Stock Notes.

J. C. Schroeder, of Burton, received first premium on his Short Horn bull Plumwood Lad, K., No. 27,453; at the Ovid fair.

We have received from Hon. Isaac Marston a catalogue of his herd of Jersey cattle. Among the number we notice several finely bred animals, and all who saw them at the State Fair, where they won a large share of the premiums offered, know they are beauties. Catalogues can be had by addressing the Judge at Bay City.

At the Ovid Fair Messrs. Hibbard were awarded the following premiums on their stock: Short Horns, five first and one second premiums; on grades, two first and two second; first on matched oxen; two second premiums on Merino sheep; and two first premiums on Berkshire pigs. They have several head of pure bred Berkshires for sale.

At the Grand Rapids Fair Messrs. Barnes, of Byron, were very successful with their sheep. Over 100 head of Michigan's best Merinos were on exhibition and competition was exceedingly lively. They captured premiums as follows: ram, two years old or over, 1st; ram, one year old, 2d; ram lamb, 2d; two ewes, two years old or over, 1st; two ewes, one year old, 2d; two ewe lambs, 2d; ram and two ewes of any age, diploma. Unregistered Merinos: ram, one year old, 2d; two ewes, two years old and over, 3d; two ewes, one year old, 1st and 2d; two ewe lambs, 3d; ram and two ewes of any age, diploma.

L. W. & O. Barnes were awarded premiums as follows at the Lansing Fair on their stock: Merino sheep, ram, three years old and over, 2d; ram, 2 years old, 1st; ram lamb, 3d; two ewes, three years old and over, 3d; two ewe lambs 2d. On Poland China swine: six first, four second and three third premiums. At this fair they sold 12 head of Poland China pigs at an average price of $20.00. They report the demand for this breed of swine as booming and add that they will be happy to show their stock to any who may call on them.

Messrs. Barnes send us the following list of their sales: 2 rams to Mr. Elmer, Mason; 1 ram to John T. Smith, Corning; 1 ram to John Proctor, Lowell; L. M. Kelsey, Ionia, 1 ram; Wm. G. Morrice, Morrice, 1 ram; Henry Avery, Traverse City, 1 ram; E. M. Leonard, Vernon, 1 ram; G. R. Knapp, Byron, 1 ram. And Poland China swine: C. L. Lemon-yon, Corunna, 1 boar pig; Crouse, Tremaine & Co., Highland Station, 1 pair pigs; M. W. Drake, Utica, 1 pair pigs; T. P. Smith, Rives Junction, 1 boar pig; P. Ostrander, Spring Arbor, 1 boar pig; A. H. Warren, Ovid, 1 sow pig; C. B. Newton, 1 boar pig; Robinson Bros., Diamonddale, 1 boar pig; J. H. Pike, Greenville, 1 pair pigs; A. L. Parker, Hoytville, 1 boar pig; L. Hopkins, Aurelians, 1 boar pig; W. S. Peacock, Leslie, 1 sow pig; Mr. Warren, Ovid, 1 sow pig; E. M. Lewis, Azalia, 3 pigs; John N. Pickett, Milford, 1 boar pig. T. P. Smith, Rives Junction, Short Horn bull calf.

PREMIUM JERSEYS.—In the Republican of Oct. 5, through mistake it was stated that Guerdin B. Smith had on exhibition three head of short-horn cattle. He exhibited three head of Jerseys. One cow "Flossie," aged 6 years, which took 1st premium and diploma over W. J. G. Dean's famous cow which had taken several 1st premiums at state fairs and had just come from Grand Rapids fair with 1st premium. His two-years-old heifer "Beg," took 2d premium, and his yearling heifer "Viva" took 1st premium and sweepstakes as being the finest Jersey on exhibition. She was purchased from the celebrated Beech Grove farm owned by G. S. Jackson of Indianapolis, Indiana, and sired by the famous bull "Le Brocqe." Mr. Smith has just bought two heifers and a bull of the same stock, and in the future we expect to see his Meadow Brook herd take foremost place at our state fair. As he is but a boy just coming into his majority, we are glad to note his progress in so laudable an undertaking.—Lansing Republican.

The Union Fair at Ovid.

