THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Performed its Duty and Named a Strong Clean Ticket.

The republican county convention was called to order at 10:45 by the chairman of the county central committee, Dr. A. S. Stewart. The call for the convention was read and after commenting briefly upon the harmonious condition of the party in the county, and the glowing prospects of republican success, from the national down to the local, he stated that the central committee had named Mr. W. F. Wyatt as temporary chairman, who was unanimously chosen to such position.

On motion of Dr. B. A. Wade, Mr. J. C. Dickover was made temporary secretary.

A committee on credentials was ordered: A. K. Mills, J. A. Stanley, D. Hollenbeck, Ravenscroft, Shepherd.

A committee of five was ordered on order of business, as follows: Wade, Atkinson, Cleveland, Virtue, Law.

A committee of five was appointed on permanent organization: Wilson, A. S. Stewart, I. R. Crow, C. G. Fargo, J. Marty.

There being no further business convention took a recess until 1 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 1:20 temporary chairman Wyatt called the convention to order. The committee on credentials made its report, which was adopted.

The committee on order of business reported as follows: 1, permanent organization; 2, election of delegates to senatorial convention; 3, treasurer; 4, legislature representative; 5, clerk of courts; 6, states attorney; 7, register of deeds; 8, county judge; 9, auditor; 10, sheriff; 11, assessor; 12, superintendent of schools; 13, surveyor; 14, coroner; 15, justices; 16, constables; 17, election republican county central committee.

Committee on permanent organization reported as follows: chairman, S. E. Wilson; secretary, E. M. Boydston; which report was unanimously adopted. Upon his taking the chair Mr. Wilson made one of his characteristic speeches, for occasions of this character, which tended to enhance all present with republicanism. He congratulated the republicans upon their assurance of success, thanked the convention heartily for the honor it had conferred upon him and declared the convention ready for business.

On motion of J. A. Stanley, I. R. Crow was elected assistant secretary. The first order of business, after permanent organization, was then taken up, which was the election of eleven delegates to the senatorial convention.

On motion of J. A. Stanley, the chair appointed a committee of five to make these nominations. Committee appointed was: G. M. Cleveland, Will Fargo, Cyrus Wilson, J. B. Dickover, D. K. Snively.

Committee retired for consultation, and upon return reported the following names: A. S. Stewart, Jos. Marty, Chambers Kellar, John Henton, J. A. Stanley, Cyrus Wilson, Frank Long, J. A. Bell, A. D. Wood, G. M. Cleveland, Jas. Tucker.

On motion it was decided to nominate by ballot where there was more than one candidate for the same office. Nomination of treasurer was next in order, and Dr. Wade placed James Bradley, of Bradley Flat, in nomination, who was unanimously named for that office.

For representative, John L. Burke, of Odell precinct, was unanimously nominated.

For clerk of courts, H. E. Bacon, W. L. Judkins and F. W. Anthony were placed in nomination.

On motion J. A. Stanley and J. C. Dickover were appointed tellers by the chair.

On motion those delegates present were authorized to cast full vote of their precinct.

First ballot for clerk of courts resulted: Judkins 57, Anthony 15, Bacon 5.

Mr. Judkins, of Hat Creek, was declared the nominee, and his nomination was made unanimous.

For states attorney Chambers Kellar was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Crane, of Hot Springs, was declared the nominee, and his nomination was made unanimous.

For assessor the following were

For constables, F. E. Dale, of Dudley; C. L. Bosworth, of Smithwick; Wm. Anderson, of Hat Creek; and N. S. Stevens, of Cascade were nominated.

Upon motion the thanks of the convention were extended to the chair for the able and expeditious manner in which he had dispatched the business of the convention.

The following county central committee was then elected, after which the convention adjourned: Hot Springs, First Ward, E. B. Warren; Second Ward, J. B. Dickover; Third Ward, G. M. Cleveland; Jackson, T. B. Dings; Cascade, Frank Fawcett; Hat Creek, E. S. Cox; Cheyenne Falls, W. F. Wyatt; Smithwick, J. C. Tucker; Oelrichs, Frank Long; Union, L. D. Brooke; Dudley, D. K. Snively; Red Canyon, Chas. Bonrne; Sand Creek, J. D. Morgaridge; Beaver, A. G. Bacon; Odell, Fred Schuler; Indian Creek, J. H. Thompson; Duck Creek, Alex. Mench.

