|  | The Argus of Saturday stated that "Labor Day, September 1, will be observed on September 2 this year, the 1 st falling on Sunday." This reminds us of the Irishman who said "the 4th of July would be celebrated this year on the sth of August." Labor Day always comes the first Monday in September. |
|  | H. T. Newcomb, of Washlngton, has an article in the September Forum on the "Opportunities of Young Men and Women in the Civil Service." The article ts very well written and will well repay any ose reading  Mr. Newcomb is a graudson of Juage Turner and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J, . Comstock, of this city. |
