August 26, a happy crowd of nine left in cars for the Fruitdale valley, where a wicker roast and dance filled the hours till late.

The crowd was composed of Eleanor Bocock, Ellen Castor, Olive Courtney, Florence Bocock, Lorene Courtney, Harold Terwilliger, Jewell Bestul, Mort Castor and Earl Pittinger. It did not take the chaperons long to select an attractive thistle bed as a good spot for the bonfire and evening spread, but even such dire objections were soon forgotten at sight of buns, weiners, muskmelon, apple pie and cake. The hungry bunch needed no second invitation and good eats soon vanished. During the evening a few joined in the dance at the grange hall. Here lemonade and cake were served.

Miscellaneous Shower

Friday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Wible honored Miss Belle Letcher with a miscellaneous shower given at the C. A. Wible home on North Fifth street. The following were present: Ethel Bocock, Belle Letcher, Mrs. Diabrow, Mrs. Cass, Blanche Wile, Ethel Letcher, Ethelyn Bartlett, Ruby Best, Mrs. Elliott, Lora Pummill, and Mrs. Paul Blanchard. Each guest present gave the bride-to-be a favorite recipe, much valuable advice and a gift in memory of the occasion. Little Master Albert Wible, dressed in cheesecloth drapery, with a red sash, to represent cupid, carried the presents in his father's mail sack and used the mailman's whistle. Lemonade was served during the afternoon and later ice cream in muskmelon halves was served with cake. Decorations were in green and white.

Mrs. Holcomb Entertains

Mrs. A. C. Holcomb, assisted by her sister, Mrs. O. H. Gilbert, of Portland, entertained at her Fourth street home last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Holcomb's birthday, a milestone still far removed from the scriptural three score and ten. Two huge cakes, of many layers, studded with lighted candles, and containing useful and artistic tokens for the guests, were served to an accompaniment of a delightful punch. Those present were Mrs. Mary Browne, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Hanley, Ralph Davis, James L. Browne and Miss Frankie Gilbert. Mr. Browne entertained with several solos.
