Booster Says:

"THE time to boost is all the time—morning, noon and dewey eve. You don't need to be a hotel clerk or a trust magnate—you needn't be any other than a human being with a good pair of lungs, a few brains in your noodle, and a firm resolve to speak a good word for every bloomin' thing under the sun. In fact that's one of the chief planks in a booster's platform.

That's a long one for Booster. You would be surprised to see the wonderful values we are showing in $10, $15 and $20 suits.

Every morning we begin the day with the idea of clothing men correctly, and giving them better clothes and better values than can be obtained anywhere else!
