Tersely Told

Lansing—Printed protests, uniform in wording and prepared by the Michigan Manufacturers' association, were received from several corporations which filed their corporation tax returns with the department of state Tuesday.

Baldwin—George Peich, section hand, was instantly killed when he attempted to cross the track in front of a passenger train entering the yards at high speed. He was 35 years of age and leaves a widow and three young children.

Calumet—Work on the new Calumet & Hecla water line from the Tamarack pump station to locations north of Calumet has begun. The pipe will be over 10 miles long and will give the residents of that locality an abundant supply of water.

Kalamazoo—Declaring the printing trade has been short of help for years, due to a dying out of training of apprentices, a committee of printers has appealed to the board of education to establish a course of training for printers in the high school here.

Monroe—William Bolles, farmer, residing southeast of Monroe, has arranged with a Toledo real estate concern for 60 acres to be platted into 200 lots. A club house is to be constructed and a park laid out. The improvement will total about $100,000.

Owosso—Liberty bonds and certificates of deposit totaling nearly $5,000 have been stolen from E. E. Bunting of Henderson, sheriff's officers say. Only $250 of the bonds are negotiable. Bunting, an aged widower, kept the securities in a box under a bed at his home.

Owosso—An unusual coincidence occurred in the wedding of Miss Mildred Mattoon, of Shiawassee township, and Edwin Devereaux, of Lansing. Rev. W. T. Woodhouse, of Corunna, who officiated, married the groom's parents in 1894 and the bride's parents in 1892.

Kalamazoo—Mistaken for a bandit by a man who saw him get off a car with a pistol in his pocket, William Hubert, a deputy game warden of Battle Creek, was arrested by a policeman who answered an emergency call. Hubert was released as soon as his identity was established.

East Lansing—Farmers of Southern Michigan have been invited to a soybean field meeting just over the Ohio line at Stryker Sept. 9. The program will consist of observing the use of the soybean crop on the Johnson seed farms. A series of addresses by men from neighboring states has been planned.

Utica—Nearing the age of 101 years, Mrs. Sarah Conner, died here at the home of her daughter, Miss E. M. Conner, after a brief illness. She came to Michigan from New York at the age of eight years. The family has lived near here since that time. Her husband died in 1880. Four children survive.

Kalamazoo—Frank Kalney, proprietor of the St. Joseph hotel at Colon, was arrested on a federal warrant, charging liquor law violation. The respondent demanded an examination. Bail in the sum of $1,000 was not furnished. Officers allege a still and a quantity of white mule whisky were found in a bedroom.

Holland—The exclusive Chicago colony at Castle park will build a large amphitheater where it will stage entertainments. J. Wellington Reynolds, prominent Chicago art critic, will be the designer of the new amphitheater which will be dedicated Labor Day to the memory of Mrs. H. H. Parr, formerly of Chicago, who built Castle park.

Three Rivers—After an exciting race from Fawn river township in St. Joseph county to Noole township, Branch county, Deputy Warden Charles Everhart arrested Elliott Milly on a charge of hunting squirrels out of season. Milly was taken to the court of Justice Bowersox at Nottawa, where he pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Kalamazoo—The 13th Michigan Volunteer infantry association will hold its annual reunion here September 7 and 8. L. Durand, Allegan, is president of the association, and H. C. Bond, Muskegon, is secretary and treasurer. The regiment was in the battle of Stone River, where Kalamazoo soldiers prevented the annihilation of General Wood's army.

Adrian—Farmers will be provided with facilities to continue pooling their wool during the remainder of the year, according to A. E. Illenden, chairman of the State Farm Bureau wool committee. Carloads of wool are being shipped from the Michigan pool to five factories. Illenden estimates that 250,000 pounds of staple clothing wool have been sold from the 1921 pool.

Lansing—At a conference between city officials and representatives of the Michigan United Traction here John F. Collins, vice-president and manager of the Lansing division, declared that unless fare increases are granted street car service in Lansing will be suspended. He delivered an ultimatum to the city officials providing that the cash fare be fixed at 10 cents or four tickets for 25 cents. The rates at present are 6 cents cash or nine tickets for 50 cents. The city council will answer the ultimatum in a few days, officials said.

