'Les Miserables'

WHAT THE CRITICS SAY ABOUT "LES MISERABLES"

"There are people who are continually crying for better pictures. To them we would say, 'See LES MISERABLES.'"—New York Tribune.

"Quite the best picture that has been seen hereabout."—N. Y. Times.

There are three points which come to mind after witnessing William Fox's special production "Les Miserables," adapted from Victor Hugo's classic.

Firstly, it is a wonderful picture.

Secondly, the treatment accorded it by Frank Lloyd is masterly.

Thirdly, the characterization of Jean Valjean by William Farnum is, beyond the shadow of a doubt, the finest piece of acting he has ever done.—Peter Milne, Motion Picture News.

"The ability of William Farnum as an actor of dramatic and heroic roles is given more scope in this picture than perhaps in any other in which he has appeared, and the star made the best of his opportunity."—New York Morning Telegraph.

"An excellent example of what the movies can do for the classics of literature."—N. Y. World.

"Months of preparation have been spent and the splendid photoplay showed fine evidence of this fact."—New York Globe.

"A delicious piece of character work. It was a triumph of art for William Farnum."—New York Evening World.

"The film moves on with a dramatic intensity that never lags. Always the human interest is uppermost."—New York Evening Telegram.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY'S RECORD IN R. C. DRIVE

The final count on the Red Cross Christmas roll call has just been completed for this county and totals 2,229 members with $2,249. This is a little better than 120 per cent of the subscriptions taken in the drive last year. Considering the number of removals that the county has suffered in the past eight or ten months this is a record of which Josephine county can be justly proud.

The splendid success that has marked this effort has not been due to the work of any one person or committee, but because, from beginning to close each did his or her part with a full feeling of responsibility, so that to mention those who proved splendidly capable would be to name the whole personnel of workers, solicitors, team captains, and executive committee. Nor was the liberality of the Daily Courier in giving its space unreservedly to publicity work a small part in the success of the drive. Furthermore the willing response of those solicited made the work a delight throughout.

There seems to be a full understanding in the minds of the people of this county that the Red Cross has been a faithful steward of the resources that have been placed at its disposal and that its work as an organization is not completed until there is no more a need for deeds of mercy to be done.

(Signed) COMMITTEE.