At a meeting of the committee held immediately after the adjournment of the convention J. B. Dickover was elected chairman and E. B. Warren, secretary of the committee.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

This convention was a most famous affair compared to what was anticipated. But two names were presented to the convention for the nomination—Thornby and Scholfield. The vote stood: Thornby 18; Scholfield 4. Mr. Thornby was therefore declared the nominee, which was made unanimous, after which he was called for and made a neat little speech. The following senatorial central committee was then chosen: Dr. A. S. Stewart, chairman, W. F. Wyatt and Cyrus Wilson of Fall River county, and P. H. Johnston, W. E. Benedict and L. Ballou, of Custer county.

THE REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Last evening the opera house was comfortably filled with a fine audience of ladies and gentlemen to hear Capt. C. H. Sheldon, the coming governor, and Capt. Lucas, our next congressman, expound republican principles. Both gentlemen were very much indisposed, and scarcely able to be out of bed—in fact Mr. Sheldon had been in bed all day—but they felt it their duty, they said, to at least show themselves.

Capt. Sheldon feared that in his condition he could neither do himself or his subject or his audience justice, but after he once entered upon the discussion of the very important questions of the day, his energies seemed to be revived and he made one of the most sound, convincing and pleasing political addresses that has ever been given in Hot Springs. It was clear, logical and concise, and eloquent, and we have no doubt whatever but that the governor made many votes for the republican party. It would please us to give the whole speech if space would permit. If Capt. Sheldon did not do himself justice upon this occasion we should be more than delighted to hear him when he does.

Capt. Lucas was feeling so poorly he only spoke a few moments, but he put in his time well, and forcibly set forth some clinching arguments in behalf of republican principles. We shall hear him in this city again before election.

These two veterans have now been speaking once and twice a day for the past six weeks and it is no wonder they are about used up, but the pure ozone of the Hills will revive them to renewed energies and they will doubtless be able to fill all engagements. We trust so, for they are vote getters for the party.

The Orphean Quartet rendered some choice campaign songs that were heartily enjoyed.

Dr. Wade received a standard bred trotting colt the fore part of the week from the eastern part of the state.

Charley Sawyer's sold 160 acres of his place south of the city for a nice consideration to an Omaha real estate man. Land is coming into demand about here.

The concert at the college chapel last Monday evening, under the direction of Prof. Stinson, was one of the richest treats, in a musical sense, that our people have heard for months.

The singing was magnificent, and we desire to compliment each participant personally. We have no space to give a synopsis of the program, but each part was carried out in a delightful manner, and all deserve great credit.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

The republicans of Fall River county were wise in their distribution of the various offices throughout the county. All portions are well represented upon the ticket. This strengthens it.

The ticket that good republicans will vote on Nov. 8th is as follows:

WM. J. THORNBY.

Candidate for state senator, was born in Greenwich, Washington county, N. Y., on April 27th, 1826. He received a common school education. He learned and kept a pattern business and in 1876 struck out for Portland, Oregon, where he expected to work at the mill. He started for the hills on foot with a party of Montana miners, and walked through to Deadwood, where he at once obtained employment as "sup-mech ruster" prior to the spring of 1879 he came to the Southern Hills with Prof. Jeny to assist in making a geological survey of that city. In 1879 he moved to Odell in mining property near Custer city, and also located 80 acres of land where this city now is, which included Minnehaha spring. But the Indians were making trouble about the mines and Mr. Thornby concluded to stop at Custer. At that fall he was nominated assessor of Custer county, which he held until 1881, by a mass convention of all parties, and was elected without opposition. He was rejected by the voters in that year, and was a candidate for office he has the satisfaction of never being elected. He was elected in the spring of 1885 Mr. Thornby has resided upon land he located as a homestead and tree claim, two miles from Heron, and is now one of the best farmers in the Black Hills which has been fenced, tilled and subdivided from wild land to its present shape. He has never been in a political office, but will make no mistake in the election of Col. Thornby.

