

TIGERS LOSE.

was forced to punt to Mahan on Harvard's 8-yard line. A forward pass, Mahan to Hart, made 30 yards.

Mahan gained 10 around the end, and then King went through tackle for 30 yards and a touchdown.

Mahan kicked the goal. It was Princeton's ball on her 25-yard line when the period ended. Harvard, 7; Princeton, 0.

Princeton Line Holds

Second Period—Shea fumbled and there was an exchange of punts. Harvard recovered the ball on the kick-off. Harvard was penalized 15 yards for being off-side. Mahan gained 20 yards. Within five yards of a touchdown Mahan twice failed to pierce Princeton's line. King then tried and plunged into the line. For ten thrilling seconds the players massed between the posts, straining at each other. After a consultation of officials it was decided the ball was not over and Harvard lost the oval on downs. Driggs, standing behind Princeton's goal, punted to Princeton's 40-yard line, where Mahan kicked squarely between the posts from placement. Mahan kicked behind Princeton's goal. From Princeton's 25-yard line Driggs returned the ball 10 yards. After end runs had advanced the ball, Driggs punted to Harvard's 37-yard line. Harvard fumbled. It was Princeton's ball on the crimson 49-yard line. Driggs circled left end for 15-yards. Driggs, Shea and Tibbot carried the ball to Harvard's 20-yard line, where Harvard braced. Tibbot then made a pretty field goal from the 25-yard line. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

End of second period: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 3.

Princeton Strong In Offensive

Third Period—Tibbot returned Mahan's kick-off to the 30-yard line. Driggs added 10 around end. Harvard was off-side and the ball was put into play in the center of the field. Princeton then showed her best offensive.

Tibbot gained 15 yards on a forward pass. Tibbot reached Harvard's 20-yard line. Shea added five around the end. Princeton was yelling for a touchdown. Tibbot lost three yards and then a forward pass failed. Standing on the 16-yard line, Tibbot kicked a field goal.

Driggs carried Mahan's kick-off to the 22-yard line. Harvard held Princeton. Princeton was twice penalized for being off-side. Mahan missed an attempt at field goal from the 35-yard line. The period ended with the ball on Princeton's 20-yard line.

End third period: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 6.

Final Score 10 to 6

Fourth Period—This period was featured by another Tiger offensive from her 20-yard line.

Mahan, by a brilliant run, circled the Tiger left end from his 35-yard line. Captain Glick, of Princeton, was injured in tackling Mahan. Doctors swarmed upon the field, but Glick was able to resume play.

Soucy gained 20 yards on a forward pass. King ploughed through the line for eight more. Mahan, in a spectacular twisting run, put the ball on Princeton's 30-yard line. Princeton held. The game ended with the ball in Princeton's possession on her 35-yard line.

Final score: Harvard, 10; Princeton, 6.
