

TWELVE YEARS OF FAILING HEALTH

Brought to Happy End. Says the People in Three Counties Know What Cardui Did For Her.

Weaverville, N. C.—Mrs. Abbagail Hampton, of this place, says that about 12 years ago she began to take Cardui after having been in failing health for 12 years, during which time she had to take to her bed four days out of each month, and suffered agony; that the doctors told her she must have female trouble and gave her medicine which did her no good and finally insisted on her going to the hospital for treatment.

She goes on to say: "I am a large woman, and my ordinary weight, 160 pounds, went down to 135. I got so bad I just dragged around and could scarcely sit up. . . . My neighbors all thought I was going to die and would say I couldn't live long. My little daughter thought the same. . . . My husband and friends urged me to try Cardui, and he bought me some of it. I began feeling better as soon as I began taking it, and I steadily improved until I was well and strong. I make my garden, do my housework and have cooked for 20 boarders at one time. Am a strong, healthy woman, permanently cured by Cardui. My husband and I can't say enough for Cardui. . . . The people in three counties know what this medicine has done for me, for neither I nor my husband ever cease praising it."

Cardui is for sale at all druggists with full directions for use. Try it.

Of Good Repute.

"But what is his reputation? That is the principal thing."
"Well, papa, he is reputed to spend fifty thousand a year. That's good enough for me!"—Judge.

Home, Sweet Home.

"Home is where the heart is," remarked the sentimentalist.
"That's right," replied the ordinary person. "You can always tell what town a man is from by observing what ball club he roots for."

His Way of Revenge.

Old Lady—Why are you not playing ball with the other little boys?
Little Boy—I muffed or fly in de lef field, an' de capt'n chucked anoder feller in me place.
Old Lady—I wouldn't watch them play if they treated me like that.
Little Boy—I ain't watchin' 'em play; I'm waitin' till the game's over ter lick de capt'n.

Use for the Copper.

A policeman, with more than usual avoiddupis and expanse of shoe leather, had just passed a little terrace house, with a bit of garden in front, when a little boy ran after him.
"Halloo, kiddie," said the copper genially; "what can I do for you?"
"Mother sent me out," answered the youngster, "to ask you if you would mind walking up and down our path for a minute or two. It's just been graveled, and we ain't got a roller."

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE

Medicine Not Needed in This Case.
It is hard to convince some people that coffee does them an injury! They lay their bad feelings to almost every cause but the true and unsuspected one.

But the doctor knows. His wide experience has proven to him that, to some systems, coffee is an insidious poison that undermines the health. Ask him if coffee is a cause of constipation, stomach and nervous troubles.

"I have been a coffee drinker all my life, and when taken sick two years ago with nervous prostration, the doctor said that my nervous system was broken down and that I would have to give up coffee.

"I got so weak and shaky I could not work, and reading an advertisement of Postum I asked my grocer if he had any of it. He said, 'Yes,' and that he used it in his family and it was all it claimed to be.

"So I quit coffee and commenced to use Postum steadily, and in about two weeks I could sleep better and get up in the morning feeling fresh. In about two months I began to gain flesh. I weighed only 146 pounds when I commenced on Postum and now I weigh 167 and feel better than I did at 20 years of age.

"I am working every day and sleep well at night. My two children were coffee drinkers, but they have not drank any since Postum came into the house, and are far more healthy than they were before." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

REDINGOTE WILL STAY FOR AFTERNOON AND EVENING

DECREE OF PARISHAN ARBITERS OF FASHION.

Styles Are Varied, but That Particular One Is to Be a Leading Feature of the Season—Pot Hat Goes With It.

Cheruit, leading Paris modiste, insists upon the redingote that reaches the hem of the skirt, and as Jenny also takes up the idea, it is possible that the fashion will be generally seen over here.

Jenny is not as great an artist as Cheruit, but she is popular and pleases the Americans. This season she has repeated her success of last spring and she will now begin to suffer the fruits of popularity among Americans; she will be exploited by all the trade and wholesale houses, her models will be copied in every kind of cheap material and sold for $20 or less, and the fastidious woman, along with the exclusive dressmaking houses and specialty shops, will be intent upon search for and wondering where they can secure models to offer to the women who will pay good prices, but who refuse the exploited fashions of the shops.

Every great dressmaker of Paris has suffered from an excess of favoritism here. As soon as the wholesaler or those who cater to the trade of the shops offer hundreds of models from one house, the country is flooded with them, the fashion is soon done for, and the dressmakers lose trade.

Well, whatever the result, here is the redingote and the pot hat as the leading features of the season. The former is easier to wear than the latter, but they go admirably together. The redingote is able to stand a lavish amount of fur, and it looks as though women will shortly resemble the men of Peary's arctic expedition. Even the chins are to be smothered in peltry.

The simpler redingote, however, will be more dignified. The best models are in dark blue, of course, for there is no genuine diversion from this color for street clothes, and there is not an inch of trimming on it except a postilion collar of satin or velvet. It has a cord of silk that outlines a long-waisted effect by running through slides of the cloth placed in a slanting line around the figure. The sleeves are long, plain and finished with a postilion cuff.

