Byron.

Deferred Letter.

Byron did not celebrate.

H. W. Bruce is in Detroit this week.

H. B. Whittle and wife are visiting with friends at Deer Creek.

George Williams, of Vernon, was in Byron over Sunday.

Wilbur Gibbs has gone to Big Rapids to stay through vacation.

J. J. Davis and L. E. Woodard, of Owosso, were in town last Friday.

Quite a number of our Byron people went to Flint to see Barnum's show, the 5th.

P. Hadsall attended the funeral of J. Matlock in Owosso last Tuesday.

Work on the DeVore block is progressing.

The family of Wm. Royce numbering five are all quite sick with fever.

CONARD.

Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Springer, Mrs. Arnis and George Springer, of your city, spent last week visiting at home.

Mr. M. A. Taylor has secured in Mr. Sutton a competent clerk. His business is now about double what it was in the winter. Mr. S. is also very popular, especially with the young ladies, one of which signed her despair when she said to another "I know he doesn't care anything for me."

Our young people who went to Lansing "never had such a fine time."

Those who went to Chesaning and New Lothrop found great pleasure in attending at the rink and boweries—especially as the day was so cool.

A fine display of fireworks at C. Haughton's the 5th.

Mr. John King is breaking his colt.

Mrs. J. Augustine has her Hambletonian broken. It is a fine trotter even now; she thinks about 3 minutes.

George Golden drew the buggy, given as a prize, by a Chesaning clothing house.

Resolutions upon the death of Mrs. Zora Mitchell who died June 4. The following tribute is offered by the Quackenbush Relief Corps No. 26, of which the deceased was a member:

WHEREAS, A solemn providence of God has removed from us our beloved friend and sister Zora Mitchell, therefore be it Resolved, That as we sit in the shadow of a great sorrow we recognize the hand that smiles to us that of our Heavenly Father, whose tenderness and wisdom we cannot mistrust; and that we comfort our hearts by calling to mind that she, who has been so early taken from us, gave firm foundation for the hope that her outgoing was but an everlasting entering in.

Resolved, That to her family and all those who were bound by ties nearer than we know, we, as friends and sisters, extend the sympathy of loving hearts rejoicing that their hours of loneliness may be sweetened by fragrant memories of her who has gone into the wider life, into the spiritual places, whither He would lead them, trusting that they will be enabled to look from the midnight that is now heavy upon them to the bright morning beyond. The tie sundered here links earthly friends with golden threads to the throne of God, while in this world "death ever breaks the tender ties."

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Owosso papers and that a copy be presented to the bereaved family.

Buell & Sons boots and shoes keep their shape and hold trade at E. L. Brewer's.

A lot of tea cups and saucers, ad quality to close, at almost any price. G. W. WATROUS.

Sorrow consoled by wearing Craxton, Wood & Co's ladies' fine shoes. No waxed thread or tacks to worry. Sold by E. L. Brewer.

A good "two-foot" rule—never wear tight shoes, but go to E. L. Brewer's for a good fit.

I have sold over forty toilet sets in the past 30 days and have as many more to close cut at ruinous low prices to make room for new goods to arrive. G. W. WATROUS.

That new Bradbury machine at E. L. Brewer's sews rips in old boots and shoes nearly as good as new.
