GETTING AWAY WITH THE GOODS!

At the Fire the other night there were lots of goods "rustled" by the runders, but that is no comparison with the manner in which Crane Bros. are selling Dry Goods, Groceries, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Notions, Everything. The people of Hot Springs are highly pleased with the popular prices for superior goods which prevail at this pioneer establishment. Their prices are their drawing cards. The fire just got them warmed up in good shape, so that they are just in good shape for business. See

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES.

Fred Evans, jr., says that his new hotel, now under course of construction at Hot Springs, will be ready for opening July 4th. The name is to be changed from Minnekahta to the Evans.—Sioux City Journal.

STRETCHED HIS FERTILE FANCY.

Either our good republican brother, Stanley, of the Star, has allowed a too fervid imagination to get away with him, or a Bee correspondent stretched his fertile fancy beyond the bounds of strict truthfulness. Certainly Kennett Harris was never interviewed regarding the probable fusion of Democrats and Independents in South Dakota.—Hatchet.

SUCCESS IS IN THE AIR.

Since the holding of the democratic convention at Yankton numerous independent leaders have taken occasion to say that all chances of a fusion between the independents and democrats this fall is at an end. The actions of the democrats at Yankton is what did the business. It makes little difference to the republican party whether the fusion scheme fizzles or is carried out. This is a republican year and the record of the party in the past will insure victory in this state.—Pierre Journal.

NOT CONSISTENT.

The present democratic program is not to reduce duties, but to abolish them—those on wool, binding twine, cotton ties, etc. There are conditions under which a reduction of duties, by increasing imports, may increase the revenues. But the abolishing of a duty cannot, conceivably, have any other effect than to reduce the revenue. And yet the democrats are groaning that the government is bankrupt, without enough revenues to pay its obligations. This is a fine example of the consistency of democratic policy.—National Bulletin.

HIS COUNTRY'S CHOICE.

The people wanted Benjamin Harrison and their wish has been respected. They wanted the man who, at the head of his brigade, stormed the heights at Resaca, and was congratulated on the field for distinguished bravery; who took the leadership in 1888 and led what appeared to be a forlorn hope to victory; who has protected the rights and honor of his country alike against England, Chili, and Italy; who drafted the Aldrich reciprocity amendment to the tariff bill; who cannot be wheedled, intimidated or cajoled from the line of strict duty; who since his first nomination has made over 200 speeches and not one line of them has been commonplace or better left unsaid. They wanted plain unpretentious, plucky Benjamin Harrison, the man with moral grit, who has never said a thing without meaning it, and never means a thing not right.—Sioux City Journal.

Cures of our Carlsbad

The fame of the cures effected by our mineral waters is spreading rapidly and is sufficiently great to induce those who have tried in vain other remedies and other mineral waters not to despair. Mr. A. Garber, of Guide Rock, Neb., has been troubled with rheumatism for the past eight years. On two different occasions he has tried the waters of Hot Springs, Arkansas, but without receiving any permanent benefit. He came to the Catholicion springs two weeks ago and was then so badly crippled that often he had to be carried up stairs. Two days ago he felt so good that he went out for a walk about the city. There is no doubt that within a very short time Mr. Garber will be rid of every trace of his rheumatic pains. Mrs. Garber is also at the Catholicion with her husband. She was suffering with some stomach trouble but feels much improved. When Mr. William Webster, of Hill City, was attacked with rheumatism he did a very sensible thing. He came direct to the Catholicion and after a sojourn there of three weeks, he went home completely cured.

Invited.

The Black Hills Sunday School Convention meets at Whitewood, beginning the evening of June 21st and continuing all day Wednesday and Thursday, 22d and 23d, and closing Thursday evening. Programs have been sent to the schools of the six counties and every school is urged to participate. It is a mass convention and all workers are free to attend. Let superintendents learn who are going from their respective schools and notify Mrs. J. L. Denman, Whitewood, by the 16th, that the work of providing entertainment may be facilitated.
