OUR CORRESPONDENTS. (Continued from Third Page.) HAMPSHIRE. HAMPSHIRE, Mar. 29.—Well, I suppose it is needless for us to say much about the hard rains, except that the creek was high enough to carry off both foot logs and all the fences within reach. The farmers are making good use of their first opportunity to plant corn. Mr. Elias Dodson has gone on a visit to his old home at Linden. Bro. Beasley filled his regular appointment at this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Otey Thompson has gone into the mercantile business in Mt. Pleasant. Elder Will Morton, of the Christian church, will preach at this place next Sunday night, April 4. Everybody come. Miss Beulah Brooks opened school at Pisgah this morning. The Epworth League will have a business meeting the first Wednesday night in April. Miss Fletcher Fariss of Columbia, has returned home after a protracted visit to relatives at Hampshire. Mr. Tom Walker of Lynnville, paid a flying visit to relatives here last week. The health of this community is very good at present. Mr. Sam Worley made a short visit to home folks last week. He is going to school in Mt. Pleasant. ELAINE. SANTA FE. SANTA FE, Mar. 30.—The farmers have been very busy since the big overflow, building back their fences, which were almost entirely destroyed along the water courses. The roads are almost impassable in many places, having been washed into great holes, by the recent flood. Bro. Owings preached an excellent sermon on third Sunday, at the M. E. Church, from Prov. xiv. 32. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness; but the righteous hath hope in his death. We are glad to know that Mrs. E. A. Walters, of this place, who underwent a very painful surgical operation, is doing as well as could be expected at this writing. The operation was performed by Drs. Pillow and Padgett of Columbia. We are very sorry to learn that Mrs. Jeff Pigg, who has been confined to the house for six or seven months, is no better. On last Wednesday night Miss Maude Gaskill, third vice-president of the Epworth League, with her committee, had a very interesting programme. Miss Mattie Witherspoon, Merideth Cook; select reading by Misses Rebecca Adkinson and Pearl Gaskill, after which Rev. N. B. Owings made a very able talk on the "extent of the kingdom." Miss Lou Overall was visiting Mrs. J. E. Satterfield last Sunday, and attended services at the C. P. Church. Bro. Dale filled his regular appointment last Sunday. Text, 1st Cor. ix. 23; "And Every Man that Striveth for the Master is Temperate in all Things." Bro. Patton preached a splendid sermon at the Baptist church on last Sunday night from Eccles. xlii: "Remember how thy Creator in the Days of thy Youth." We hope the sermon will prove beneficial to all the young people. Miss Pearl Gaskill, who has been convalescing. W. R. Jackson, the "Magie lantern" man of your city, entertained the young held at the residence of S. M. Gupton this week. Mr. Ed Ragdale, of Franklin, visited homefolks since our last. Little Bernice Dodson is quite sick at this writing. With best regards to the HERALD family, I remain the same. SYLVIA. GLENN'S STORE. GLENN'S STORE, March 29.—After so much rain we have had one week of fair weather, which was very acceptable to the farmers. Everybody is busy breaking ground and planting corn. Oat sowing is about completed. The sick, we are glad to report, are improving. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stephenson are on the sick list. We wish for them a speedy recovery. We are glad to hear that Mrs. B. Grigsby, of Spring Hill, is very much improved. Hope she will be well soon. Glenn's Chapel Epworth League met and had a nice literary entertainment at the residence of Mr. T. W. Stephenson on Thursday night, the 25th. Rev. Mr. Duncan filled his regular appointment at Glenn's Chapel yesterday to a large congregation. The young people of Mt. Carmel have organized a Christian Endeavor Society, which meets semi-monthly on Friday night. Mr. B. B. Grigsby, of Columbia, and his sister, Mrs. Gardner, of Nashville, are with home folks. We are sorry to hear of Dr. Lee's illness. RUMPELSTITZCHEN. CATHEY'S CREEK. CATHEY'S CREEK, March 29.—Miss Annie Mai Cathey has returned home after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. R. C. White, of Beas Creek. Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Cummins visited friends in Tottles Bend last week. The farmers are very busy replacing the fences that were destroyed by the big rise on the creek last week. Mrs. H. S. French and children, of Atlanta, Ga., have returned home after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. J. B. Kittrell. Mrs. Kittrell accompanied her as she was in Nashville, where she will visit her brothers, Mack and Fred Alicanda. Mrs. W. H. Willis, of Ashwood, visited friends here last week. Lila Mai Houser, of Shady Grove, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Anna Baker, at this writing. Bro. Derryberry filled his regular appointment at Southpoint the 4th Sunday. Miss Maeca Cummins, of Tottles Bend, is the guest of Mrs. J. O. Cummins at this writing. Miss Mamie Green is visiting friends at Ashwood. We have no marriages to report, but if rumor is true we will hear the sound of wedding bells soon. I have written what few items I had gathered, and will now close, promising if this escapes the waste basket to write again. Many good wishes to all. ALISON. HAMPSHIRE. HAMPSHIRE, March 29.—This rainy Monday afternoon, we shall attempt to contribute something more from this place to the columns of the HERALD. Farm work is progressing slowly in our neighborhood, on account of so much rain. The recent rains did considerable damage to many farms and fences, so fencing was the work of many farmers here last week. Rev. William Morton will preach at the school-house in Hampshire the first Sunday in April, at 7 p. m. Rev. Murphy, of Wayne county, will preach at the residence of R. J. Rahl, near Pisgah, the fourth Sunday in April, at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday-school was reorganized at Pisgah yesterday. Mr. Otey Thompson is now in the mercantile business at Mt. Pleasant. We wish for him all the success that is possible for him to attain. Miss Jessie Wilkins has returned home after a protracted visit to relatives in Columbia. Mr. Ed Higgins, of Ridley, was with the young people of this vicinity yesterday. Miss Beulah Brooks, of Buckner's Branch, opened a subscription school at Pisgah last Monday. The directors of the both school district here purchased a lot near Pisgah, on which to build a school-house. They are contemplating building very soon. ERSKINE. LOCO AND JAMESON. LOCO, March 30.—As news is scarce I cannot promise many items this time. About all we can hear is the damage done by the flood. Misses Drusy Hoot and Maggie McMaury, of Hill, visited Miss Hattie Bass last week. Master Erle Gray is still sick from the effects of the measles. We hope he will soon recover. Mr. Johnnie Jameson is planting corn. Who can beat him for early planting? Mrs. M. Oakley, of Carter's Creek, visited Mrs. B. Gray last week. Another we Miss has come to gladden the home of Mr. Lee Rountree. Mr. W. Anderson preached a good sermon at Beech Grove Sunday. Mr. P. H. Southall, who has been sick for a long time, is much improved. "Gipsy Blair" requested all the correspondents to tell how long they had been in the Herald's family. I will say that I have been writing about five years, although not regularly. I feel proud of our dear old HERALD, and I hope it may continue to prosper and spread its bright news abroad. Mrs. W. Anderson, who has been sick for some time, is still indisposed. Mr. Marshall, of Franklin, is visiting Mr. P. H. Southall and family. We are soon to have a telephone running from Columbia by Jameson to Thoma. Mr. C. Anderson is quite sick with the measles. Miss Hattie Bass, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, left for her home at Lebanon this week. We were very sorry to hear of Miss Jennie Jordan's death. She was a good christian girl, and to know her was to love her. Wishing all the correspondents much success, I remain, MYRT. CARTER'S CREEK. CARTER'S CREEK, March 30.—With sadness we announce the death of Miss Jennie Jordan, which occurred at the home of Mr. C. S. Nichols, on March 28, at seven a. m. She has been a member of the C. P. Church for four years, and to the time of her death lived an exemplary christian life. She was a strict reader of the Bible, and her delight was in the law of the Lord. While the grim monster, Death, is no respecter of persons, he did not come to her unexpectedly, or find her unprepared for his call. She had been confined to her room for more than three months. To be released from her pain of long and weary waiting in sickness, and to be present with Him in that glory land, was her pain, sickness, and death are no more, was to her a consoling thought. To know her was to love and admire her. Many friends followed her remains to their last resting place at Lasting Hope Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted at Lasting Hope Church March 29, by Rev. W. T. Dale and T. J. Dixon. We will all miss her; her place cannot be filled. Mother, sister, cherish her memory; relatives and friends, emulate her example, and strive to meet all the redeemed of God around the great white throne. Miss Joe Foster is visiting Miss Annie Lou McKay, near Spring Hill. Miss Bettie Gray, of Santa Fe, is spending several days with Mr. John McMeen and family. Miss Lily Roberts, of Columbia, was the