Fisher was in the city on Tuesday. He is interested in the Gogebic Mining Co's explorations on section twenty-two, 43-32.

R. Kustermann, the Green Bay music dealer, was here on Monday. Kustermann Bros., publish the Green Bay Musical Journal.

D. C. Lockwood, the popular manager of the Lockwood house, has suffered intense pain most of the week. Rheumatism caused it.

Wm. Doucet went to Florence yesterday morning, returning during the day with the horse and cutter left there by his wife and other ladies.

W. E. Fort, one of the early Quinnesecers, was a caller on Tuesday evening. The DIAMOND DRILL's subscription list was increased.

Mr. William Holiday, of Chicago, a pleasing conversationalist, is Fred. Johnson's assistant in the barber business. Arrived on Thursday.

Ed. H. Bacon, Jr., of Green Bay, selling goods for Mendel, Smith & Co., Milwaukee wholesale grocers, was here on Thursday. Ed. is "growing more like his dad every day."

John Curran took his engine to Escanaba yesterday to have repairs put onto the snow plow attachment. George Webster will pull the passenger train during his absence.

Lew W. Huffman, sometimes answering to the euphonious title of "Little Johnnie Jump-up," of Green Bay, was in town on Thursday, in the interest of his father's tailoring business.

Al. Austrian, one of the Crystal Falls enterprising merchants, stepped into our office last week just as we were mailing our papers, glad to see him looking so well after his fit of sickness.—We saw Capt. C. T. Roberts, of Mastodon, on the street last Friday just long enough to shake hands.—Range.

J. J. Hennessey, all-round athlete, of Soudan, Dakota, registered at the Bannerman house, one day this week. Mr. Hennessey is, to be real candid about it, about the hardest-looking specimen of athletic manhood the writer ever encountered. He was faultlessly attired, odd shoes with holes for ventilation, old Scotch cap, dirty shirt, coat with elbows out and haven't had a square meal for a week look on his face. On being interviewed later, said that Crystal Falls does not appreciate greatness and in consequence will remove to some other city in the near future.
