Agreement Between Generals Pershing and Gavra Is Repudiated.

PROTECTION HELD DIFFICULT

General Trevino Notifies American Officer That Gavra Acted Without Authority of Carranza.

San Antonio, Tex.—What is regarded by American army officers as official repudiation of the agreement entered into by Generals Pershing and Gavra was contained in a curt message from General Jacinto Trotino to General Pershing, informing him that General Gavra had no authority to discuss military subjects with him.

The agreement between Generals Pershing and Gavra had to do with disposition of troops in the territory controlled by the American punitive expedition, and was intended as a precaution that might prevent unauthorized clashes.

General Gavra was ordered to Mexico City about the time General Trevino sent his message to General Pershing.

Official advices have been received by General Funston that General Gavra has asked officers at Chihuahua to supply him with a list of foreign residents other than Americans, explaining that he wishes to know them in order to afford them protection; that he would be glad to accord protection to Americans as well, but that, in view of the increasing antagonism by Mexicans, he regarded it as practically impossible to do so.

It became known that only the withdrawal of Colonel Sibley's force that entered Mexico after the raid at Glenn Springs prevented it from being attacked by Carranza troops.

Hughes Takes Strong Stand for Rights on Land and Sea

Washington, D. C.—Charles E. Hughes' telegram accepting the Republican nomination for President makes a strong issue of American relations with foreign nations, which he declares have "suffered incalculably" from the weak and vacillating course taken in the past.

He favors an undivided Americanism on the part of all citizens.

Following are important points in Mr. Hughes' telegram of acceptance: Firm stand taken for American rights on land and sea.

Foreign relations in past declared to have suffered from weak and vacillating course pursued.

Desire expressed to see American diplomacy restored to its best standards.

Letter demands Americanism that knows no ulterior purpose, for patriotism single and complete.

Preparedness demanded not only adequate for defense, not only in respect to numbers and equipment of both army and navy, but with all thoroughness in every branch of service.

Peace ideals placed first. Danger of militarism denied. Nation has no policy of aggression, but must have strength which self-respect demands.

Fair readjustment of tariff favored as preparation for test to come after war.

Expansion of foreign trade sought. "We must not throttle American enterprise here or abroad, but rather promote it and take pride in honorable achievements."

Party platform fully indorsed.

Taft Hopes Colonel Will Support. Philadelphia.—Former President Taft, who was the principal orator at the commencement exercises of Temple University here, issued a statement endorsing former Justice Hughes and Charles W.
