The I. O. O. F. Encampment conferred degrees on sixteen candidates from different points in the Hills and from Chadron, Nebraska, at their hall last Saturday evening. The work was done by the world's champion degree team of the local lodge and was a pleasing sight to the many visitors who were present to take in this big event. The work lasted practically all night with a short intermission at midnight for lunch.

The Morris Grand has been showing some of the best pictures to be seen on the screen of late. Not alone has the feature programs been above the average but the every night program is strictly up-to-date. One evening the past week in the current events a scene was shown and two days following the same appeared in the Denver Post. Even some of the battles along the Russian frontier appeared and gave some idea of the awful conflict being waged across the water.

The next meeting of the secretaries' association of Black Hills Commercial Clubs will be held on Saturday afternoon at Lead. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 2:30 o'clock. It is expected that at this meeting there will be a much larger attendance than was had at the meeting of the association in this city, for since that time there have been several applications for membership made and a greater interest has been aroused in the objects for which the association has been organized. The coming meeting will be a most important one.

Judge P. F. Ward and Attorney E. S. Wilson, two of the live irrigation boosters of this city, were passengers to Pierre, Monday to attend the meeting of the State Irrigation Association which convened there this week during the session of the legislature. Both men are vitally interested in the Angostura Project adjoining this city and are making this trip with the idea of assisting the irrigation amendment which is to be voted on at the coming election. While in Pierre they will present the proposition to the different legislators in order that they may upon their return to their homes after this special session be in a position to tell their constituents of the amendment and when this is intelligently done there is small doubt but that it will pass.

The Best Recommendation
The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Mrs. Amanda Gierhart, Waynesfield, Ohio, writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my family off and on for twenty years and it has never failed to cure a cough or cold." Obtainable everywhere.

"THE RAVEN"

"The Raven" in Six Parts at the Morris Grand Soon

Another of the V. L. S. E. "Big Four" guaranteed features will be shown at the Morris Grand on Tuesday evening, February 15th, starring the great emotional actor Henry B. Walthall, supported by Miss Warda Howard and an all star "Essanay" cast.

Mr. Walthall enjoys the reputation of being one of the greatest screen stars new before the public, among his more recent successes being "The Little Colonel" in "The Birth of a Nation" perhaps the greatest photo drama ever screened; the lead with Edna Mayo in "The Misleading Lady" and the great serial mystery drama "The Strange Case of Mary Page." Nearly every one knows the story of "The Raven" a romance of the life of Edgar Allan Poe.

Edgar Allan Poe, while at college, incurs many debts and is sent home in disgrace. He is deeply in love with Virginia, a girl who lives near his home. They are announcing their betrothal to her mother when Poe's foster father appears on the scene and denounces him for his conduct at school and orders him from the house.

Poe marries the girl and tries to make a living by writing. He is poorly paid and they feel the pinch of poverty. The wife becomes ill and finally dies because Poe is unable to furnish her with even the bare necessities of life.

He is plunged into great grief and despair. All night he sits brooding over his loss. Through his distorted imagination he sees the ominous raven enter his room to croak gloomy forebodings. There also the spirit of his wife visits him.

Poe is torn by terrible doubts as to whether the raven's prophesies that he shall see his beloved no more or whether the spirit's promise that he meet her in the elysian fields shall be fulfilled.

Finally he himself is stricken by death and his spirit is wafted to heights supernal where he is united with the lost "Lenore."

"And the Raven, never flitting, still is sitting, still is sitting; And his eyes have all the seeming of a demon's that is dreaming."

Mr. Walthall and Miss Howard do some wonderful acting in this great photo drama and the high reputation of the "Essanay" for perfection in settings, lighting and photography is fully sustained.

Given under the auspices of the Senior High School Class. Prices, adults 25 cents, children 15 cents. Seats reserved at Highley's upper drug store. Phone 67. Door open 7:15 show starts 7:45.
