A Narrow Escape.

Mrs. Shelly, mother of Mrs. S. D. Combs, slipped and fell as she was leaving the church at John Day at the close of services Sunday evening, says the Canyon City News, and broke one of her wrists. Fred Mosier and wife were bringing her up to this city to receive surgical attendance, when the shafts of the buggy came loose from the vehicle while coming down the hill in the lower end of town, and a runaway was the result. Mrs. Shelly was thrown out and dragged by the clothing a considerable distance. She was most fortunately not injured save a severe shaking, and is getting along toward recovery.

Fire in the Mountains.

Weston Leader: T. F. McCabe, who lives on the mountain above Weston, mourns the loss of about $100 worth of farm machinery and a small shed in which it was stored. The loss was occasioned thuswise: A quantity of refuse straw had been piled near the shed and the 10-year old son of Mr. McCabe ignited the straw in order to get it out of the way. The fire spread to the building and in a few seconds it was a mass of flames. Mrs. McCabe rushed from the house to the shed and found her boy on the interior endeavoring to save some of the implements. He was surrounded by flames and did not heed his mother's repeated calls to come out. She at last ran in and pulled him forth just in time to save his life. The fire destroyed a new disc harrow, several plows and farm tools. Loss about $100; no insurance.

The Weston nine and the Athena second nine played ball in this city last Sunday. The score stood 16 to 17 in favor of Weston.

McMorris, of Weston. An elaborate monument is now under course of construction by the Roberts Co., for the late John Walker.

It is reported that Harry Bowmer, present editor of the Weston Leader—which was recently sold to Harry Brown—will start another paper in that city. Gad! wonder what he will live on. The Leader is the most poorly patronized sheet in the way of ads that comes to the Press office. What's the matter with them over there, anyway?

Mr. Chamberlain, who was here on a few days visit to his sister, Mrs. W. J. Wilkinson, was thrown from a cart and considerably shaken up last Saturday. He was trying to break a cayuse to drive and when on the flat near the Athena mill, the pony commenced to buck and try to run. In trying to hold it, the bridle bit broke, throwing Mr. Chamberlain out of the cart on his head. He was unconscious for some time, but recovered sufficiently to depart for his home in the Palouse country the first of the week.

Our friend Harry Brown, of the Tribune force, has purchased the Weston Leader and will assume control the first of the coming month. Harry, we wish you the best of success, and hope you will make the Leader a newspaper in every sense of the term.

Lee Brown, who has been working for Charley Beale in Pendleton for some time, came up home last Saturday. While butchering a beef the other day, the knife slipped in some way and cut his hand quite severely necessitating his laying off for a while. He now carries his hand in a sling.

Geo. P. Rosenberg, the Pendleton broker has made an assignment of his office and fixtures in favor of his creditors. He has the reputation of being an upright business man, and his failure is due to the credit system and not being able to realize on securities. Many friends in this part of the country hope that he will come out all right in the end.

The Milton Eagle says the Milton club is willing to play the Athena team for $50 a side. Captain Gilleland informs us that owing to the fact that most of the field are at work in the harvest time he cannot live up to his word and that it sends a keen thrill of pain up his spinal column to think what a snap they are compelled to let go by owing to this fact. After harvest he will talk with the Milton boys on the subject.

For the news take the Press.

Joe Lewis a Weston farmer was in the city yesterday.

The Misses Martin of the Walla Walla Valley are in Athena visiting their sister, Mrs. E. B. Post.

James Stamper and others are on the Umatilla rusticiating. Hugh Thompson wears the star in Mr. Stamper's absence.

Mrs. A. R. Bradley and children returned from Omaha Wednesday evening. While East they visited the great fair and other places of interest.

C. W. Hollis went down to Pendleton Wednesday evening to meet his wife and children who have been in San Francisco for some time.

Robert Price and family who have been down from Sunset, Wash., visiting relatives in this community, returned home last Tuesday.

L. A. Githens received this week a fine Parker hammerless gun. Its list price is $100 and is a beauty, being finely engraved and finished in most elaborate style.

Wednesday was Prince Richardson's 14th birthday, and his many young friends took advantage of the occasion to give him a surprise party. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, etc.

Harvest in Union county will be considerable later than in Umatilla. A heavy rain occurred in the vicinity of Summerville and Elgin Friday, and the prospects have brightened 100 per cent.

Elmer Breckbill, of the firm of Ashpaugh & Breckbill, brick-layers, has been confined to his room at the St. Nicholas, with something like cramp colic. Mr. Breckbill is now able to be up and around.

