Republican State Convention.
HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, DETROIT, July 12, 1890.—A state convention of the Republicans of Michigan will be held at the Detroit rink, Detroit, beginning at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, Aug. 27, and continuing Thursday, Aug. 28, 1890, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state offices and for Justices of the Supreme Court, to fill vacancies; also for the purpose of selecting a chairman of the State Central Committee and two members thereof from each congressional district, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.
 In accordance with a resolution adopted at Grand Rapids, May 10, 1876, every county will be entitled to one delegate for each 500 of the total vote cast for Governor at the last state election (November, 1888), and one additional delegate for every fraction amounting to 300, but each organized county will be entitled to at least one delegate.
 Under a resolution of 1858 no delegate will be entitled to a seat in the convention who does not reside in the county he proposes to represent.
 The delegates from each congressional district are requested to meet in caucus at 10 o'clock a. m., Wednesday, Aug. 27, and select candidates as follows, to be presented to the state convention for confirmation: Two members of the State Central Committee, one Vice-President, one Assistant Secretary and one member for each of the Committees on "Credentials," "Resolutions," "Permanent Organization and Order of Business."
 In compliance with a resolution adopted in Detroit, June 23, 1890, the secretary of each county convention is requested to forward to the secretary of the State Central Committee (No. 81 Griswold street, Detroit), by the earliest mail after the delegates to the State Convention are chosen, a certified list of such delegates as are entitled to seats in the state convention from their respective counties; and also the names and address of the chairman, secretary and members of their county committee.

 H. C. TILLMAN, Secretary.

at the business meeting of the association and reported direct to his paper the business transacted, and would have gone to Florence and Crystal Falls with the press gang Wednesday and give the readers of the Journal a reliable letter on the condition of mining and general business affairs on this range. If the Marquette Daily Journal were enterprising this would have been done, but the Journal isn't enterprising.—Menominee Range.

TARIFF FACTS FOR FARMERS.
 Just now the farmer is singled out from the great body politic for the especial solicitude of the free-trade attorneys. Ignoring the fact that a policy which makes possible the creation of national wealth from otherwise worthless materials, must inure to the public advantage, even though but a portion of the population may be engaged in the process of transformation, the indefatigable free-trade advocate seeks to have the farmer believe that it is not he but the manufacturer alone who is advantaged by the protection of domestic industries. This is no nearer true than would be the contention that the summer rain can bring no benefit to the manufacturer or the professional man because they have no growing crops to be invigorated; which is to deny that what brings wealth and benefit to any single class of the community is a public advantage.
 But as a matter of fact the business of the farmer is by no means so independent of foreign competition as his whilom free-trade friends would have him believe. American agriculture is quite as much in need of direct protection as the majority of American manufacturing industries; and it is for this reason that the farmer's interests were kept so constantly in view in the preparation of both the existing and the proposed tariff legislation. More than one-sixth of the $745,131,652 worth of imports during the fiscal year 1889 was made up from commodities coming in immediate competition with the products of American farms, viz:

Animals and meats.....	$ 14,010,498
Cotton.....	1,194,505
Dairy products.....	1,250,922
Fruits, other than tropical..	8,794,272
Flax seed.....	3,851,685
Grains, hay, hops, etc.....	9,252,912
Rice.....	3,499,437
Skins, other than furs.....	25,127,750
Tobacco.....	10,868,226
Wools.....	17,974,515
Vegetable fibers.....	20,468,475
Vegetables.....	3,637,901
Miscellaneous.....	5,151,650
Total.....	$125,082,148

This excludes sugar, spices, raw silk, dyes, wines, and numerous other articles, of which many are grown in the United States, and all required for domestic consumption could be grown here as well as elsewhere, if it were not for the necessarily higher prices our farmers are compelled to pay for labor. In fact, under the heading of "commodities which might be termed products of agriculture," the treasury department has classed over forty-seven per cent of all importations of merchandise. And yet in the face of these incontrovertible statistics Cobden Club attorneys have the effrontery to reiterate the fallacy that the farmer's interests would be the best promoted by free foreign trade.

Order For Appearance.
 First publication July 12, last Aug. 23, State of Michigan, Twenty 31st Judicial circuit.—In chancery. Suit pending in the circuit court for the county of Iron, in chancery, at Crystal Falls, on the third day of July, 1890. Horace S. Miller, complainant vs. Nellie Miller, defendant. In this cause it appearing by the affidavits of the said complainant and his solicitor, as well as by the return of the sheriff of the said county of Iron, that the said defendant is a resident of this state, but that service of a writ of subpoena cannot be had upon her by reason of her concealment therein; therefore, on motion of Edward P. Lott, solicitor for the complainant, it is ordered that the defendant enter her appearance in said cause within three months from the date of this order, and that within twenty days the complainant cause this order to be published in The Diamond Drill, a newspaper published and circulated in said county, said publication to be continued once in each week for six successive weeks. Dated July 3, 1890. C. T. CRANDALL, Circuit Court Commissioner for Iron County, Michigan.

The Republic Sun is now the property of W. F. Montgomery, the change having been made this week. Herb. Smith seems contented to devote his whole time and attention to the Iron Mountain Journal. Mont. has our best wishes.

The "dude" editor of this rag met the "Clan na Gael" editor of the Iron River Reporter at Iron Mountain last week end they had a very pleasant, brother-like chat; the distribution of the Fourth of July sheets was not even mentioned.

The official call for the Republican state convention will be found at the head of these columns. The convention will be held at the rink, Detroit, Wednesday and Thursday, August 27 and 28. Iron county is entitled to two delegates, based on the vote for governor in 1888—one delegate for each 500 votes or fraction over 300.

If the only daily on the Upper Peninsula were as enterprising as it should be it would have had a representative here at the editorial banquet last week, whether its publishers feel any interest in the Upper Peninsula and Northern Wisconsin Press Association or not. That representative would also have been
