LOWER PRAIRIE CREEK NOTES.

One of the most enjoyable affairs that has been given in this neighborhood for some time was a dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McPetridge, last Friday night, March 12. A large number were present, among them Mr. Vinton Hart, who is known to be a fine violinist, but on account of having a bad cold could not play as much as he usually does very willingly, so Mr. McPetridge pleased his guests with some of his own playing. Delightful refreshments were served at 12:30 o'clock, which were partaken of heartily. Mr. and Mrs. McPetridge entertained charmingly.

The ones who enjoyed these young folks' hospitality were glad that it was not until approaching dawn that the dance broke up, when they departed for their various homes.

Mr. Fred McPetridge is remodeling his house and building a new barn, and it has been reported that he is thinking of entering into the state of wedded bliss.

The basket social which was given at the Pratt schoolhouse last Friday night was a very pleasing affair, and the program rendered by the pupils of that school was highly appreciated. The singing and speaking was very good indeed, and the teacher, Mr. Tucker, is a very clever impersonator. The proceeds of the sale of the baskets will go to help build a tower in which the bell is to hang. The baskets were bid on very liberally.

An Ideal Cough Medicine. "As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Whitshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully expectations of the most exacting cases of croup and coughs of children. As it contains no opium, chloroform or morphine it certainly makes a most safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by Burnough & Mayfield.