It is reported that Sam Endicott, of Adams, has left the country and also obligations behind to the extent of $8000. Fooling with the "tiger" is the alleged cause of his downfall. He was interested in the Adams Mercantile Co. He has a wife and two sons at Adams.

The "Sunday Sun" is getting a cold shake in Pendleton. Deputy district attorney Hailey returned the regular batch of papers to the publishers Sunday morning and the boys who peddle them were given a few words of advice which they will not soon forget.

Chas. Dunn lost his horse while fishing on the Umatilla Tuesday. It wandered off with saddle and bridle on and Charlie procured a saddle horse and spent two days hunting for it. He found him at Gibbon with the saddle and bridle but the blanket had been lost.

Wednesday while John Armstrong was engaged in doing the carpenter act, he came in contact with the heavy end of a hammer. The aforesaid hammer playfully flew up and struck John a blow in the right optic, which gives him the appearance of being a pugilist slightly disfigured but still in the ring.

Geo. Hamilton, the grain buyer was in the city yesterday accompanied by one of the Cleaver Bros. the shoe men of Pendleton. Mr. Cleaver, who is a brother of Lon Cleaver, the former receiver of the land office at La Grande, thinks we have a great country up here, but need more population, and right he is, to.

Guderain Bros., the Nolin sheepmen says the East Oregonian, are making preparations to ship a train-load of mutton to Chicago. The shipment will probably start next week over the Northern Pacific. The advantages of Chicago as a market for Eastern Oregon sheep will soon be made known by experiments of this nature.

J. W. Maloney has been appointed postmaster of Athena office. He received notice one day this week of his appointment. Mr. Hansell sent in his resignation some time ago, and a petition to have James appointed was circulated by his friends and was signed by almost every one to whom it was presented, both republicans and democrats.

Rev. Fancher preached on Basket Mountain, this county, last Sunday and "passed the hat" as usual with the result that fifteen cents was gathered in, but the Rev. Sir would not have it that way. He returned it with the remark, says the Leader, "I'm no fifteen-cent man, and I herewith donate it to your Sunday school. Place it out at interest and some future generation will enjoy the benefit."

James Smith an old soldier died Monday, at Mountain Valley from a peculiar ailment known as Addison's disease, which always proves fatal. The suprarenal capsules, which lie about the kidneys and have no use that medical men are able to determine, are attacked. The parts of the body exposed turn gradually dark, and as the disease reaches its final stage becomes almost black, as was the case with Mr. Smith. Death ensued in from four to eighteen months, and in this instance it came in six months.

DEEMED FOR THE BEST.
Capt. Humphrey Was Taken to the Asylum for Treatment.

East Oregonian: The removal of Capt. N. B. Humphrey to the asylum at Salem was decided upon by his friends and brother, George Humphrey, who arrived Thursday evening from Portland. The unfortunate captain has been mentally unbalanced nearly all the time since his injury, the trouble being ascribed to the effect of alcoholism and the shock resulting from the accident and amputation. It was thought that he could receive better care and treatment at the hospital than anywhere else. Physically he is sound, being as strong as could possibly be expected, and the limb is steadily healing. The disease of mind only interferes with his recovery.

This morning the patient was examined by Drs. F. W. Vincent and C. J. Smith in the presence of the deputy district attorney, and county judge committed him to the asylum. The commitment states that on July 5th Capt. Humphrey had his foot run over by a passenger train, and it amputated at 4 p. m. that day. On the 9th he became violently insane, necessitating constant attendance by two men to keep him in bed. During three days he became partially rational. Then he relapsed into his present condition. At no time since amputation had his temperature been over 99.

The captain will be taken below on this evening's train. The hope goes with him from many hearts that his mind, strong and cultured enough to have made him, with its former use, one of the country's foremost men, will in due time be restored to him. Genial, kindly, largehearted, he made friends innumerable whose sympathy goes out to him in his distress. "Cap" is only fifty-two years old, and has yet a place in the world.

He Abuses the Minister.

Hugh McDonald, better known as "Scottie" is again in trouble. He had been doing very well of late, abstaining from drinking and working steadily, but could not stand the pressure and Sunday he let go all hold and got gloriously drunk. He went up to the tabernacle where Rev. Scoles the Adventist holds forth, and, standing in the door-way, he began abusing Mr. Scoles, using a great deal of profanity and obscene language. Marshal Stamper who was there took McDonald in charge and locked him up in the cooler. Monday morning Dr. Carlisle swore out a warrant for his arrest.

