The Third Semi-Annual Meeting of the 6th Congressional District Press Association will be held at Pontiac, July 21st. An interesting programme is being arranged, and a general attendance of the quill drivers is desired.

Rev. L. B. Platt, the deservedly popular pastor of the Congregational Church, will leave to-morrow for a four week's vacation, which he will spend in northern Michigan, and along the North and West shores of Lake Superior.

William A. Cook, who lives just north of this city on the Gould farm, has recently purchased about 600 sheep, some of them very good ones, and placed them on his farm. The investment, with ordinary luck, will pay handsomely.

At the base ball game on Saturday between the Fowlerville and Owosso clubs, at the fifth innings the rain compelled the boys to disperse. At that time the score stood Fowlerville 2; Owosso 3, with a man on 2d and 3d bases and no man out.

Wool is coming in lively, and the quality is said to be unusually good, and the price is fair, to say the least. There is no better wool market in the State than Owosso, and the people of the county of Shiawassee will make money by remembering this fact when they have wool to sell.

The Lowell Journal says, "It was fun to see the ice man Monday morning, wrapped in a big over-coat and pensive thought. It was a day when crow bars cried for hair restorative."

We think it is safe to say that there is not a vacant house in the city in order for occupancy. In fact we do not think there are enough houses for the proper accommodation of the people of the city, to say nothing about the army of new comers.

On the evening of Friday, June 30th, Owosso Lodge No. 8101. O. G. T. will hold an ice cream social at their Hall over the First National Bank. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance of the members of the order and other friends of the cause of total abstinence.

We noted with great pleasure, during a recent visit at Hastings, a decided improvement in The Banner under its present manager, M. L. Cook, and believe it will now do efficient service as a Republican Journal. We hope it may be able to restore the old time Republican majority there, and win for its young and ambitious editor both fame and fortune, politically and financially.

"Summer Resorts of the Mackinaw Region" is the title of a beautifully printed pamphlet by J. A. Van Fleet, M. A., issued from The Lever office, Detroit, descriptive of the country around the north end of the Lower Peninsula of Michigan. The work is beautifully illustrated, and is a credit to both the author and the publishers, to whom we are indebted for the copy which graces our table.

The wool trade seems to be booming. Up to Thursday evening Mr. McHardy had bought about 30,000 lbs. One lot special fine, clipped by John Corlay, of Owosso township, 95 fleeces, weight 740 lbs. brought 28 cents with no discounts.

We saw on the streets Wednesday and Thursday loads of fine wool from all parts of Shiawassee county and several from Clayton, Genesee county. The prices paid range from 25 to 38 cents.

We hear that there is considerable excitement at Durand, concerning the death on the 14th inst., of Mrs. Henderson, wife of a lively stable man. The attending physician, a Dr. Jones, as we hear the name, reported that she died of diphtheria, and is said to have caused her rather hasty burial. Report, also, says, that on Wednesday a brother of the deceased, from Eaton county, caused the disinterment of his sister for the purpose of holding a post-mortem. The result we have not heard.

Our thanks are tendered President Abbott, for the annual catalogue of the Michigan Agricultural College for 1881-2. It is a pamphlet of some 50 pages full of valuable information to all who are interested in the growth and prosperity of the pioneer agricultural college in this country. To which is added the "Triennial Catalogue of the officers and graduates of the State Agricultural College of Michigan." From it we learn that the total number of graduates has been 244, of whom 230 are now living, and of that number 170 are at present living in this state, among whom are 93 farmers, 6 horticulturists, 3 fruit culturists, 2 apirists, 11 professors of agricultural or related sciences, and 2 agricultural editors. A pretty good showing we think.

The exercises at the High School yesterday afternoon were for the most part good. Shortly after 2 o'clock the scholars marched in together to the tune of "In Storm and Rain." The first piece was "Some Papers that the Boys Read," by Miss Anna Willoughby. It was well written and well delivered. Miss M. G. White followed with a well rendered recitation. H. K. White responded to Miss Willoughby with "The Books that the Girls Read." Miss H. F. Rowell next recited "The Author's Night." This was very well spoken. Miss R. succeeded in making herself heard throughout the entire room. The next was an essay by Miss A. M. Williams. Miss Alice Lyon next well recited "The Lady of Shalott" and J. N. McBride closed the literary exercises with "What Sam Brown Learned about Civil Service Reform." All did well. The only criticism is that some of the speakers could scarcely be heard in the back part of the room. The music was fine.

We received the following postal card on Tuesday:

CHICAGO, JUNE 20th, 1882. MR. EDITOR:—The Chicago Base Ball Manager would like to know of Mr. Platt, whether some of the Palestine horses could not be trained to catch a base ball in their tails, and run with it in their teeth to first base man in time to call out the striker. Business Notice. It is our purpose to settle all bills with every person on the first of each month. This will enable us to promptly meet all business engagements, keep all matters promptly adjusted, so that mistakes and misunderstandings may be avoided, and secure permanent friendly relations with all our patrons and creditors. To that end we are now making out bills for all claims due us to July 1st, and hope and shall expect to be able to collect the accounts so that we can meet all our bills on or before that date. E. O. DEWEY, Publisher of THE TIMES.