Charlotte—Harold Heat LeClear, charged with bigamy, is being held in Charlotte jail under $1,000 bonds. LeClear, who is 27 years old, is said to have had four wives.

Owosso—Mrs. Zella Denmore, wife of A. L. Denmore, of Owosso, is the first woman to be called for jury duty in Shiawassee County. Her name is on the list of those ordered to report Sept. 12.

Monroe—Mary Soupski four years old, is dead, and her mother, Mrs. Walter Soupski and a younger brother and sister are seriously ill at their home near here from eating toaststools under the impression they were mushrooms.

Ann Arbor—Vernon F. Hillery, of Tulsa, Okla., has been appointed business manager of the Michigan Daily, student newspaper at the University of Michigan, succeeding Edward Priehs, Mt. Clemens, who was recently drowned.

Three Rivers—Union carpenters of Three Rivers have voluntarily lowered their scale of pay from 85 cents an hour to 75 cents an hour. This was done to give the home builders an opportunity to get skilled workmen at a very reasonable price to build their homes.

Flint—Two Negroes, giving their names as Wesley Rayster and David Gillian, believed by police to have conducted a number of holdups in Flint last winter, were arrested. The men have already been identified by Alex Simon as his assailants in a robbery recently.

Owosso—Claude Jones, 55, brick mason, of Morrice, died at a local hospital after suffering a fractured skull. Jones was working on a factory at Ovid when he stepped on a piece of flooring which gave way and Jones fell 18 feet to the ground. A widow survives.

Port Huron—George Leyham, Kenosha township farmer, has confessed to robbing the private bank of C. C. Peck and company at Goodells. He did not attempt to open the safe, but rifled the petty cash drawer, securing $35. He broke open the rear door of the bank with a buggy axle.

Corunna—Samuel Silverman, Detroit produce buyer, has been placed on probation for one year by Circuit Court Judge Collins after pleading guilty to issuing worthless checks in payment for farm produce. He has made good all the checks and paid court costs, aggregating $1,000.

Kalamazoo—William Nastos, proprietor of a local restaurant, word received here says, was drafted into the Greek army, when he visited that country this summer to wed his sweetheart. He was forced into the army, word says, as he and his bride were at the railroad station to return to America.

Saginaw—Indemnity bonds of jitney bus operators were fixed at $5,000 per passenger with a maximum of $25,000 of liability for one accident by the city council. This decision was reached over the opposition of Mayor B. N. Mercer, who held out for $10,000 for each passenger with a maximum of $50,000.

Clawson—Because its treasury is low, the village of Clawson has been obliged to do without fire protection, at least for the present. A campaign to bring about purchase of adequate equipment was launched some time ago, but the village council decided against the expenditure on the ground it hasn't enough money.

Paw Paw—A wave of crime has suddenly broken out in Van Buren county. Among the places entered have been the homes of Fred Smith and Mrs. William Jacobs, of Arlington township. There were taken from the former a suit of clothes, a watch, and pocketbook. At the Jacobs home the thieves stole a gold watch and chain.

Flint—J. C. Harvey, a farmer near Crago Crossing, claims to have the most patriotic hog in the United States. The animal is a two-year-old freak. It is red, white and blue and has no ears. The hog now weighs 363 pounds and through its national emblematic colors and earless head has attracted much attention throughout the country.

Cheboygan—J. J. G. Richards, justice of the peace and county auditor, residing alone in Mackinaw City, was stricken with apoplexy on his return from a chautauqua entertainment. His body was found by Representative Samuel J. Smith, a close friend, who forced a rear door and discovered Richards' body on the floor of his bedroom where it had laid at least 15 hours.

Owosso—Five thousand dollars in Liberty bonds and certificates of deposit, which disappeared mysteriously from the home of E. E. Bunting, retired farmer of Henderson, three months ago, re-appeared just as mysteriously. Bunting found them laying on a bag of grain in his granary when he went to feed his chickens. He at first paid no attention to the package but later the corner of a yellow bond caught his eye and he investigated.

Charlotte—Sheriff Glenn Dilley, of Eaton County, is beyond the law unless a circuit judge appoints someone to arrest him, it has been discovered following an effort to serve summons on him in a civil suit growing out of the sale of a threshing machine. Sheriff Dilley waived his right to refuse to appear as a witness because no summons had been served on him. He declared that under the law the only officer authorized to serve summons on a sheriff or to arrest him are coroners and Eaton County has no coroners.

