

POLK COUNTY OBSERVER

WEEKLY AND SEMI-WEEKLY

VOL. XIX

DALLAS, POLK COUNTY, OREGON, APRIL 19, 1907.

NO. 6

Courting Couples

are, of course, contemplating matrimony and subsequent housekeeping. They are the class we are looking out for particularly. We know that the majority of young married people must start economically, and our stock of

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

includes all necessary articles for beginning housekeeping in a modest and economical way. We invite the attention of all couples now contemplating the setting up of their own establishment. We not only furnish your furniture, but also a line of

KITCHEN HARDWARE

Did you ever see our Toledo Range?

3 reasons why its better: No trouble to keep clean, all plain nickel, bakes quicker and more even than any other stove on the market.

A 10-year guarantee with every Toledo Range

Better get our prices on

Building Hardware

Our Furniture Department is becoming more complete every day.

Better see our new lines of

Carpets and Rugs
1907 Patterns of Wall Paper
Elegant China Closets and Buffets
Pretty designs in Linoleums.

We can and will sell you everything in the Housefurnishing Goods at a price that can't be beat.

GUY BROS. & DALTON

Dallas, Oregon

Pattons Sun-Proof Paint Is Good.

NEWS OF COUNTY TOWNS.

AIRLIE.

Dick Evans spent last Sunday in Dallas.

I. M. Simpson has about 300 acres of land to plow yet.

P. Hadley shipped two nice veal to Portland last week.

"Cricket" Bevens recently sold some ninety head of cattle.

Elmer Burroughs killed an extra large wildcat a few days ago.

Harvey Robertson has moved from his farm near here to Monmouth.

Henry Tarter bought a blooded bull of Sam Morrison a short time ago.

C. E. Staats was in town a few days ago, and took out a new wheel-barrow clover seeder.

Sheep buyers are contracting for buck lambs at $5 a head, to be delivered about August 1.

Brown & Link have their new sawmill running now, and are turning out lumber at a lively rate.

A. C. Guyer has moved from the R. Tarter house to the Williams house, just across the Luckiamute.

Considerable mohair was delivered here the last of the week. From 29 to 30 cents is the ruling price.

J. M. Staats is putting up a large sawmill for John Buelo on the Maxfield branch, near King's Valley.

Doras Turner dumped his logging team into the Luckiamute, Tuesday, and it took some lively work to get them out.

Mrs. J. O. Staats has just received the news from Portland of the death of her father, James Allen. He was at one time a merchant at Lewisville.

BRIDGEPORT.

Not an idle man in this community. J. T. Guthrie was in Albany, Saturday.

H. L. Fenton was out this way Tuesday.

E. E. Gilliam, of Salem, visited his sister Tuesday, and went to Black Rock, Wednesday.

Ed Richmond has bought a few buck lambs in this neighborhood, to be delivered in August.

Joe Brown passed through enroute for Portland, where he is taking medical treatment. He says he has not done a day's work for a year.

Hop men are all busy trying to catch up with their work. Some have their yards plowed, while others are just starting in. Training will begin about May 1.

John McCoy and family, of Summit, have been visiting at J. T. Guthrie's. He is just recovering from a broken leg. The injury was sustained in a logging camp near Summit.

BUENA VISTA.

Frank Snyder moved across the river last week.

A. J. Richardson has rented his hop yard west of town.

Mr. Becker has moved from the Brandon place to his own home.

The farmers of this vicinity are busy with their spring work.

Much work is being done on the roads during this good weather.

Mr. Reynolds has been visiting his family, who have been living in town this winter.

A number of men of this neighborhood put in a day last week improving the cemetery.

EOLA.

Our merchant is doing a rushing business.

Grover Farmer, of Salem, visited relatives here, Sunday.

West Salem is to have a flag-raising before school closes.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Patton have returned from Independence.

Crops of all kinds, especially fruit, look very promising around here.

Captain and Mrs. Branson began a protracted meeting in Eola, Tuesday night.

Miss Loretta Foster, of Monmouth, is visiting her sister, Miss Bessie, for a few days.

The hop men of this district are greatly rushed with work, owing to the continued rains.

Messrs. Albers, Hogg, Hawthorn, Traglo, Simonton and George Chapman have new phones.

Several property-owners in West Salem are contemplating building cement walks in the near future. A very commendable spirit.

Miss Osa Gries, of Popcorn, has finished teaching a successful term of school at Linwood, Yamhill county, and has accepted a position in an adjoining district to teach the Spring term.

FALLS CITY.

The Dayton street bride is nearing completion.

H. P. Bogart has purchased a fine driving horse.

Mrs. H. Ferguson is suffering with erysipelas in her face.

