HUGHES NOTHING TO SAY UNLESS NOMINATED

Washington, June 9.—Alone in his library, Justice Hughes refused to make any comment when told by his secretary that the convention had greeted the presentation of his name with a great demonstration.

"Justice Hughes will make no statement unless he is nominated by the convention," said his secretary. "That is final."

Matchmaking in Roumania
 In Roumania once every year is a fair of marriageable girls. The girl, with her relations, gets into a wagon, which also contains her dowry—linen, furniture and household matters—and all get off for the fair. When they arrive the girls are drawn up in one line and the men in another, with their parents behind them. Then if a young man likes the look of any particular girl he talks to her while the parents compare notes as to their possessions and their circumstances in life. If all is found satisfactory there's a marriage at once, and the bride is driven away by her husband to her new home.—Exchange.
