C. J. STUART.

During the county fair, E. S. Burnett sold an eight months old Short Horn bull calf to L. J. Kinney for $100. This calf was one of the beautiful pair of twins exhibited by Mr. B.

Mr. E. Burlingame, of Byron, purchased at the state fair of E. Bissell, of Vermont, the yearling Merino buck, Banker's No. 393. This ram is well bred and fine individually:

Married, at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. T. S. Leonard, Oct. 4, 1883, Nicholas Geeck, of Venice, and Bertha Taphouse, of Caledonia.

The last issue of the Lake City Journal was an 8 page, eight column folio. Surely Ren Barker's business must be "booming." Well, he is a good fellow and deserves to be successful.

The diphtheria in a malignant form has made its appearance north of the city. People, everywhere, should be on their guard and use all possible precautions.

The receipts of the Baptist dining hall during the fair were $200.25.

Alderman Wolverton had a stand on the fair grounds and sold 36 1/2 dozen bottles of Owosso pop, among other things and says the receipts of his two days labor were entirely satisfactory.

Patten sold "taffy" at the fair, paid liberally for the use of the grounds, and says he is perfectly contented with the result of his venture.

Hon. L. Van Dusen has purchased the house on Ball street, owned by C. W. Clapp.

THE TIMES has not yet seen the first person not pleased with the county fair, and has not heard a tithe of the usual grumbling about the awards made by the viewing committees. All in all, we guess the public will never be better pleased, as a whole with any one thing than they are with the county fair of 1883.

Lots of new subscribers last week and yet there is room for a few more names on our subscription book.

Some of the sidewalks about our city are in a very dilapidated condition and should be repaired at once. Hurry up the work Alderman Wells.

The Bancroft Advertiser says the people of that village in attendance at the county fair were well pleased and that generally speaking, it was a success. True.

As against the Bancroft Advertiser's predictions, we place on record the opinion of THE TIMES that Butler's re-election in Massachusetts, is "not very probable," and we do not believe it among the possibilities.

The soldiers at their re-union at Chesaning, on Wednesday, were addressed by Rev. D. W. Sharts, of Owosso.

C. R. Mabley, of Detroit, calls the attention of our readers to his very large stock of gentlemen's furnishing goods, ready made clothing, and merchant tailoring in our advertising columns to-day.

Biggest bargains yet—Acre lots. Good building locations. Call on P. S. Crawford, Owosso.

All aboard for the Art Loan. Saturday, Oct. 20.

The new school rooms at the Bancroft Union school house are to be ready for occupancy, Nov. 1.

The T., A. A. & N. railway company have purchased the right of way through the farm of Mr. A. B. Chipman on the original survey, for $500. Just about fair all around.

Do not fail to read the new advertisement of Mr. C. J. Stuart. He evidently means to you let know that he sells the BEST STOVE in the market. He certainly has one which cannot be beat.

The result of the October elections can be summed up in two lines: Ohio, Democratic and for free whisky, Iowa, Republican and for prohibition.

Duff calls the attention of the readers of THE TIMES to his mammoth stock of exceedingly fine teas. Every consumer will find it advantageous to see his line of teas, and learn his prices, not only on teas, but every other article in his extensive stock of groceries, etc.

A small house and lot for sale. This is desirable property. P. S. Crawford, Owosso.

Hon. John Sherman says: "The question of the wages of labor is the vital argument in favor of protection."

Letter postage has just been reduced to two cents.

Fourteen millions of the National debt was paid last month.

The tariff was revised and reduced and internal revenue burdens knocked off last winter so as to relieve the people more than a million a week.

The public credit is higher than that of England, and the Secretary of the Treasury is about to recommend a two-per cent bond.

The whole country, with the exception of Wall street, is prosperous. The balance of trade is with us and in spite of the financing of Europe shall gain gold.

These things result from Republican legislation and administration.

Baptist social at the chapel to-morrow, Saturday, evening.

GRAND EXCURSION TO DETROIT, SATURDAY, OCT. 20.

Bound trip tickets including admission to the Art Loan Exhibition only $2.00. Children under 12 years $1.25. Tickets for sale at THE TIMES office.
