The Scrap Book

Wonderfully Made.
"What makes it fly so?" asked a little Boston maiden as her mother brushed her hair.

"It is the electricity. Don't you know that there is electricity in your hair?" replied her mother.

"Well, mamma, aren't we wonderfully made? Here I am with electricity in my hair and grandma has gas in her stomach!"

SUCCESS.
There is no moment when a man may stand
And scan the mirror of his life and say
The issue of my effort is at hand;
I reach the summit of success today.

For as we dream of bliss that is to be
Or sorrow for the loss of youth's sweet power,
So with success. Its light no man may see.
It shineth on some spent—or misspent hour.

—May Austin.

Introducing an Old Friend.
General Grosvenor, the Republican war horse of Ohio, was billed to speak in Pittsburg.

When it was time to introduce the general the chairman arose and said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I need hardly say to you that we are particularly fortunate tonight in having with us one of the greatest Republicans of our sister state, Ohio. We are to have the pleasure of listening to a man whose name is a household word in Pittsburg, who has fought for us the battle of protection, upon which so much of Pittsburg's material prosperity depends. You all know him. Everybody in Pittsburg respects and honors him. He is our friend. His name is on all our lips. Friends, I now have the pleasure of introducing to you that sterling patriot, that rock ribbed Republican, that eminent statesman, General—General—Gen—"

The chairman flushed, stammered, wiped his forehead nervously and then blurted, "General Gossamer of Ohio."

Depends on the Yard.
English John and Pat were constantly tilting, each one trying to outwit the other.

"Are you good at measurement?" asked John.
"I am that," said Pat.
"Then could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard?"
"Sure it depends on whose yard you get into."—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Case in Point.
"No man is so bad that there is not a little of the angel left in him," said the minister.

"Yes, that's so," replied the deacon. "Remember Spilkins? Everybody thought he was about the worst man on earth. Why, his own mother wouldn't come to his funeral! Well, sir, I've been told a thousand times a month for the last five years that Spilkins was the only real saint that ever lived."

"My goodness!"
"I married Spilkins' widow," sorrowfully continued the deacon.

No Cause for Complaint.
A young artist in Washington generally makes up for his lack of technique by spreading color recklessly and counting on distance for the effect. At an amateur exhibition he once hung one of his most extraordinary performances.

"Well," said a friend whom the artist had taken to see the work. "I don't want to flatter you, old chap, but that is far and away the best stuff you have ever done. I congratulate you."

The artist was receiving the compliment with becoming modesty when he chanced again to glance at the picture. The committee had hung it upside down! Hurrying to the head of the committee, he was about to launch into a loud complaint when he was informed of the good news that an hour before the picture had been sold for $61. The original price mark had been $19.—Lippincott's.

Job Outdone.
Sir Henry Hawkins was once presiding over a long, tedious trial and was listening apparently with great attention to a long winded speech from a learned counsel. After a while he made a pencil memorandum, folded it and sent it by the usher to the queen's counsel in question, who, unfolding the paper, found these words: "Patience competition. Gold medal. Sir Henry Hawkins. Honorable mention. Job."

The Best Laxative for Children.
Parents should see to it that their children have no natural, easy movement of the bowels each day. Do not dose the child with salts or griping pills, as they are too powerful in effect, and literally tear their little insides to pieces, leaving the bowels weakened and less able to act naturally than before. Laxative Iron-ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate all the little organs to healthy activity. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 10c, 50c and $1.00.

Afraid of Himself.
Joseph Jefferson, the actor, once told this story to a friend:
"I was coming down in the elevator of the Stock Exchange building, and at one of the intermediate floors a man whose face I knew as well as I know yours got in. He greeted me very warmly at once, said it was a number of years since we had met and was very gracious and friendly, but I couldn't place him for the life of me. I asked him as a sort of a feeler how he happened to be in New York, and he answered, with a touch of surprise, that he had lived there for several years. Finally I told him in an apologetic way that I couldn't recall his name. He looked at me for a moment and then he said very quietly that his name was U. S. Grant."
"What did you do, Joe?" his friend asked.
"Do?" he replied, with a characteristic smile. "Why, I got out at the next floor for fear I'd ask him if he had ever been in the war!"

Was Thin Indeed.
A fine, robust soldier after serving his country faithfully for some time became greatly reduced in weight owing to exposure and scanty rations until he was so weak he could hardly stand. Consequently he got leave of absence to go home and recuperate. He arrived at his home station looking very bad. Just as he stepped off the boat one of his old friends rushed up to him and said, "Well, well, Pat, I am glad to see you're back from the front."
"Begorra, I knew I was getting thin, but I never thought you could see that much," replied Pat.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Carnegie Amended.
"I once gave an interview to a reporter in which I said that one reason for whatever success I may have had was because I always got good men around me," said Andrew Carnegie. "A rascally Pittsburg paragrapher quoted that remark and moved to amend it by saying that instead of getting good men around me I got around good men."

Didn't Know Many Folks.
Artemus Ward was once traveling in the cars, dreading to be bored and feeling miserable, when a man approached him, sat down and said:

"Did you hear that last thing on Horace Greeley?"
"Greeley? Greeley?" said Artemus.
"Horace Greeley? Who is he?"
The man was quiet about five minutes. Pretty soon he said:
"George Francis Train is sacking up a good deal of a row over in England. Do you think they will put him in a bastille?"
"Train? Train? George Francis Train?" said Artemus solemnly. "I never heard of him."
This ignorance kept the man quiet for about fifteen minutes. Then he said:

"What do you think about General Grant's chances for the presidency? Do you think they will run him?"
"Grant? Grant? Hang it, man," said Artemus, "you appear to know more strangers than any man I ever saw!"
The man was furious. He walked off, but at last came back and said:
"Say, did you ever hear of Adam?"
Artemus looked up and said:
"Adam? Adam? What was his other name?"

Keep The Kidneys Well.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Petoskey People Know How to Save It.

Many Petoskey people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer or to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Petoskey citizen's recommendation.

David Hastings, blacksmith of 325 Water street, Petoskey, Mich., says: "Mrs. Hastings has used Doan's Kidney Pills with great benefit. This remedy completely relieved her of an annoying weakness of the kidneys together with severe backaches and pains in the small of the back. Since we got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Central Drug Store it has been a pleasure for us to advise others who suffer from complaints similar to those Mrs. Hastings to give the remedy a trial. We can vouch for the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills in curing backache and kidney trouble."