E. S. KELLEY.

Candidate for register of deeds, was born at Cambridge, Mass., in 1829; educated at Bowdoin college, at Akron, Ohio. In 1844 he came west to O'Neill, Neb., and became cashier in the First National bank of that city. In 1849 he moved to Oelrichs, this county, and purchased an interest in the bank at that place. In the spring of 1861 he sold his interest in the bank and moved to Hot Springs. He has had twelve years experience in keeping books and records of business transactions, and is well qualified for the office to which he has been nominated. He will be elected.

W. W. SMITHSON.

For county auditor, is just the man. He was born in 1824, in 1842, he was at the Erie and Atlantic Institute when he enlisted in the 15th New York volunteers in 1862, and served as captain in 1866. He came to Nebraska in 1868, and was county clerk of Lincoln county for two years. Mr. Smithson came to the Hills in 1876, and was in the employ of the Homestead Mining company until 1887, since which time he has been in the employ of the Oelrichs, where he is very popular and regarded as an upright, honorable gentleman, entitled to and qualified for the office of auditor.

W. JUDKINS.

When the republicans have chosen to again fill the responsible position of clerk of the courts, was born in Lockport, Ill., on April 20, 1866; moved to Hot Springs in 1882, and was in the state, where he lived until at the age of ten years he moved with his parents to Battle Creek, Mich., where he resided until the 1st of December, 1876. Upon his arrival at Cheyenne, Wyo., he joined the famous Crook's Indian expedition of 76 men, and engaged in mining at Lead City, but not meeting with success, in June of '77 engaged in freighting into the Hills, which he followed until the fall of '87, when he entered into the employment of the W. B. Grimes, Cattle Co., known as the W. A. outfit, in Fall River county, remaining with the company until 1888. In November of 1888 he was elected assessor of Hot Springs, this county, as a farmer and stock raiser, where his home now is, although temporarily absent in Hot Springs in his own capacity. He has been a taxpayer in Fall River county since 1881. Mr. Judkins has made an excellent accommodating official, and is certain of success.

T. W. CRANE.

The next sheriff of Fall River county, was born on a farm in Front county, Va., where he lived with his parents and was educated, and because of age, when he came west to Iowa, where he worked a farm and worked it one year, then he went to Nebraska, where he bought a horse and sold cattle for about three years. In 1883 he went to Valentine, Neb., took up land and worked on a farm until the fall of '87, when he came to Hot Springs in the fall of '87, and engaged in the grocery business with his brother, and that they have been since. He has never had a license to sell liquor, and he is a true republican, and excellently qualified for the office of sheriff.

CHAMBERS KELLAR.

For state's attorney, was one of the wisest choices the republicans made. In fact there was no opposition to him. His nomination was unanimous. A bright, able and hard working man, he has become respected and gained the confidence of the people of the county of all political parties. He is a native of Vermont, where he was born on March 4th, 1867, was graduated from the Vanderbilt university at Nashville, in 1887, with first honors and youngest in his class. Afterwards read law in the office of Wilbur E. Bradley, of Hot Springs, and he is certain of success. Mr. Kellar has been city attorney since the incorporation of Hot Springs, and has proven himself worthy and well qualified to hold the office of state's attorney. As a state's attorney he will be equal to every emergency, and we predict that the voters of this county will never have cause to regret their electing him to that responsible position.

LOOMIS S. CULL.

Who will fill the office of county judge for the coming two years, and who has given such excellent satisfaction in that position during his incumbency. He was born in Vermont, in 1860; for three years attended the Norwich military academy, and for three years was alternately reading law and working in barbed wire factories at Marshalltown and Johnstown, Pa. In 1881 he attended the Albany, N. Y., law school and the same year was admitted to practice at Marshalltown, Ia. Judge Cull came to Dakota in 1882 and located at Plankinton, where he resided until 1886, when he came to the Hills. He was appointed county judge in January, 1891, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Wood, and has given such complete satisfaction that his re-election is assured.

The STAR has been unable to procure sketches of the other candidates for this issue, and they will appear later. But who doesn't know Mr. Bradley? Who doesn't know him to be thoroughly honest, conscientious, and efficient? Such a man we want to continue for treasurer. For representative, John L. Burke is from among the people and knows their desires in the way of legislation. His character and his qualifications are above reproach, and he is certain of election. Mr. Brooke has made an efficient school superintendent and reports of his good work are coming in from all over the county. Calhoun is now our coroner by appointment, and has been faithful and proven himself well qualified. J. A. Long is not so well known, but those who know him best are his warmest supporters, and before election the people will find that he is excellently qualified for the office of assessor. All of these candidates have records that will bear the closest scrutiny. It is entirely a clean, strong ticket, and not a name should be scratched. More anon.

