I have taken great care in selecting my stock for this Fall's business, getting one car of goods from the East and have just unloaded another from the West, thus getting the best things from both sections, and the benefit of buying in large quantities. My stock is the most complete in Wallowa County, such as the Sealy Non-Tufted Cotton Mattresses, guaranteed for 20 years; The Globe Wernick Elastic Book Cases, new and up-to-date patterns in Bedsteads, Extension Tables, Davenport and Lounges; the reclining Royal Morris Chair, Spring Rockers, Fumed Oak Rockers, Standing Work Baskets. RUGS of all kinds. Chinese Barbers Don't Use Lather.
"One of the chief trials of the average man is the way his razor pulls when he proceeds to erase the beard from his face," remarked a traveler.

"Some years ago I was in China, and I noticed that the cunning barbers of that country, instead of putting lather on the faces of their customers, used a number of very hot towels. I went through the experience and became a convert to the Chinese system. To this day when I go to shave, in lieu of soap, I steam my face with hot water and find that this method takes all the whiskers out of the whiskers far better than lather, so that if the blade is reasonably sharp you can shave without any torture incurred in the 'pulling process.'—Baltimore American.

Athletic Women of Other Days.
A searcher after curious facts has learned that athletic women are by no means a modern product, as is generally believed. They flourished in the days of sal volatile, hoops, patches and snuff—in the days when George II. was king. Ladies of the court took part in races arranged for them at the regular meetings, so that there were lady jockeys as well as gentlemen jockeys, and once a series of foot races for ladies in Hyde park was organized. The first one was run amid great enthusiasm of the populace, and the betting was high. Then stepped in some cross grained old fellow, who persuaded the government that such races were unseemly, and they came to a sudden end.

The Habeas Corpus.
The substance of habeas corpus was given in the famous Magna Charta of 1215, but as today understood the habeas corpus refers to the act of 1679. This act provides that any man taken to prison can insist on being brought by his accuser before a judge, who shall immediately decide whether or not bail is to be given; that the accused shall have the question of his guilt decided by a jury of twelve men and not by a government agent; that no one can be tried twice on the same charge; that every one may insist on being examined within twenty days of his arrest and tried by jury the next session; that no defendant may be sent out of the county for imprisonment.—New York American.

Good at Learning.
Mrs. Post—Do you think you'll smoke when you're older, Johnnie? They say it makes one awfully sick at first. Johnnie (aged ten)—I don't expect any bother over it, mother. It wasn't the slightest effort for me to learn to swear.—New York Life.

TOM TUCKER FOUND GUILTY AS CHARGED

JURY RETURNS VERDICT AFTER THREE HOURS CONSULTATION—COURT NEWS.

"Guilty as charged" was the verdict of the jury in the Tom Tucker case after about three hours deliberation. The jury retired at 10 a. m. Friday and the verdict was read at 2 p. m. Tucker is now in jail awaiting sentence, which will be pronounced Monday. It is understood his attorneys are preparing an appeal to the supreme court.

Another inmate of the jail is Arthur Hulse, brought here from Sale to testify in the horse-stealing case against W. B. Hunter, set for trial next Wednesday. Hulse pleaded guilty to the same charge last spring and was sent to the penitentiary.

The Dan Scott rape case will follow the Hunter trial.

The court and a jury are wrestling with the intricacies of a road damage case, Elliott vs. Wallowa County. It went to trial Friday and will last until Monday night at present rate of progress. Elliott was given $200 damages by the viewers of the Knapp road, but wants $1000.

The grand jury reported Friday. Besides the two indictments returned Tuesday, one other true bill was found—against Howard Coyle for "wounding of animals." Coyle was arraigned and pleaded guilty.

The case of the four Enterprise boys who broke into stores was reported back and will be sent to the county court.

Old Oregon Communities Getting in Line With Up-to-Date Methods.