MARKET REPORT

FURNISHED BY U. S. BUREAU OF MARKETS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

May
Heavier receipts have caused a $2@3 decline in timothy prices at principal western markets. Stock yards buying at Chicago has cleared up surplus. Light country loading reported. Eastern markets dull and about 50 cents lower. Alfalfa and prairie prices have also declined about 50c@1 during the week.

Quote: No. 1 timothy: New York $20.00, Philadelphia $24, Cincinnati $19.50, Chicago $22, Atlanta $26, Memphis $23.50. No. 1 alfalfa: Memphis $22, Minneapolis $20, Kansas City $22. No. 1 Prairie: Minneapolis $14.50, Chicago $17, Kansas City $12.

Feed
Wheat feeds, especially bran, continue weak. The demand for feed stuffs of all kinds remains light. Prices lower. Stocks in dealers' hands light to fair. Corn feed fairly steady. Alfalfa meal unchanged.

Grain
Following lower prices the first three days of week under liquidation by longs and lack of export demand, prices turned bullish on good export and milling demand and Chicago September wheat closed at $1.20 1/2, showing a net advance of 3 1/2 cents for the week. Chicago September corn rose 1 1/2 cents, closing at $4 1/4 cents. The market closed with underdone strong, due in part to passage of legislation to aid exports. Export demand at seaboard only fair on the 25th and sales smaller on account of inability to obtain cash grain. Country receipts small; offerings to arrive limited. Industrial corn demand good, but export demand less active. Country corn offerings liberal.

In Chicago cash market No. 2 red winter wheat $1.22; No. 2 hard $1.22; No. 2 white corn 50c; No. 2 yellow corn 50c; No. 3 white corn 32 3/4c. For the week Minneapolis September wheat up 5 1/4c at $1.30; Kansas City Sept. up 4c at $1.19 3/4; Winnipeg October 1 1/4c at $1.45. Chicago December wheat closed at $1.21 1/2; Chicago December corn $4 1/4; Minneapolis December wheat $1.29 1/4; Kansas City Dec. $1.13 1/4.

Dairy Products
After a week of unsettled trading buttermilk markets have again taken on a firm tone. August 25th receipts advanced but are still about 1 1/2c under those of a week ago. Weather has been favorable for production and receipts are being held in stock. There has been revival of trading on account of buyers letting stocks get low on a falling market.

Closing prices 22 score: New York 41 1/2c; Chicago 37 1/2c; Philadelphia 41 1/2c; Boston 42 cents.

Fruits and Vegetables
New Jersey sacked Irish Cobbler potatoes declined 15c per 100 lbs. in eastern consuming markets the past week, closing $3@3.65. Giants range $2.45@3. New York sacked Massachusetts Yellow Globe onions range $2.50@3 per 100 lbs. in New York; $2.25@3.50 Boston. Middlewestern yellow varieties range $3.50@4 per 100 lbs. in New York. Washington yellow stock $3.25@3.50 in Kansas City; $2.50@2.75 in Chicago.

Live Stock and Meats
With the exception of veal calves, Chicago livestock prices show declines compared with a week ago.
August 25th Chicago prices: Hogs, top $9.90; bulk of sales, $7.40@9.65; medium and good beef steers, $6.25@9.50; butcher cows and heifers, $3.50@8.75; feeder steers $5.25@7.50; light and medium weight veal calves, $9@11.25; fat lambs, $7.75@10; feeding lambs, $6.25@8; yearlings $6.25@8; fat ewes, $3.25@5.25. Stocker and feeder shipments from 11 important markets during the week ending Aug. 19 were: Cattle and calves, 53,498; hogs, 2,710; sheep 45,669.

In eastern wholesale fresh meat markets veal again advanced in prices prevailing a week ago, while other classes of meat were either steady or lower. Veal generally 50c@1 higher. Beef steady to 50c lower; lamb and mutton steady to $1 lower. Pork loins ranged steady to $2 lower. Aug. 25th prices good grade meats: beef $14@15.50; veal $17@18; lamb, $21@23; mutton, $11@14; light pork loins, $25@28; heavy loins, $15@19.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