The Complexion.

The food we eat has much to do with the condition of the complexion. Green salads are an important aid to the digestion and will accomplish much toward bleaching and whitening a sallow complexion. They possess certain chemical qualities and supply the body with needed salts. Tomatoes, endive, lettuce and young onions are splendid for the skin. Spinach contains salts of potassium, iron and other properties that act upon the liver. Tea and coffee must be taken in moderation.

NEWEST DESIGNS IN SKIRTS

Varying Degrees of Width, According to the Material Employed—All Shapes of Pockets Used.

The widths of the new separate skirts vary to quite a degree, depending upon the material used. Simple tailored skirts of heavy fabrics average from two to two and a half yards in width, while some dressier skirts measure three yards. They escape the ground from three to five inches. Simple skirts are in plaited designs, with the plaits placed at the side, back or front, or in clusters in side or box plaits. Modified circular skirts are worn, as well as skirts shirred on at the waist line with the fullness at the sides and back. An outside belt at the normal waist line will continue to be used, frequently made of self-material, sometimes extending down the sides, forming pockets. Some skirts have two belts, one at the normal waist line and one slightly below. All shapes of pockets are used, some being embroidered or trimmed with braid.

Among the dressy designs are the two and three-tiered skirts, some in redingote effect and others with a slight drapery suggestion. Skirts of serge with underpetticoats of satin or taffeta are smart, as well as skirts of serge gaberdine or broadcloth, made in flounce effect with taffeta or velvet bands. Combinations of plaid and striped silk are also used. Other favored materials are satins, failles, taffetas, velvet cords, velveteens, broadcloth, serge, whipcord, poplin, tweeds, checks, plaids and stripes. Dark colors are the most prominent.

Sewing Hint.
In darning damask, if threads are drawn from one end of the material and used for the purpose, the patches place will scarcely be noticed. This is advisable when one has a very valuable piece which has accidentally been torn.

FOR AFTERNOON AND EVENING

The Model of This Afternoon and Evening Dress From the House of Martial et Armand of Paris, is of Brown Chiffon Velvet. Underneath the Tunic of Velvet is a Skirt of Chantilly Lace. The Half-Length Sleeves Are Lengthened by Chantilly Lace and Reach to the Wrist. The Waist of the Model is Overlapping, Forming a "V" at the Throat. It is Fastened at the Waist Line With Four Buttons. A Medici Collar, Edged With Lace, and a Black Velvet Band of Narrow Width About the Throat. Gives the Model the Completed "Dressy" Appearance Which the Really Good Dresser Strives to Achieve.

GIFTS TO PLEASE THE BRIDE

Many Simple and Inexpensive Presents That Will Be Sure to Be Appreciated.

Young girls often want to make a wedding gift that is not expensive and yet they want it to be in perfect taste and, if possible, not duplicated. One girl has made a habit of giving a guest book or register for the new home. These can be found at a leather and novelty shop for $5. They come in all colors and when marked in gilt with the name or initials make a gift sure to be enjoyed and appreciated.

Another girl says she has given several little flat, solid gold lead pencils to be carried in the gold mesh bag or purse. These also at the most famous of jewelers sell for $5, and when sent in the choicest of wrappings are certainly dainty gifts.

And a third young woman, who has made a study of appropriate and appreciated wedding gifts, claims that the little, apparently insignificant things such as sugar tongs, mustard spoons, butter ball picks, tea balls, etc., are frequently missing from a collection of gifts, so she confines her remembrances to these.

A set of the heavy bronze or metal book ends, so artistic and decorative, have been sent to brides lately and they were welcome.

FASHION HINTS

Many of the fall dresses for street wear are of serge combined with silk. A green sash will add dash to the white gown.

New parasols have the edges turned up all around. A little Irish lace is used to trim garden party frocks. Champagne seems to be the favorite color.

White shoes look very smart with the taffeta dresses. Delicately colored linens are used for afternoon frocks.

The success of a hat is largely a matter of poise and tilt.

The gay sweater over the white dress is still in good style.

New evening dresses have sleeves puffed to the elbow.

Nothing is better suited than voile to the present fashions.

Binders for Lingerie.

Ribbon binders for lingerie are made of satin ribbon about an inch wide long enough to go around a pile of night dresses or other lingerie, or perhaps around sheets and pillow cases. The ribbon ends fasten with a hook and eye under a single satin rose, which hides the junction and ornaments the pile.

Sewing Hint.
In darning damask, if threads are drawn from one end of the material and used for the purpose, the patches place will scarcely be noticed. This is advisable when one has a very valuable piece which has accidentally been torn.

A FRIEND TO THE WORKINGMAN

Five years ago I was so troubled with kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder that I had to leave working my farm. Life looked dark to me until I heard of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root through a cured friend. I tried a bottle and began to feel better at once. After using five or six bottles I felt fine and have continued to work as I had before my affliction.

I want to state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a kidney medicine that will cure and I owe my good work during the past five or six years to it.

Yours very truly,

In the local treatment of women's ailments such as leucorrhoea and inflammation, hot douches of Pastine are very efficacious.
