ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION.

A Proclamation by the Governor of the Commonwealth.

In keeping with a beautiful and valued custom, endorsed by the sentiment of the better elements of our race, I, R. S. Vessey, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby appoint and designate Friday, the twenty-third day of April, A. D. 1909, as ARBOR DAY, and recommend a general observance of the day throughout our entire state.

The absence of forests and woodlands and their glories and monetary values will remind our posterity of the neglect of past generations in all parts of the country, to protect "God's First Temples", to conserve a great natural resource, and perpetuate the beauties of nature. This notable condition in the present age has given rise to a feeling that has crystallized into a decisive policy with definite plans of action for the encouragement of planting trees. It has emphasized in the public mind the value of trees for beautifying the home surroundings and the public parks, for their food product and for lumber, and for preventing erosion of the soil, and conserving the streams.

The annual observance of Arbor Day by the state, Denominational, Private and Public Schools, and by the people of the cities and rural sections alike, has been the important factor which moulded public sentiment and resulted in valuable legislation in this state which will stimulate tree culture.

It is earnestly requested that the day be observed in a loyal and public spirited manner by all our people, and that in the schools the day should be observed by appropriate and instructive exercises relating to forestry and kindred subjects which add to the beauties and wealth of nature.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Pierre, this second day of April, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nine.

R. S. VESSEY, Governor.

By the Governor:

SAMUEL C. POLLEY, Secretary of State.

By order of the city council,

Attest: J. W. TUTTILL, Auditor. 51-21

Dated April 5th, 1909.

Notice.

To the public generally and the citizens of Hot Springs particularly: Announcement is now made of the official analysis of the Braun mineral spring as made by Dr. Benton Dales, chemist of the State University of Nebraska, March 20th, 1909.

Grains per gallon.
Silica	0.33
Aluminum and Ferric Oxide	1.05
Sodium Chloride	12.31
Magnesium Sulphate	10.80
Calcium Sulphate	25.01
Calcium Carbonate	20.52
Sodium Sulphate	17.25
Total	87.33

This analysis proves valuable to the owners and also to all persons who live here and may drink of it and bath in it. From a scientific standpoint it has no superiors in Hot Springs, S. D. or in fact anywhere in the United States, in the treatment of many chronic ailments.

N. B. All persons who traduce or deny this water the wonderful qualities duly set forth in the above analysis of the Braun mineral spring, will be arrested and punished to the fullest extent of the law. HENRY L. BRAUN.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Price, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

ESTRAY:—One black horse, branded "Y" on right hip. Will give reward for information or return of horse.
