AT THE GATE OF THE PRISON

The Country Editor Knocked, But Was Not Admitted.

WILL SOON BE ACCOMMODATED

He Made a Pressing Appeal to Be Locked Up in San Quentin Prison for Eight Years for Manslaughter.

San Francisco, May 17.—W. A. Sehorn, editor of the Willows Journal, Glenn county, made a pressing appeal today at San Quentin to be locked up for eight years for manslaughter.

"I have no warrant for your commitment," said Warden Hale, "and must refuse your request."

"Then I shall stay around here until I am locked up," was the reply.

Sehorn waited at the prison till late in the evening, hoping he would not have to spend another day outside the walls.

"I have been found guilty of manslaughter," Sehorn explained, "and as the supreme court has affirmed the decision of the Glenn county court, I hastened here to surrender myself.

WOOL GROWERS!

....Haul Your Wool to The Dalles....

THE DALLES IS THE BEST MARKET FOR EASTERN OREGON AND WASHINGTON WOOLS.

With an open river to the sea, The Dalles now enjoys the distinction of having the Best Competitive Freight Rates both by land and water to all the leading markets in the United States.

THE BUYERS CONGREGATE IN THE DALLES, and during the wool season all the best markets in the United States are represented.

We have the largest and best equipped brick warehouse in Eastern Oregon with a storage capacity of 80,000 square feet; consequently we are fully prepared to handle the entire clip of Eastern Oregon and Washington.

We make liberal cash advances on consignments of wool, enabling the owner to hold for higher prices.

We pay freight to teamsters, and furnish teamsters' receipt books on application. We have bought a large consignment of wool sacks and fleece twine for the coming season's clip.

Our brick warehouse located on the railroad track on the outskirts of the city is not surrounded by wooden buildings and hence is not endangered in case of fire.

We respectfully solicit a continuance of the generous patronage we have heretofore enjoyed, and we assure all those who wish to avail themselves of this market that we give good clean service at as low a rate as any other warehouse in this town offering the same facilities.

Fourteen wagon loads of wool were received at Moody's warehouse, in The Dalles, last week from the interior.

The Linn County Pioneers' Association will hold its annual reunion at Brownsville this year, June 9, 10 and 11.

Wall Marsh, of Centerville, Washington county, was badly bruised and several of his ribs broken, by a pugnacious bull.

The telephone line being built between Forest Grove and Hillsboro by Anton Pfanner will, it is expected, be in operation in about a week.

A delegation of Umatilla Indians have been visiting Baker City in quest of deer hides, from which they manufacture moccasins and gloves.

Cattle riding will soon commence at Poplar, in Grant county, as a number of steers are contracted for May delivery, besides some stock cattle.

Jackson county has a woman mail-carrier, Mrs. Vol Stickel, of Eagle Point, who will carry the mail between that point and Big Butte this summer.

Old settlers on the lower Siuslaw, in Lane county, say that grazing crops and fruit trees have not looked in as fine a condition as they are now in for nine years.

A clergyman of Medford has turned loose eight Chinese pheasants, one cock and seven hens, near Phoenix.

The recent warm weather has greatly reduced the quantity of snow in the mountains in Grant county, and many streams that have heretofore been unfordable can be crossed without danger.

Sixteen hundred head of sheep were sheared in Lava, Crook county, last week, and 1,100 head more will be sheared there the latter part of the month.

The bridge across the Walla Walla river on the Upper Walla Walla road, near Brown's mill, in Umatilla county, has again been repaired by the county, and the contractor says it is as strong as ever, and will not for some time be materially affected by floods.

Not long ago a horse belonging to a Dalles man was taken to the Washington side to pasture, but he soon grew tired of his surroundings, and resolved to beat his way back to his home.

After making a number of attempts to board the steamer and being prevented each time, he plunged into the water, reaching the opposite side only a short distance below the landing, none the worse from his rough experience.
