DEATH OF A GREAT ENCINEER.

The Builder of the Suzz Canal Joins the Great Majority.

PARIS, Dec. 8.-Count Ferdinand de Lesseps died yesterday at Lachenale, near Vatane, in the department of L'Indre. During the night he received the last

DE LESSEPS. Egypt in 1854 hedisclosed his project for a Suez canal to Said Pacha and two years later secured the desired concession. The canal was opened for steamers of light draught in 1865, and the full plans were carried to completion in 1869. Since 1873 Count de Lesseps had concentrated his attention to the Panama canal, and in 1875 at the meeting of the congress of the geographical sciences he formally proposed to cut a canal across the Isthmus of Pan-

He formed a company with a capital of $20 000 to make the surveys, obtaining support from financiers in nearly all the countries in Europe. In 1879 he obtained from the Colombian government the ex-clusive privilege of constructing the canal and immediately set about organizing a stock company with a capital of $120,00,000. This proving a failure he began again to organize a company with a capital of $100,000,000, coming to the United States frequently to advance the vast project. The company was constituted in January, 1881, and in October of the same year work was begun. But this company also failed, and shortly afterward were instituted the celebrated trials in the French chamber of deputies which found the veteran engineer guilty of practicing fraud and sentenced him to imprisonment, from which he escaped only by the elemency of a sympathetic people.

M. De Lesseps received in his lifetime most of the highest honors conferred by any of the European governments. He was appointed to the rank of grand cross of the Legion of Honor Nov. 19, 1869; re-ceived the cordon to the Italian Order of St. Maurice in Dec. 1860; was nominated by Queen Victoria an honorary knight grand commander of the Order of the Star of India, Aug. 19, 1870, and received the broad ribbon of the Persian Order of the Lion and Sun July 25, 1883.

NEW SYSTEM OF BANKING. It Continues to Engage the Attention of the House Statesmen

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 .- At the hearing by the house banking and currency committee of the several new plans for a banking system Secretary Carlisle presented his bill complete and argued in its favor as compared with the plan of Eckels. Then Horace White presented a bill. discussing the general question White made this remark: "It has been said that there is no more reason why the govern-ment should guarantee the notes of a bank than those of a merchant, a manufacturer or a farmer. This would be true if the notes of the merchant, the manufacturer and the farmer were allowed to circulate as money, but not otherwise."

He wanted the greenbacks retired and said they were a menace to business. He held that it was the paramount duty and right to provide for the safety of the com munity, C. G. Homer, of Baltimore, advocated the "Baltimore" plan, while Repre-sentative Walker, of Massachusetts, pelted the Baltimore man with questions and de-clared that his plan would result. in more confusion than now exists. In the monntime Horaco White's bill was being examined by the committee.

The bill is similar to the others in general plan, but differs in details. It does away with United States bonds and permits the issue of circulating notes on the capital of the bank, receiving such notes from the comptroller of the currency the amount of — per cent, of its paid up, unimpaired capital upon paying to the treasurer in lawful money to the amount of 2 per cent. of such circulating notes, and thereafter a tax at the rate of one half of one per cent, per annum upon the average amount of its circulation for a pill. The best medical and the griping that come with the ordinary pill. The best medical authorities agree that in regulating the bowels mild methods are preferable. For every derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels, these tiny, sugar coated pills are most effective. They go about their work in an easy and natural way, and their good lasts. Once used, they are always in favor. Being composed of the choicest, concentrated vegetable extracts, they cost much more than other pills found in the market, yet from forty to forty-four are put up in each sealed glass vial, as sold through druggists, at the price of the cheaper made pills.

"Pleasant Pellets" cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in sealed glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. Whether as a laxative, or in larger doses, as a gently acting but searching cathartic, these little "Pellets" are unequaled.

As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve the distress arising from over-cating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules. Any child readily takes them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

A free sample (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.

In addition to the amount of the circulating notes provided for each association shall be entitled to receive from the comptroller circulating notes to the amount of 55 per cent. of its paid up, unimpaired capital, upon paying to the treasurer 2 per cent. of such additional circulation and the tax of 1/2 of 1 per cent. per annum upon the average amount outtanding and an additional tax at the rate of 4 per cent, per annum upon the amount of such additional circulation outstanding for the year, all of which sums are to be a part of the guarantee

It is provided that whenever bank notes are issued to any association under this act it shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury to cancel legal tender United States notes and treasury notes to the amount of 86 per cent, of the bank notes

These are the principal points of the bill.

SMALL FLOCKS PAY.

Mistake of Keeping Two Hens Where There Is Room For but One.

It is a mistake to keep too many fowls. Large flocks are often as bad for the fowls as crowded tenements are for human beings. A space of 10 feet square should be allotted each fowl for exercise. A house 10 by 10 is not too large for ten hens and one male, and a dozen hens are sufficient as the maximum number for that space. It will pay to and is as spry as most women of 60 or 70. sell off the surplus. Measure the space you have in square feet, and ther divide by ten, which will give you thonumber of hens that will be properly ac commodated with room. Small flocks assist in appropriating waste food that would otherwise be of no value, and the labor bestowed upon a small flock is of no consideration whatever, as a child may perform all the work of feeding. When we see the yet gray. On the contary, her hair is not records of a small flock of a dozen, we records of a small flock of a dozen, we brown in color, smooth, fine and abunare always reminded that the cost product, and when she undees the knot in portionately is lower than for a large which it is retained it falls to a length of flock, and a profit of $2 or $3 per hen is not unusual, but when it comes to keeping large numbers the conditions are then changed. Table scraps, which are potent with a small flock, become an insignificant portion of the food for a large number, and the farmer or the poultryman finds his expenses for food and labor increased more proportionate ly for a large flock than for a smaller one. Nothing gives more satisfactory results or affords greater pleasure than a flock of about a dozen hens. Each hen in the flock is well known to every member of the family, and if one person neglects them some one will be sure to notice the fault. They are pets and receive the very best of care. If the weather is severely cold or a rainstorm sets in, the hens are looked after as carefully as if they were members of the family, and they will lay and well repay for all the care that may be bestowed upon them. Those who keep but few hens (mostly those who live in suburbs of a city) aim to procure something good. The pure breeds are used. because it is a pleasure to have them, scrubs being rare. When the farmers adopt this plan, they will find greater