S. Robinson's wife and child are quite sick with measles.

Drs. Pfandhoefer & McMurdo's hospital is nearly enclosed.

George Gerlinger was a Falls City visitor, Wednesday.

J. Cabe came out from the Siletz Basin, Monday, on his way to Portland.

J. F. Courter has moved into the Joseph Florida house in north Falls City.

C. Damon has fenced his lots on the hill in North Falls City with a neat wire fence.

C. Perry arrived from Michigan last Friday. He thinks of locating at Falls City.

Will Weaver, the Dallas plumber, is putting in the water pipes at the Hotel Walker.

William McLaughlin, foreman for the Spaulding Logging Company, was in Falls City, Wednesday.

Mrs. Alvin Robinson is suffering from rheumatism and her children are sick with the measles.

Mrs. H. W. Bancroft recently received a box of genuine maple sugar from her sister in Michigan.

The tie vote between A. N. Robinson and C. P. Vick for Police Judge was decided in favor of Vick, Tuesday night.

LEWISVILLE.

W. H. Robertson has sold his farm to his son, Jefferson.

B. F. Smith sold a fine brood mare to California buyers for $300.

Miss Clara Guy, of Dallas, is visiting at the home of F. M. Smith.

Announcement is out for Rev. P. A. Moses at this place next Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Hooker, of Falls City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. George Bronson, were Dallas visitors last Saturday.

Giffin McKinley got his fingers badly mashed while working in the axe-handle factory, Monday.

Hank Mattison, of Independence, visited at the home of his father-in-law, F. M. Lewis, Sunday.

A. Guyer has vacated the house at the Tarter hop yard and moved into W. C. Williams' house.

The sawmill on the Link place is doing well, and the new house will soon be ready for occupancy.

Rev. N. Sager, of Dallas, preached the funeral of Mr. Kerber's year-old baby in the Edwards cemetery.

Grandma James and Miss Maggie Burns, of Bridgeport, are visiting relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Grandma Beals has come back to live with her son, C. Fuqua, after spending the winter with her daughter in Washington.

Mrs. William Holsington was in Dallas, Tuesday, and interviewed Lee Smith concerning the purchase of a Petaluma incubator.

Misses Ethel Brown and Lottie Montgomery, of the Monmouth Normal school, spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. James Haggard.

John Burns, who was raised in this community and is now a minister in King's Valley, was here with Bishop Heil. Both were the guests of B. M. Smith.

F. A. Link, who has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, got two jugs of water from a well on the Wing place, and before having used one, is nearly well.

The Falls City and Airlie White Line offers $50 for the arrest and conviction of the person, or persons, who destroyed the insulators and otherwise damaged the telephone line.

MONMOUTH.

C. A. Casbeer, of Salem, was in town, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Helmick were in town, Wednesday.

Marion Smith, of Lewisville, was on our streets, Wednesday.

After a long illness, Uncle Coon Smith is able to be out again.

Mr. Chase has rented Loren Walker's house and has moved in.

Mrs. Ruth Gill will be in town for two or three weeks, visiting friends.

Charles Heron has bought the Prather property. The price paid was $700.

Harvey Robertson, the man that bought the Heron place, moved into town, Monday.

The band boys gave an outdoor concert one night last week. It was much appreciated.

A. L. Chute killed several fine porkers, Wednesday. He makes a specialty of raising hogs.

Monroe Mulkey has quite a force of hands at work improving the streets. Let the good work go on.

Frank Lucas, our ex-Postmaster, visited his many relatives and friends in Monmouth the first of the week.

Chauncey Mulkey, of Pleasant Hill, Lane county, visited at the home of his father, W. J. Mulkey, last week.

Uncle Thomas Campbell, of Dallas, spent a few days with friends and relatives in Monmouth this week.

The Monmouth Star was like a meteor. It came quick and exploded, leaving no sign that it had ever been a Star.

Mr. Riggie, of Idaho, has rented the Moran house, belonging to A. L. Chute, and expects his family here this week.

The old sign that if it rains on Easter it will rain for seven Sundays thereafter has failed again, so let's stop the old saying.

Frank H. Ward, manager of the Doerbeck hardwood sawmill four miles west of Monmouth, was in town on business, Saturday. He says the mill is cutting about 7000 feet of lumber a day.

INDEPENDENCE.

J. M. Stark was a Dallas visitor, Wednesday.

Miss Francis Patterson, of Portland, visited here last week.

Mrs. Jennie Waller has returned from a visit in Portland.

Dr. W. B. Allin was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

B. D. and J. S. Cooper were passengers to Portland, Sunday.

Peter Shafer has been in Portland receiving medical attention.

