Robert G. Ingersoll

In a speech delivered over 20 years ago, in New York City, said: "I am in favor of gold and silver. I believe in silver because it is one of the greatest products of America. But I want a silver dollar worth a gold dollar, even if you have to make it four feet in diameter. When our money is worth only 80c on the dollar, we feel 20 per cent below par. When our money is good we feel good."

Hunt's Bargains

Are always worth 150 cents on a dollar. For instance:
That fancy boneless pork at 5c; where else in the county can you get any such meat for less than 8 or 9c a pound.

PLUG TOBACCO

15c A POUND.

In order to start a new brand of tobacco I will sell it for a short time for 15c in pound lots.

"Perfection Blend" Coffee.

Would again call your attention to the best 30c coffee on earth.

The "Owosso" fine cut 20c.

For a short time in order to start my new brand of chewing "the Owosso," I will sell for 20c in pound lots. This tobacco is cheap at 40c. It is the best piece of fine cut ever offered in Owosso. Now don't wait until these bargains are all withdrawn before you make up your mind.

3 lbs. Tea Fan-nings for 25c.

This is a nice, clean leaf, will make a good cup of tea. Please compare it with anything you can get for 15 or 20c at any other store.

The City Band will give an open air concert tonight at Arbelter Hill. Ten cents admission will be charged, the proceeds to go toward paying for the new uniforms.

Burglars entered the house of R. P. Bigelow, Friday night, securing quite a sum of money and a K. T. watch chain which Mr. B. valued highly as a gift from friends.

Workmen began this week to tear down No. 3, one of the oldest engines on the Ann Arbor road. The engine has outlived its usefulness and is now going into the scrap pile.

Walter Maliskey, assisted by 23 little folks, celebrated his eighth birthday, Monday, at the home of his parents, on Saginaw street. He was the recipient of a number of presents.

A. Stergall is rushed at present with repair work for the various factories. He has a piece of line shaft thirty feet and three inches long to straighten up for the Fox factory at Corunna.

Mason & Son started up their spoke factory yesterday for a short run, and E. A. Gould did the same with the handle factory. There is not business enough yet in sight, however, to guarantee steady running.

The local Christian Endeavor Union has chosen crimson and white for the colors to be used in decorating the churches, residences and places of business in honor of the district convention, Sept. 29-Oct. 1.

M. Schulein, proprietor of the Boston Clothing House, has had the Owosso Electric Co. wire the store for incandescent lights. He will also have an arc light suspended over the sidewalk in front of the store.

Company G started for camp, at Island Lake, Tuesday morning in full force. The boys have been working hard to get ready for camp, and started out in good shape in high spirits. Capt. VanEpps and Lieuts. Henderson and Heyer are in command. Major Hume has spent a part of the time in camp, while Major Roth, now of Detroit, is also in attendance.

The condition of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Russell does not change materially. Both are slightly improved. The mystery concerning the affair has not cleared up and probably never will. Public opinion varies, but there seems to be a preponderance in favor of the idea that a third party did the cutting. Sympathy is expressed on all sides for Elijah Russell, who is terribly grieved by the awful affair.

E. G. Traver has a force of eight men working in the cooper shop of the Owosso Hoop & Stave Co., turning out apple and pork barrels. Many of the small dealers around the state have neglected to get in a supply of material and will probably have difficulty in filling orders for barrels if, as appearances now indicate, the apple trade calls for a large number. Mr. Traver has material on hand sufficient to turn out between ten and twenty thousand apple barrels.