Captains Lucas and Sheldon bring most gratifying reports from the eastern portion of the state, and proscribe a republican plurality of fully 10,000 in the state. They are perfectly confident of a grand victory. All of which is received with much gratification in republican ranks.

Judge Appelget has gone to Sheridan, Wyo., to locate. He is a pleasant gentleman and a good lawyer.

The May Louise Aigen Co. greatly enjoyed our people with three fine performances at the opera house this week.

George Gibson has gone down to Harrison, Neb., to do a job of plastering. He will use Hot Springs stucco. Our workmen and our material are becoming famous.

A. C. Walker, A. F. Fay, A. S. Way, G. A. Bartholomew, J. C. Bower and W. E. Benedict were down from Heron, Neb., last Saturday to attend the senatorial convention.

Mr. Gentzke and party arrived from West Point Saturday last and remained until Monday, during which time they purchased considerable property in and about here, through Mr. Blunck.

This is Columbus day—a legal holiday—and the public schools are celebrating the auspicious occasion in a becoming manner. The exercises at the college tonight will also be very interesting.

Wm. Magowan of Tama City, Iowa, arrived last week to visit his sons in this city, and for the purpose of taking a course of baths. He is so well pleased with our city that he expects to purchase some property.

We trust the readers of our local columns will bear with us in our negligence of this department until after election, when we shall have more time to devote to it. Nothing is news now, scarcely, unless there's politics in it.

Among the notable Custerites who were in the city last Saturday, interested in the senatorial nomination were: J. E. Pilcher, S. R. Shaukland, W. G. Porter, P. H. Johnston, Chas. Smith, H. R. Hitchcock, of the Chronicle, and wife.

The musical recital at the college last Saturday evening by Miss Arlie Douglass, assisted by the Orphean Quartet, was very fine. Miss Douglass is a musician of rare attainments and the manner in which she plays is wonderful. Although she fingers the piano with ease and grace, she is marvelously quick. She is indeed a musician.

An old fashioned spelling bee will be the attraction at the Presbyterian church social to be held at the church on Saturday evening next at 7:30 p. m. A general admission of ten cents will be charged. Classes will be chosen and an old fashioned "spelling down" will take place under Dr. Cheney's supervision. A valuable prize will be given to the best speller.

The independent speaking at the court house Monday evening was very well attended, considering the fact that there were two other performances in the city on the same evening. This writer could not very well take them all in, and the independent speeches were missed by us. They were reported good as could be expected. Mr. Plowman's address is praised by the independents, and John Marble is complimented, although he got considerably mixed up on his statistics, which Mr. Plowman tried to straighten out for him.

C. A. Jarvis has rented the Catholic hotel and bath house from the Catholic Co., for a period of seven months. The company is to overhaul the old building, build an addition 34x60 feet, three stories high, and raise the old part another story, which will give about one hundred rooms, with verandas all around the new portion. Mr. Jarvis is a thorough hotel man and after the hotel is entirely renovated and rebuilt, with the large addition, it will be an attractive place, with a popular landlord.

Seth Gifford Withdraws.

Yesterday Seth Gifford announced that he had decided to withdraw from the shirivality race. He got to thinking it all over and came to the conclusion that the republican party had treated him too kindly for him to now turn a cold shoulder upon it. He will work earnestly for the success of the ticket, straight. We congratulate Seth and the party.

Stone for the City Hall.

I think as it is a difficult matter to adjust the kind, quality and color for the stone in the front of the new city hall, that a few suggestions would not be out of place. We should not stand on a few extra dollars in the price of stone, if by so doing we can get the best, which is the cheapest always, in order to get as good an effect as possible. I would suggest for the basement and trimmings, a light gray sandstone, left rock face, and for the other stories a white, if possible, with rubbed face, all neatly pointed up. In using these two colors it will make a very imposing contrast, and a building that could be pointed to with pride by our citizens. C. R. C.

Why not permit the various stone quarries to each furnish some stone. It would be a very nice manner for them to advertise their quarries, and perhaps each would gladly furnish at actual cost. We believe it would not be a bad scheme for the council to look into this.