He pleaded guilty to the charge and Justice Gilman fined him $200 or 100 days in the county jail; in default of the cash he now languishes in the felloe who is highly connected, is a dangerous man when under influence of liquor and after his sentence is served, should he come back to Athena, the authorities will be requested to give him his walking papers.

It is not a great while since he struck the 13-year-old son of L. A. Githens of this city, and at another time made an attack upon Marshal Stamper while under arrest. The reporter was shown a book-knife Monday by a man who took it away from "Scottie" who informed the party that he intended to "do" Stamper with it, a short time after Mr. Stamper had arrested him the first time.

In the event that this fellow comes back to Athena again and the authorities do not make him move on, there are a number of good citizens who will take the matter in their hands, and prominent among the implements that will be used is a bucket of tar, a fence rail, and a bag of feathers.

Kicked by a Horse.

Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock, a young man named John Hunt, who is boarding at the Athena House went into Smetherman's Livery Stable on Fourth Street and stepped into a stall behind a horse. He put his hand on the horse without speaking and the horse kicked him with terrific force in the pit of the stomach. The blow knocked the young man up back and turning him completely around, he struck against a post which was about eight inches square with sharp corners, with his forehead. A severe cut was inflicted over the right eye and the young man was unconscious for ten minutes after the accident. Undoubtedly he would have been killed but that some harness hung on the post, which in a measure lessened the force of the shock. Dr. King was called and administered to Mr. Hunt's injuries.

Paid in Their Own Coin.

The editor of the Weston Leader gave the Athena ball club quite a write up in his last issue. He boils over with indignation and accuses the boys here with not extending the usual formalities of hospitality; that the Weston team went home "superless and weary"—though perhaps not as weary (eyed) as Bowmer was when he wrote it up—that the Weston club meet and defeated enemies, not friends; that the Athena club was overmatched and that they tried to win the game by rattling the Weston club.

Not thinking it exactly the "proper caper" to take the Leader's word for it in regard to the hospitality clause, the reporter interviewed Captain Gilleland, of the Athena team. He informs us that in the first game the Weston boys were the challengers; that the Athena boys went over there with the expectation of receiving the "hospitalities of their town as a visiting nine"—that one of their members—Frank Henry—told him that such courtesy would be extended to them; that when the game was over they cheered for "Helix and one man from Athena," and that they never showed up with their "hospitality." And as far as "chewing the rag" is concerned, most of the members of both clubs did not indulge, the most of it being done by Crimmons of the Weston club and Rush of the Athena club, and they did it in a friendly way to lift the monotony of the game which was the dullest played on the Athena diamond this year.

A Novel Game.

The people of Athena will be treated to a novel game of base-ball Sunday afternoon, novel, inasmuch, as the members of neither club never played ball before. If you want to laugh come out and see the game. Following is the names of the respective clubs.

"JAG" club—Jim Clark, captain; Chas. Norris, Jesse Smith, Chas. Stansell, Ed. Dickey, J. Bloch, Max Lewin, Thos. Bergevin, J. M. Smetherman.

"JIGGERS" club—Bill Young captain; Chet McCollough, "Doc" Osborne, L. A. Githens, Hugh Smith, C. L. Bergevin, James Broddy, John Gillis, D. A. Hendricks.

The Gun Club.

The Athena gun club met as usual Thursday afternoon. The attendance of members was small. The score stood as follows:

25 SINGLES.
L. A. Githens.....	21
A. D. Leedy.....	19
A. D. Gilleland.....	19
L. Shaw.....	12
5 DOUBLES.
A. D. Leedy.....	7
L. Shaw.....	5
L. A. Githens.....	5
A. D. Gilleland.....	4

Breach of Promise Case.

The papers in Umatilla county's first breach of promise case were filed Monday evening at the court house. The case is one of unusual interest, the defendant being M. M. Moorehead, the Hotel Pendleton's popular clerk, who has become favorably known to everyone here during his ten years residence.

The plaintiff is Emma Duffey, a waitress who has lived several years in this city and has passed the age of experience, being a buxom and well developed damsel. Her complaint states that on May 10, 1888, she was single and unmarried; on said date in Pendleton the defendant, in consideration that the plaintiff would marry him upon request, promised to marry plaintiff within a reasonable time after such date; that the plaintiff, relying upon his promise, remained unmarried, and is ready and willing to marry said defendant, but that said defendant refuses, although often requested to do so, to the plaintiff's damage in the sum of $5000.

He Wasn't in it.

A pleasant lawn party took place at the residence of C. N. Manela, in this city, on Wednesday evening. Not having received an invitation, the Eagle society reporter was not present; consequently we are unable to give the affair a more extended notice.—Milton Eagle.