guest of Mrs. Josephine Mangrem last week. Miss Annie Meroney, of Dark's Mill, was with friends here the first of the week. Mr. G. W. Nichols and son, Burnett, of Livingston, Ala., were here this week. Mrs. C. E. McMeen has returned from a visit to her son, at Roberts' Bend. Mr. W. Milton Melroy, who attends school at Lebanon, will preach at the C. P. Church the second Sunday in April. Miss Mai Cowser, of Franklin, and Miss Ora Cowser of Godwin, are visiting relatives at this place. Mrs. Lucy Bond is on an extended visit to relatives at Franklin. Miss Ida Mangrem, formerly of this vicinity, but who now resides near Rally Hill, was recently thrown from a horse and severely injured. Mr. W. T. Cowser, who has been visiting his parents, has returned to his home in the "City of Rocks." Mrs. Tennie Campbell has been visiting relatives at Nashville. Master Tyree Holland is sick with measles; also little James and Nora McMahon. We are glad to say Mrs. E. B. Grigsby's health is improving. If this escapes the waste basket, you will again hear from, VERENA. BIGBYVILLE. BIGBYVILLE, March 30.—Death has again visited our midst, and claimed for its victims Mrs. McMaury, an aged lady who was much respected and beloved by all, and little Irene, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stockard, leaving the home desolate and the parents broken hearted. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones. Rev. Mr. Powers preached an excellent sermon at this place Sunday to a large congregation. Quite a number of visitors were in attendance, among whom we noticed Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson, Misses Mattie Willis, Anna Stone, Messrs. Winfield Harris and Ed Stone, of Timmons. Misses Minnie and Blanche Bryant visited friends at Culleoka last week, returning the latter part of the week. Messrs. Houston Thomas and Albert Boyd were in Nashville on business one day last week. Mr. J. W. Farris has returned from Lawrence, where he went on a trading expedition. W. J. Thomas, our popular and obliging merchant, was in Nashville several days last week, purchasing his spring stock of goods. Mr. Ashley Moore has moved from this place to Sunny Side. We regret to learn that Terry Maxwell met with a painful misfortune while playing at school; he accidentally dislocated his ankle, which is giving him great pain. Dr. K. S. Howlett leaves in a few days for New York to be absent two months. Dr. Howlett will be much missed, both socially and professionally. Farmers are busy planting corn and potatoes; some have planted their gardens. Little Laura Mai Pender is not at all well; hope, however, she may soon recover. As ever, ELVIRA. BROADVIEW. BROADVIEW, Mar. 30.—On the night of March 27, 1897, the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stockard and triumphantly bore away the spirit of their daughter, Irene, to the realms of that rest that remains for the people of God. Irene was 12 years, 1 month and 21 days old. Interment at Glenwood. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives. Mrs. McMaury died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bill Wells, last Monday. She was buried at McClain's Wednesday at 11 o'clock. Peace to her soul. Miss Kate Dugger, who has been quite sick, is able to return to school. Mrs. Florence Segraves and Miss Lucy McKisick visited their sister Mrs. Kate Dugger Sunday. Mr. Joe M. Foster, the HERALD man, was here last week the interest of the HERALD. Come again Mr. Foster. Miss Kate Wells of Yorkley, is visiting at her grandfather's, Elger W. M. Murphy. The relatives and friends of the Garrett family will meet at the Garrett graveyard next Saturday to clean it off. Mr. John Murphy came home from Nashville last week and spent several days here. Mr. Perry Payne of Columbia, will erect a nice monument at Mr. Almon Dugger's grave today. The peach trees are in bloom now, looking nice; think we'll have a good crop. Miss Mary L. Segraves has been quite sick with the measles. There was a large crowd at the Endeavor Sunday night, Messrs. Bill Gilmer and Willis Howard made splendid talks. We wish to express our sympathy to our editor in the sad death of his father. BRUNNEN. SOUTH EAST SIDE. Mrs. Will Pilkilton is visiting relatives at Williamsport. Mr. Will Dugger, of Stiversville, was visiting Mr. W. N. Wilson and family the first of the week. Mrs. W. S. Tucker, after a pleasant visit with relatives at Mt. Pleasant, has returned home. Mr. A. F. Brown shipped on last Tuesday to Mr. Thomas at Knoxville, a very fine Jersey heifer. He also shipped a young cow to Middleboro, Kentucky, yesterday. She had just made a test of 14 1/2 pounds of butter in seven days. TRAMP. Garwood's Sarsaparilla—for the blood—guaranteed to cure. A. B. RAINS If you want the news, Herald. Subscribe for the
