The dinner at the Chamber of Commerce rooms with an excellent menu for 50 cents will be served at 11:30. All the proceeds are to be used in improving the city park and auto camp.

Bad Turn Causes Shake-up—
What might easily have been a serious accident occurred last night, when the bus carrying school children to their homes down the river met a Ford car driven by James Spencer of Kerby, just this side of Lathrop's ranch. A sharp turn occurs in the road at this place, and it is impossible for anyone approaching the curve to see very far ahead. The Ford car, coming towards town, stayed too close to the inside of the road with the result that the bus had to turn quickly to the outside of the bank, and continued on over the bank a short distance before it could be stopped. No one was hurt, and the children walked on to their homes, while the bus was brought into Hobart's garage today for repairs.

HOME STUDY TOUR SATURDAY, OCT. 18

All farm people in Josephine county are invited to join in making the Farm Home Study Tour, Saturday, October 18th. The tour will start from the courthouse and all who wish to participate are asked to meet promptly at 9 a. m. The following homes will be visited in the order named:

- J. T. Chinnock, Lawridge Ave.
- W. S. Maxwell, Lawridge Ave.
- U. L. Upson, West Bridge St.
- Mrs. C. M. Lathrop, Mountain road.

- Mrs. G. S. Eaton, Mountain road.
- E. L. Schmidt, Ferry district.
- C. F. Lovelace, Wilderville.
- W. O. Hill, Wilderville.

Here are some of the interesting things to be seen in the homes: The first pipeless furnace in operation in Josephine county; a water system costing about one dollar; home-made and built-in showers; roller tray wagon; built-in ironing board; kitchen stool made of manzinta; breakfast rooms; gasoline and electric washing machines; private acetylene and electric light plants; gasoline and electric irons, sliding partitions between kitchen and end of living room used for dining room, wood lift, convenient kitchen, home-made sinks, broom closet, bread mixer, carpet sweeper, vacuum cleaner.

Then there is the noon hour. Every group is asked to bring a well-filled lunch basket and enjoy a picnic lunch in the woods. Coffee will be served free, so don't forget to put some cups and spoons in your basket. A pressure canner, iceless refrigerator, home-made fireless cooker and dress forms, will be on exhibit during the noon hour. Anyone wishing to take the tour but having no car to ride in should get in touch with Mrs. Geo. Eaton, county project leader of the home study tour, or Miss Corbett, home demonstration agent, and a place will be reserved.

DEPUTY SHERIFF HELD UP BY BOOZE PEDDLER

(Roseburg News)

Wrecking their car in a desperate effort to escape after Deputy Sheriff Hopkins had exploded a tire with a well directed revolver shot, Lewis P. Siebler and son of Portland, were brought to this city last night and will probably be charged with unlawful possession of liquor and resisting an officer. The two men, were attempting to get by Canyonville shortly after dusk with 11 cases and a large steamer trunk full of bottled in bond whiskey and had reached the officers' ranch when they were accosted by Mr. Hopkins who stated his authority, and expressed his determination to ascertain the cargo carried by the heavily laden auto. The deputy sheriff stepped upon the running board of the Chandler car and as he did so was seized by the larger man who thrust a revolver against the officer's body.

"We'll just take you to Roseburg and see how much authority you have," he said, according to the story told by Mr. Hopkins, who struggled for only a few moments after being seized. The occupants of the booze car attempted to haul the deputy sheriff into the machine but could not do so and he was still on the running board when the machine arrived at Canyonville.

In spite of the threatening revolver the muzzle of which was held against his body, Mr. Hopkins yelled for help as the car reached the village and as he shouted he tore himself loose from the grasp of the man who was holding him. As he leaped to the ground he pulled his own gun and fired a shot which tore its way through the right fender and punctured the tire, which in turn caused the rapidly moving auto to skid dangerously. The driver, however, determined to escape, threw on more power but in rounding a corner smashed into a roadster left standing near the sidewalk by a tourist and the collision caused both cars to become wrecks. A front wheel was torn from the booze car and its occupants seeing that escape was impossible surrendered.

They were placed in an automobile and brought to this city by Officer Hopkins who first relieved them of two revolvers and two Winchester rifles. The booze was loaded onto an auto truck which also towed the damaged runabout to this city. The passenger car arrived in Roseburg about midnight but the truck did not reach the city until almost 2 o'clock in the morning.

THIEVES DO THRIVING BUSINESS IN HORSES

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Thirty-five to 40 horses are stolen each day in Berlin, and a very small percentage are ever returned to the owners despite the creation of a special police department to combat this evil. The horses disappear forever because they are usually immediately slaughtered and the meat sold through illicit trade channels.

The thieves watch for teams the drivers of which have left them for a moment, and drive the horses away. If the wagons contain anything of value it is stolen and the horses are taken to secret barns and sheds, or even to wooded suburban sections, and killed immediately. Insurance companies that used to insure horses and teams will do so no more.

COUGHED SO HE COULDN'T SLEEP

Bronchial coughs, tickling in throat and asthmatic spasms break one's rest and weaken one so that the system is run-down and serious sickness may result. Enos Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I had a severe cold this fall and coughed continually at night; could hardly sleep. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, entirely curing my cough." It covers irritated membranes with a healing and soothing coating, loosens phlegm and clears air passages.