Portland, Nov. 12.—Under the banner of the Oregon Development league the state has never taken a more decided forward movement in community publicity than now. With the various cities thoroughly aroused and actively at work to advance their interests the outlook is very bright. Never has there been a stronger advertising pulse throughout the state. There is a determination to set forth to the world the manifold advantages Oregon has to offer to the homeseeker.

During the past week under the direction of the Oregon Development league, remarkable meetings have been held in various parts of the state. Tremendous interest has been shown everywhere.

TWO VOTES GAVE VICTORY TO BAKER

STATE WOOLGROWERS WILL MEET THERE IN 1910—DOBBIN VICE PRESIDENT

The Wallowa county delegates to the state woolgrowers convention have returned home full of praise of Pendleton's splendid hospitality and of the convention itself, which was far the best ever held by the Association. Over 200 delegates attended and when the vote was taken on place of holding next year's meeting, Baker City won out over Enterprise by only two votes.

Hon. J. H. Dobbin placed Enterprise in nomination and F. A. Clarke made a characteristic speech, seconding this city. Everybody in Pendleton had heard of Enterprise and the delegates loudly cheered the city's representatives.

Mr. Dobbin was chosen vice president of the association, George McKnight of Vale, president, and the present efficient secretary, Dan P. Smyth of Pendleton, was re-elected.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY ORGANIZING THIS COUNTY

W. R. Geheler, deputy master and state organizer for the grange, Patrons of Husbandry, held a meeting at Troy on November 6, and began the work of bringing Wallowa county into the jurisdiction of this organization.

The grange in addition to being the oldest and strongest of rural orders is conceded to be the broadest organization in America. The grange is widely known and will be welcomed by the people of Wallowa county.

Japs Don't Like Snow.

The snow and cold weather has caused the Jap workers in the beet fields to quit. They don't like to stick their hands into the snow. About 200 tons are still in the ground. Over 40 cars have been shipped, and if the weather moderates so the rest of the beets can be pulled the total yield will be close to 1500 tons on 126 acres.

WAGON JOURNEY TO CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

CONTINUATION OF MISS DAVIS' DESCRIPTIVE LETTER—LONELY MOUNTAIN GRAVE.

Following is a continuation of Arva Davis' letter telling of the overland journey from Enterprise to Central California:

September 19 we left Pine Creek and just after crossing the line and starting through California Mr. Davis had to shed his heavy coat, and put it away. He put his linen one on. We all thought of what you Wallowa people told us about California being so warm, but he soon found the weather changeable, for it was really cold. His coat being put away so he couldn't very easily get to it, he sat and shivered and was very nearly frozen the balance of the day. As we had our beds fixed on the wagons the girls crawled into bed and stayed here all day. We have now left Joose lake. We made camp on Davis creek, finding it very cold, in fact, colder than it has been since we left Enterprise.

September 21 we reached Alturas in the north fork of the Pit river, and camped over night. The altitude here being 4,100 feet we found it still quite cold.

September 22 we traveled to Canby 24 miles from Alturas, on Pit river. Here we found a hot spring which was near by the road. There were other hot springs around through the country. We changed our minds now about the weather being colder in California than in Oregon. Driving on a short distance we stretched camp on the river. Shortly after supper, it now being dark, Mr. Littleton and Arva and Vergie Davis, with the lanterns, started out fishing, thinking that the light might help us out some about catching them, and we failed. They are now convinced that dry land suckers are all that would bite.

September 23 we started on and soon reached a small mountain. At the summit we found a lone grave, about 20 miles away from any one. The tombstone was marked, "Albert Schiefien, died in the year 1883."

We drove on to the hot mineral lake, where we camped over night, with hot and cold water, which was piped from the hot and cold springs. We all thought well to get rid of the Wallowa dirt on us, so as to give room for some of the California soil, but we believe that the Wallowa soil is the richest for it makes a larger showing. We all certainly enjoyed the baths, also camping there for we had a fine camp ground. Near the place mentioned above were some fine alfalfa ranches, but a good deal of sand.
