intended for last issue but received too late—Biography Sketch of the Late William D. Buchanan.

Chas. Roper and wife visited Burns Saturday accompanied by Wm. Roper and John M. Terwilliger two nephews of Mr. Roper's who came to visit him last week.

While in Burns they met Louis Shaw of the surveying party near Iron Mountain and made arrangements to join his crew at once leaving Burns with him Sunday morning.

The news of the death of W. D. Buchanan was received here Sunday morning causing a deep feeling of sadness to pervade the community as he was not thought to be in danger though his age made it difficult for him to resist the attacks of the fever. He passed away quietly about 9 o'clock a. m. and his funeral was held from the church at this place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The obsequies were conducted under the direction of Burns Lodge 97 A. F. & A. M. of which the deceased was a member. The ritualistic burial services of the Order were in charge of Hon. A. W. Gowan Past Worshipful Master who came over from Burns accompanied by about 15 members of the lodge. A large number of neighbors and friends of the family were present and the church was filled to overflowing by sympathetic friends attesting the deep hold which Mr. Buchanan had upon the community. The interment took place at the Harney cemetery west of town and the remains were followed to the last resting place by the whole con course from the church. The bereaved wife and relatives have the most profound sympathy of the citizens of Harney and vicinity all of whom held the deceased in high respect.

The Sunday School had a good attendance last Sunday thirty-four being present. A decoration and flower committee was appointed to consist of Viola Richardson, Myrtle Irving, Ethel Russell, Alice Richardson, and Bertha Everett and steps will be taken to make the Sunday School room more cheerful and homelike and to have flowers when in season, for ornamentation.

W. D. Baker of Drewsey passed toward home Thursday enroute from Burns.

The Harney School Board held an interesting meeting Thursday evening to discuss the general interests of the district and ordered advertisements for bids for wood for the coming season to be posted.

The Harney Board of Trade will hold a meeting Saturday night May 12th at which a report will be made of the progress of the work of the past two months. Matters of interest will be discussed. Everybody is invited to attend who are interested in the welfare of Harney county. Those not members are especially welcome.
