As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected in less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Sold by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Oregon State 50 Years.

Portland—The Oregon Historical Society is making arrangements for the celebration, on February 13, of the 50th anniversary of Oregon's admission into the Union.

Frederick N. Judson, of St. Louis, a widely-known lawyer and author, will be the chief speaker. Other notable addresses will also be delivered at that time. It has not yet been decided whether the ceremonies will be held in Portland or Salem.

While the constitution of Oregon was adopted by the people of Oregon in 1857, and officers chosen thereunder, it was not until February 14, 1859, that Oregon was admitted to the Union as a state by act of Congress. As February 14 this year falls on Sunday, those in charge have deemed it advisable to hold the celebration on the Saturday preceding.

Evangelist Samuel W. Jackson and wife of Portland, Ore., who began a revival meeting at the Christian church Thursday night. Evangelist Jackson comes highly recommended both as a man and as an eloquent speaker. "Mrs. Jackson as a chorus leader has few equals in the Northwest. Her solos are soul-stirring and a delight to all." Daily Chronicle, The Dalles, Ore. "Evangelist Jackson has a peculiar style of his own; by his pleasing, entertaining and eloquent manner he always holds his audiences spell bound from first to last. Hear these soul-winners once and you will wish to hear them again."—The Record, Prosser, Wash. Sunday at 11 a. m. the subject is "Communion or the Lord Supper." At 3 p. m. there will be a meeting for women only, subject, "Woman, Her Place and Power." Sunday evening, at 7:30, "The Glass Railroad." Large chorus choir. Came Near Choking to Death. A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
"On October 18th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23rd, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by Burnaugh & Mayfield.

The Pedant Under the Microscope.
A scholar has a considerable amount of sound learning, and he is afraid that his fellow citizens may not fully appreciate it. So in his conversation he allows his erudition to leak out, with the intent the stranger should say, "What a modest, learned man he is, and what a pleasure it is to meet him!" Only the stranger does not express himself in that way, but says, "What an admirable pedant he is, to be sure." Pedantry is a well recognized compound, two-thirds sound learning and one-third harmless vanity.—S. M. Crothers in Atlantic.

OREGON BRIEFLETS
Officers from Klamath county have located a car of stolen horses at San Francisco, shipped recently, and are now on track of the men who drove the horses to the shipping point and collected the payment for the animals.
Criminal proceedings have been brought against Charles Anderson, of La Grande, who was recently tried on a charge of violating the local-option law, and who is accused of having attempted to bribe a juror with a box of cigars.
A great conference of the timber trade was held last week in New Zealand to discuss the question of the importation of Oregon pine. The press was excluded, but several of the delegates asserted after the conference that owing to recent wholesale importation of pine fully 50 saw-mills would close down indefinitely.
Governor Chamberlain has issued a requisition upon the governor of California for the extradition of George Diehl, who is under arrest in that state and who is wanted in Portland to answer to a charge of obtaining $1700 from R. F. Effinger, last May, by means of a bogus check for $2500, drawn on the Citizens National Bank of Los Angeles and signed with the name of C. D. Bush.
The Senate adopted Senator Fulton's concurrent resolutions directing the secretary of war to survey the Siuslaw river to determine what project for its improvement can be completed with the expenditure of $100,000 in addition to a like sum to be provided by local residents and also to survey the Columbia river for improvement in front of the town of Hood River.
Klamath county will begin this year an active campaign of good-road construction. The county court has made a levy that will raise $25,000 for use this year and adopted a resolution pledging a levy necessary to have $24,000 each year for two years for the construction of the state highway via Crater Lake, at any time the additional funds necessary to carry out the project can be made available.
Argument of the case against Christ Nielsen has been set for hearing before the United States supreme court on January 18. This is the case in which the defendant was fined $50 in the justice court at Astoria for operating a purse seine in the Columbia river. The defendant held a license for his seine from the state of Washington, which has a special law which provides for licensing them.
All business organizations of Baker City have united on a plan of action to secure the branch insane asylum which it is proposed shall be located in Eastern Oregon. Letters have been mailed to every senator and representative in the legislature setting forth many reasons why Baker City is the proper place for the institution. A lobby of business men has been chosen to visit Salem and stay until the bill is disposed of.
A great deal of importance is attached to the proposition of the Oregon Pioneers' Association and the Oregon Historical Society to establish itself in a permanent location in Portland. The plan is to locate centrally this way in order that all residents of the state may have the opportunity of availing themselves of the advantages of such an institution and make of the enterprise one of which every citizen of Oregon may be proud.
Resolutions adopted by the Portland Chamber of Commerce to be submitted to the legislature, if adopted, will provide for an appropriation by the legislature that will enable the Railroad Commission of the state to contest the rate advances before the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is thought that with funds sufficient to carry on any proceedings they may think necessary, the members of the state commission may be able to oppose the increase

Race Traits.
The Celt, or the kind of man our ignorance calls Celt, has shown himself more than any of his brethren of other races dogged in following his ideas, whether in politics, in religion or in social customs—dogged and dauntless, beaten often, but never giving in, never changing his demand and not readily even changing his tactics.—Dublin Freeman's Journal.

A Desperate Charge.
"They charged like demons," said the retired colonel excitedly. "I never saw anything to touch it. The way they charged positively staggered me."
"Whom does he mean?" whispered the man who had just come in to his neighbor. "Is he talking about one of his old battles?"
"No," replied the other. "He's talking about the holiday he spent at the Swiss hotel."—Liverpool Mercury.

"It Isn't Me."
The Ottawa Herald tells of a farmer who received a telegram from New Mexico saying that his son had been killed and asking what they should do with the body. The bereaved father sent word that the body should be sent to him. Next day he received a dispatch from his son saying, "My corpse shipped to you, but it isn't me."—Kansas City Star.

A Disadvantage.
A man was praising the improvements made by a friend in his dwelling. "Your house looks a lot better now that it has been all newly painted."
"Well," the man who had been decorating admitted gloomily, "it does look a bit better. But we shall have to wash the windows more frequently to keep in harmony with it!"—London Family Herald.

What He Didn't Want.
The stranger with the empty look on his face went to the office of the institution that said on the front, "Vacuum Cleaner."
Approaching the desk, he asked absently:
"Do you keep a vacuum cleaner?"
"Yes," said the smart person behind the desk. "What do you want—a shampoo?"—Chicago News.