The Union Fair of Clinton, Shiawassee, Gratiot, and Saginaw counties came off at Ovid last week, and as far as your correspondent can learn it was a success. The weather was delightful during two days of the Fair; the first and last were rainy. The last day it rained very hard in the forenoon and continued till about two o'clock, when a large crowd congregated to attend the races which came off regardless of the muddy track.

The Union Fair has a great many advantages in my opinion over those of adjoining counties: 1st: It is an affair of four counties which makes a larger and better show; 2d: It is a Stock company with a capital limited to $5,000, and therefore it always pays its premiums. 3d: Its officers are of the most courteous, pleasant and industrious kind. 4th: The people in and about Ovid do all in their power to make it a success. 5th: The association offer liberal speed premiums, which attracts good and fast horses, and this, as every one knows, helps more to draw a crowd than all the rest of the show combined.

The exhibit of cattle at Ovid was not as large, I think, as at our Fair although there was a fair representation. C. Hibbard & Son were there with their Short Horns. A few good Jerseys, two or three Holsteins, and a large number of grades were exhibited. Sheep, swine and poultry were well represented. Agricultural and Floral Halls were filled quite full. The Horse department was by far the best represented of any. Among the roadsters and horses of all work was Lyon's Kyrat, of St. Johns, a handsome horse by Old Charlie. There were a number of good colts of his get also exhibited. A. Bliss, of Vernon, exhibited a bay stallion by the Cole horse. Gilbert, of Rush, also exhibited a bay stallion, Wolverine, by Louis Napoleon, C. Rowell's Bijah besides a number of fine mares, among which were two of P. M. Rowell's. Among speed horses was St. Lawrence, owned by Joseph Amos, which won second money in the stallion race. He was driven by C. Owens. C. J. Stuart's bay gelding Burnsides won second in the 2:50 class, trotting in about 2:38 over a poor track. Mr. Owens also secured the ribbons for him. Dick Derrich, of Muir, won 1st in the 2:50 and free-for-all races with his black gelding, Richard R. Dewey & Stewart, of Owosso, entered the chestnut mare, Home Maid, driven by C. E. Abbott, the driver of Jerome Eddy. She won second in the free-for-all.

Mr. Kelsey, of Clinton, started a chestnut horse whose name we have forgotten as did also Erastus Barnes, of Laingsburg. Flirt and Halfpenny, Detroit horses I believe, started in this race.

Among the running horses were Johnny Rook, Maggie Mitchell, Edinburg and LaFlech. LaFlech and Maggie Mitchell winning the races.

Thus we can see the quite liberal premiums offered for racing brought a number of good horses there, and the races drew big crowds every afternoon. Now I would suggest a way that the Shiawassee County Fair might draw larger crowds and more trotting horses—but perhaps they would not thank me for my suggestions. In the first place commence in the spring and scrape the track, so that it will look more like one than a meadow. In the next place, if the Agricultural Society cannot afford to do all that, let them make up enough for half the purses and the horse association make up the other half and make purses of from $75 to $200 in each race. Then small purses will bring quite a number of horses, a great many more than generally start. Make more competition, better races and more gate money and all races open to the world. The entries should close about a week before the fair and the names of the horses published so people would know whether or not there would be any racing. Many have tired of coming to see a race and then be disappointed. Shiawassee county does not always have horses enough to fill all the races. These are my suggestions; perhaps some persons have others, which I would like to hear.

An Honored Name.

A little while ago I came across a note-book dated ten years back, and found in it these anecdotes of Mr. Emerson, which I have never seen in print. Both of them were told in private conversation. When Mr. D— was in St. Petersburg as a delegate to the statistical congress, he had some conversation with the grand duchess, a lady of 70 years or more. She spoke with great interest of the United States, and said that she had known of Mr. R. W. Emerson's books for thirty years, and that when she traveled she always took his essay on "Friendship" with her.

The other anecdote was told by a New York gentleman. One of his friends, named Emerson, went into a barber shop in Liverpool to be shaved. The barber saw the name in his hat, and refused to take any more shaving money, saying that his admiration for Mr. Ralph Waldo Emerson was so great that he would not take any money from anyone of the name.—Boston Letter to Worcester Sun
