Ladies Aid of Zion. Some merry, friendly, country-folks, Together will convene To meet the witches, spirits and fairies, And hold their Hallow'en; October, 30, 1896, at the residence of Dr. J. C. Dixon, Ashwood, Tenn. Admission 25 cents.

St. Mary's Guild wishes to announce that they will give an entertainment on Saturday, October 30, and continuing through Monday, November 1. They propose to make it enjoyable to the young people and tempting to those who prefer the delicacies and substantial of a lunch table.

On this afternoon, from 3:30 to 8 o'clock, the Junior Epworth League will give a "Gypsy Party" on the lawn of Mr. Hiram Hendley on the Santa Fe pike. A great time is expected; there will be a band of gypsies, bon-fires, music, games, a cake-walk, and refreshments. Those who attend will meet at Miss Mattie Alexander's, on North Garden Street, and walk out to Mr. Hendley's, but will have a hay-ride back.

About twenty-five or thirty young ladies of Columbia have banded themselves together under the name of "The Embroidery Club," for the purpose of spending an hour together each week in social converse as well as to discuss fancy-work topics. The initial meeting was held with Miss Virginia Carpenter last week, and met with Miss Eugenia Clifton this week. They meet each Wednesday afternoon. They have some literary features, also; a story of some kind being read and discussed, and quotations, beginning with the first letter of the lady with whom they meet, enlivening the hour. We wish the "Embroidery Club" many happy hours during the coming season.

Richard & Pringle's Georgia Minstrels played to a crowded house Monday night, and from the time the curtain went up until Lucy's lawn party broke up in a row, the audience was furnished with mirth provoking laughter and amusement. The songs, dances, and jokes were good and were roundly applauded. Big mouthed Bill Kersands was more popular than ever with the gallery gods, as was Dosey the female character artist. Taken altogether it was a repetition of their success, and we hope the management will be as successful in the future.

Coming, Oct. 26th, for one week, Maude Atkinson.

It has long been a custom (and a pretty and happy one it is) of the members of the First Presbyterian church to yearly hold a social gathering, where they can meet and mingle, become better acquainted, and thus create a friendly, social feeling in all the workings of the church. Such a social was given on last Friday evening in the Pythian Hall, and nearly two hundred of the members of the church attended. Every one was met at the door by a reception committee and Rev. F. B. Webb and some of his older members. Recitations by Misses Mary Rain and Sue Todd Walker; pretty solos by Mrs. C. H. Forgy and Miss Bessie Dale; a duet by Miss Dale and Mr. Joe Fowler; a solo by little Miss Virginia Webb, and delightful refreshments were the features of the evening.

Read what the Beardstown, Ill., Star says:

"The opening play of the week's engagement of the Maude Atkinson company was admirably rendered. Considering the weather a good house greeted them in the play of 'Leah, the Forsaken,' a five act play rewritten and rearranged by the star of the company. Miss Atkinson, in the part of Leah, fully corroborated all that has been said of her, bearing out her reputation as an emotional actress of a very high order. Edwin Southers, as Rudolph, was excellent. As the ardent lover, the penitent son, the scornful accuser and the pleading, sorrow stricken lover of the dead past—all, all was true to nature. J. H. Gordon, as Nathan, carried his part well. Miss Louise Taylor played the part of Anna, Rudolph's betrothed, in a charming manner. Madeline Price in the character of Old Martha was excellent. J. H. Thayer, as the decrepit Father Lorenz, acted well his part. R. J. Johnston, as Ludwig, 'for which are we doctors, was true to the nature of the old pill mixers of back ages.'"

A jolly party of nut-hunters, each with a well filled basket of palatable refreshments, went out to Mr. Allen Harlan's yesterday. They had an ideal October day for their jaunt, and brought back quite a quantity of chestnuts and scaly-barks. Misses Eva Benner, of Birmingham, Ala., Annie McLean, Mary Gant, Mamie Akin, Lena Frierson, Mina McLemore, Bessie Dale, Pearl Provine, Linda Frierson, Kate and Mary Wilkes, Eva James, Bessie and Sarah Moore, Dot Ewing, Susie Cheairs, Ethel Hendley, and Rev. A. C. Killheffer, and Messrs. U. H. Foster, W. P. Ridley, John Sowell, A. B. Harlan, Horace Armstrong, Walter Bailey, L. E. Polk, Fred Gamble, Sam Williams, J. H. Guest, Will Martin, Wiley Warfield, Clarence Alexander, George Frierson, and E. C. Perry composed the party. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. James and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Forgy were the chaperones.

The charming home of Mrs. Webb Ridley, on the Mt. Pleasant pike, found a picture invitingly happy and hospitable last Tuesday evening, the occasion of Mrs. Ridley's reception, which was a delightful one in every detail. Mesdames E. H. Hatcher and Charles Jackson assisted Mrs. Ridley in receiving her numerous guests, while Misses Ethel Hatcher and Mary Ridley presided at the Apollinaris lemonade bowl. Dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Hatcher and Jackson; Misses Bessie Dale, Mina McLemore, Eva James, Minnie Bratton, Mary Embry, Mattie Jackson, Silver Clubs and Public Speaking all Over This County.

We will take care of our homes and the Nation will take care of itself.