J. M. Stark has been in Salem and Roseburg on a business visit.

J. Wheeler has returned from Portland, after a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. E. M. Young was a passenger to Portland, Wednesday, for a short stay.

S. Bridges has gone to Pendleton, where he will remain through the summer.

Miss Hazel Bohannon visited at her

1907 SPRING 1907

You will find at our store up-to-date lines of

LADIES' SILK WAISTS

WHITE WASH WAISTS

READY-TO-WEAR SKIRTS

WASH FABRICS in profusion

MEN'S HATS

FANCY HOSIERY

UNDERWEAR

SHOES

Our prices appeal to the careful buyer, and we will appreciate your looking at our goods whether you buy or not.

CAMPBELL & HOLLISTER

Successors to L. M. Pollock.

home here for a few days, returning to Portland, Monday.

Miss Pearl Percival has returned to Portland, where she attended a business college last winter.

Miss Louisa McAlpin has returned from Nehalem, where she spent the winter in teaching school.

Rev. S. E. Launer is the newly-appointed pastor for the Independence United Evangelical church.

Jimmie Jones and Grover Mattison have purchased the cigar store in the Little Palace hotel building.

Mrs. Douglas, wife of Rev. Douglas, pastor of the Baptist church, is seriously ill at her home here.

Hop training will begin as soon as nice weather sets in and the hop fields are dried off. Hops in some yards are now ready for training.

Mrs. Susan Jones and daughter, Katherine, have gone to Portland, where Mrs. Jones will be under the care of a physician for some time.

The roller skating rink is proving quite an attraction and good crowds enjoy the sport every evening, while there is always a large number of spectators.

Rev. White, pastor of the Presbyterian church preached his farewell sermon Sunday night. Rev. White has accepted the pastorate of the Montavilla church.

Miss Louise McAlpin, of this city, and Mr. James Lommen, of Nehalem, were married in Portland, Sunday, April 14. They returned to Independence, Monday evening.

Mrs. Ella Irvine was an over Sunday visitor in Portland. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Goldie, who has been in Winlock, Wash., for several months.

The river reached a very high stage again last week. The ferry was unable to cross, and bottom land was under water, causing no little inconvenience to people, besides delaying the hop work.

PERRYDALE.

Mr. Sargent lost a fine horse recently. Mrs. Purdy was a Portland visitor last week.

John Foster was a Salem visitor, Tuesday.

Mr. Nelson has rented a hopyard near Ballston.

Hon. D. L. Keyt made a business visit to Salem, Tuesday.

Mrs. Wise went to Portland, Tuesday, to order more millinery goods.

Clarence Townsend, of McMinnville, is visiting at the home of his grandparents.

The Perrydale and Ballston baseball clubs will contest at McCoy, Sunday afternoon.

Frank Ferguson, the popular stock buyer of Amity, was doing business in this vicinity Saturday.

The ordination services for the deacons and elders of the Christian church, Sunday, was largely attended.

All the news in the Twice-a-week OBSERVER.

Consumption is less deadly than it used to be. Certain relief and usually complete recovery will result from the following treatment: Hope, rest, fresh air, and—Scott's Emulsion.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 50c. AND $1.00.

CIRCUS DAY AT DALLAS MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1907 TWO PERFORMANCES, 2 AND 8 P. M.

100 CIRCUS CHAMPIONS AND CELEBRITIES 100

22 FAMOUS EQUESTRIANS
18 Daring Aerialists
23 MERRY CLOWNS

Le Fleur Troupe
10 Lovely Ladies of Faultless Form in Classic Poses on a Great Revolving Pedestal.

11 Arabian Tumblers
Celebrated
Stirk (10) Family
America's Greatest Cyclists and Roller Skaters

10 Rockless Rough Riders
100 SHETLAND PONY BALLET
Marvelous Picards
Aerialists Supreme

7 Russian Cossacks
SUPERB GARLAND ENTREE

GREATER

42 DOUBLE LENGTH R. R. CARS
500 PEOPLE
350 HORSES
MUSEUM.
Double Menagerie
Real Roman Hippodrome
Scores of Trained Wild Beasts
Pretty EDNA MARETTA
The Only Lady in the Entire World who throws SOMERSAULTS on the Naked Back of a Swiftly Running Horse.

Thundering Roman Chariot Races
Educated SEALS & SEA LIONS
A COMPLETE JAPANESE CIRCUS
9 SENSATIONAL EQUILIBRISTS
Only Lady Japanese Artists in America
20 Astonishing Acrobats
HIGHEST JUMPING HORSES
HERDS PERFORMING ELEPHANTS
CAMELS, LLAMAS AND BOS INDICUS
CAKE WALKING HORSES
TRAINED IMPORTED ARABIAN STALLIONS

Grand STREET-PARADE 10:30 DAILY