We have been shown a table of the comparative attendance statistics of our High School for the month of April in the years 1880, 1881 and 1882, which show that in 1880, the number enrolled in the High School department was 74, average daily attendance 88 per cent; grammar department 276, average daily attendance 92 per cent; primary 432, average daily attendance 92 per cent; total enrollment 782, average daily attendance 91 per cent, with 26 foreign scholars in attendance. In 1881, number enrolled, High School 79, average daily attendance 90 per cent; grammar 303, average daily attendance 88 per cent; Primary 341, average daily attendance 87 per cent; 27 foreign scholars; total enrollment 723; with an average daily attendance of 88 per cent. In 1882, number enrolled, High School 69, average daily attendance 87 per cent; grammar 276, average daily attendance 92 per cent; primary 501, average daily attendance 92 per cent; total enrollment 846, average daily attendance 90 per cent; of these 26 were foreign scholars.

Written for THE TIMES. The Union Temperance meeting at the M. E. church, last Friday evening, called out a large audience who listened to the services of the occasion with marked attention. The M. E. choir furnished the music. Rev. S. Reed introduced the services by a brief review of the inauguration of the Union meetings, commended the W. C. T. U. for their faithfulness, and asked that God would bless them in their efforts and cause their numbers to be increased, and all the W. C. T. U. said amen. Rev. L. B. Platt gave the scripture lesson from Gal. 5th, concerning the works of the flesh, and the fruit of the spirit. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Leonard. The address by Rev. Mr. Egbert, was on the duties and responsibilities, as individuals and citizens, to aid in putting away the traffic in strong drink. He came to the meeting without knowing he was to be speaker, so he spoke "from the fullness of his heart." It would seem as though when temperance was the theme, he had only to open his mouth and the thoughts come rushing impetuously out like prisoned birds, and at times his "righteous indignation" gives a vehemence to his utterances that thrill the listeners like an electric shock. He is a battle-scarred veteran in the temperance army, but for him, there is "no discharge in this war." He spoke of a company of young men that he saw the evening before in a western town, who was planning to go to Ionia on Sunday for a drunken spree, and when he said that probably a like desecration of the day was occurring in Owosso, it seemed that each parent's heart in the audience must throbb with the enquiry—whose boy in Owosso would do so vile a thing? Could it be mine? He made an earnest plea for individual effort to help those who were fast drifting beyond the reach of human help. The tippers of to-day who are steadily marching on to fill the place of the drunkards of yesterday. Mr. Reed closed the meeting with hopeful cheering words in regard to the general out-look of the work, and the special work in Kansas and Iowa.

The Dangers of the Stock Markets. A man may be incredulous enough to risk his money in the fickle mysteries of a mercurial stock market but when he gets the itching fever, he goes straight for Dr. Swayne's Ointment. Unlike the Bulls and Bears of the Stock Exchange, who clean you out of hard earned cash, it returns your money with interest, in the way of allaying the intense itching and insuring sweet repose.

Soldiers, attention! Milo B. Stevens & Co., the well known war claim attorneys, will be represented at Corunna, Monday and Tuesday, June 26th and 27th, by their special agent, Frank I. Darling. Soldiers and others interested in claims for pension, increase of pension, or other claims, it is hoped, will give him a call. Mr. Darling will be at the office of the County Clerk.

Ordinance. Ordinance Establishing Fire Limits Within the City of Owosso.

SEC. 1. The Common Council of the City of Owosso do ordain, that all that portion of said city within the following boundaries be designated and is hereby declared to be the "Fire Limits" of said city, viz: Commencing at the north-east corner of the bridge over the Shiawassee river on Washington street; thence east to a point due south of the south line of block sixteen of said city; thence north to Mason street; thence west on a line parallel with the south line of Mason street, to the Shiawassee river; thence up said river along the east bank at the line of low water mark, to a point due west of said place of commencement; thence east to said place of commencement.

SEC. 2. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person or persons, to erect, build or construct or to cause to be built, connected or erected, or to aid or assist in the erection or building of any frame or wooden building within the said "Fire Limits," or to alter, enlarge, add to or rebuild, by frame or wooden addition, enlargement or rebuilding any building within said "Fire Limits," or to remove, cause to be removed, or to aid or assist in the removal of any frame or wooden building, or frame or wooden addition to building, from without to within said "Fire Limits," or from the lot within said "Fire Limits" upon which the same may be standing, or upon any other lot or place within said "Fire Limits," provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit or prevent the removal of frame or wooden buildings along the streets within said "Fire Limits" to any place outside of said "Fire Limits."

SEC. 3. Any building or enlargement or addition to building, made, or any building, rebuilt, or removed contrary to, or in violation of the terms and provisions of this ordinance, shall be deemed and held to be a public nuisance and the same may be abated, and raised or removed from within said "Fire Limits" by the City Marshal of said city, or by any other person directed to do so by said Common Council, under the supervision and direction of the said Common Council.

SEC. 4. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding the sum of seventy-five dollars, in the discretion of the court, together with the costs of prosecution, and on failure to pay such fine and costs, may be imprisoned in the county jail of Shiawassee county until such fine and costs be paid. Provided, that such imprisonment shall not exceed the period of ninety days.

SEC. 5. All ordinances, or parts of ordinance, in relation to the establishment and regulation of "Fire Limits" within said city, conflicting with said "Fire Limits" of the City of Owosso, are hereby repealed.

Approved June 19 1882. C. H. COSSITT, MAYOR. ATTEST: E. A. TODD, JR., City Clerk.