In Maury County the silver men are in the saddle. They have not waited for the bosses to tell them what to do. They have not waited to learn whether Coleman and Buchanan are losing any sleep on Tom Watson's or Sewall's account. Old party lines have been torn away and Democrats, Populists, Prohibitionists—and now and then a Republican, are shouting together for Bryan and free silver. And in this campaign, silver men will not vote for gold men for any office; and not only will nearly all the Populists vote for Bryan and Sewall, but a majority of them will vote for Courtney and Smith.

Wherever the speakers have been sent, surprisingly large crowds have greeted them. In districts where in former campaigns they would talk to a dozen, they now address a hundred, showing that the people are alive and interested and at work. And we confidently predict that the largest vote Maury County has ever polled in a National or State election will be polled next Tuesday week; and it will be mostly for the silver ticket.

Never a man worked more industriously for a cause than Maj. Williamson, the Chairman of our County Committee is doing. When he is not speaking himself, he is making dates and appointing speakers. He has the county more thoroughly organized than it has been for many years, and confidently predicts a vote that will be altogether satisfactory to the friends of silver.

The following appointments have been filled since our last issue: J. A. Smiser and E. S. Fowler spoke at Bauguss' school-house Monday October 19.

Sam Holding, Geo. B. Williamson, J. H. Courtney and Mumford Smith, at Kinderhook Tuesday night, October 20.

E. S. Fowler and Geo. B. Williamson, at Kettle Mills Wednesday night, October 21.

L. P. Padgett, at Cotton Factory school-house Wednesday night, Oct. 21.

W. B. Greenlaw and Sam Holding, at Blanton's Chapel Wednesday night, Oct. 21.

E. Eslick, at Mt. Pleasant Wednesday, October 21, and at Spring Hill Thursday Oct. 22. L. P. Padgett, at Enterprise Thursday night, Oct. 22. E. S. Fowler and Frank Shoup spoke at Theta last Friday night. Geo. B. Williamson and E. S. Fowler at Lasea, last Friday night. W. J. Webster spoke at Hurricane last Saturday night. Last Wednesday night the Big Creek Bryan and Sewall Club of the 14th district had a big rally on the ridge about one mile south of Southport. The club was out in full force, with banners and flags and much enthusiasm. Addresses were made by Maj. Jno. T. Williamson, Jas. A. Smiser, Esq., and J. H. Courtney. The same evening Hon. E. E. Eslick of Giles county, addressed an enthusiastic audience at Mt. Pleasant.

To-night L. P. Padgett and J. H. Courtney will speak at Fly's Store; E. H. Hatcher at Williamsport, and Sam Holding and W. B. Greenlaw at Lettwich's Bridge.

To-morrow, Saturday night, W. B. Gordon, Esq., will speak at Hurricane, Jas. A. Smiser, Esq., at Rock Spring, and Bob Hickey of Nashville, will speak at Isom's Academy.

Next Tuesday night J. A. Smiser and W. B. Greenlaw will speak at Lasting Hope school-house, near Carter's Creek.

Next Friday night W. B. Gordon will speak at Isom's Academy, and there will also be speaking at Rock Springs.

To-morrow, Saturday, at 1 o'clock, Hon. Benton McMillin and Hon. B. A. Enloe will speak on the public square in Columbia; and next Monday, at the same hour and place State Elector Woodard will speak. If the weather should be unfavorable, the speaking will be in the Opera House.

Hon. Benton McMillin and Hon. B. A. Enloe will speak in Columbia to-morrow at 1 o'clock, and Hon. A. B. Woodard next Monday at the same hour. Come to hear them. You will not hear better speakers or better speeches during this never-to-be-forgotten campaign.

Miss Fletcher Thweatt's school at Forest Grove closed last Friday with a good concert. A Nashville drummer, who happened to be in the neighborhood at the time, attended the exercises, and some thief made off with his horse and buggy. Up to the last account no clue had been found as to the rogue's identity or whereabouts.

Sleeping a Fine Art. Most persons labor under the delusion that sleep is a natural function, and that slumber is a state that requires no preparation. Given a bed and a certain hour of the evening, and sleep follows its simple creed. As a matter of fact they find that they do not always sleep when they think they should, but it never occurs to them that their theory is wrong. But it is. Sleep is a state requiring careful preparation, and without that preparation its best results cannot be obtained.

African Superstition.

In South Africa I and my black companions had once to sit down and wait 2 1/2 hours at a place on a fairly open forest path, because across it, in front of us, about that time in the afternoon, the ghost of a spear flew, and a touch from it was necessarily fatal. And there is a spring I know of in the Kakongo district, where, when you go to fill your pitcher, you see a very handsome pitcher standing ready filled. Many a lady, seeing no one about to whom the pitcher belongs, has picked this up and left her own, but as soon as she got it with in sight of the village it crumbles into earth and the water is spilled on the ground. On returning for her own discarded one, it is always found broken.—Cornhill Magazine.

Portraits on Pipes.

The portrait pipe is a fad with certain wealthy young men. One of the most beautiful is owned by a well known peer, who was married to an American beauty a few years ago. He wished to have a pipe made bearing the likeness of his wife and left several photographs and a statuette of the lady with the carver.

A month later he received the pipe and a bill for £160. A number of pieces of meerschaum had been tried, only to prove defective, and the last piece, which measured 8 inches high, 7 broad and 12 deep, was reduced to a pipe 3 inches high and 2 1/2 inches at its widest part. When completed, the pipe had passed through the hands of 27 workmen.—Pearson's Weekly.
