

EXAMINATION OF DEFENDANT GRANBERY CONCLUDED

their mother. He said that Mrs. Long's bed was the bed nearest the door occupied by his wife.

Witness said the first talk he had with Dr. Lenehan was in March; he talked to him again the last of April, and then again about ten days before the killing.

The first information he obtained from Miss Matt Dobbins was about the middle of May, and the last time was a week before the killing. His talk with Charlie Burns was the first week in May. The one with Tom Fetter was nine days before the killing. His talk with Annie Dobbins, colored, was the last week in April. Witness never had any talk at all, he said, with the detective; never saw him.

Witness was asked concerning a visit of his wife's father to his mother's home on the Monday following the Friday, when the separation had taken place. He said that his wife's father had called at his mother's house. That he met him in the hall and invited him into the room and introduced him to his mother; said he could not recall, but did not think that the father spoke to him at all. He was invited to take his coat off and have a seat. After some time the visitor asked defendant's brother Bob, for a private conference, and they left the room together. Witness did not hear what was said, but Bob reported to him that his wife's father said he had "come there to settle matters; that he had come for revenge; that he never knew a divorced woman whose character had not been pulled down by it." Bob said that he had replied that only evil-minded people were given to think evil of all divorced women; and that if there was to be any settlement for revenge it must be with him and not with me.

That, said the witness, is the substance of what Bob told me was said between them.

Attorney-General Garner here repeated his searching question which the defendant declined to answer the day before: "When, if ever, did your mind become fixed that your wife had been criminally intimate with Washington Long?"

"I don't know that it ever became fixed," was the reply; "sometimes I thought so, sometimes I did not think so."

"How long before the killing did your mind become fixed as to the guilt of your wife," was the next question.

"I have told you that I cannot say that my mind became fixed at all," was the reply. "Sometimes when I would hear what people were saying, I could not help but believe the reports of her conduct; but then again I would think it over and throw it off and not believe it. I was hearing these reports and thinking over my trouble so much that my mind was excited and troubled all the while, and what I thought at one time I would not think at another time."

The Attorney-General then left this line of inquiry, and inquired about the pistol. Witness said he had bought the pistol in St. Louis, and carried it regularly, as was the custom among bosses at the mines. He had borrowed a pistol when he first went to the mines, and had not purchased this one until after he had separated from his wife. It was a Colt's automatic, and shot nine times, as fast as you could pull the trigger. It had a safety arrangement, however, which prevented it from shooting until that arrangement had been fixed.

There were no loads in his pistol that night after he had ceased firing. At the time he bought the pistol he had also bought one hundred cartridges, and had used them all except the nine he used that night. He had used them, he said, shooting rabbits and targets.

Changing the line of thought again.

In answer to questions witness said that he saw the deceased on the afternoon of the killing, about one block from where he, the witness was. Did not pass him, or walk with him. Had not seen him for ten days before that; then witness was on his horse in the street, and deceased passed by on the sidewalk. Said he saw and had a little talk with Harry J. Harlan about three-quarters of an hour before the killing, but that nothing was said at that time or in that conversation about his trouble with Long. He denied that he was sitting or hiding behind a roll of wire on a vacant lot early in the evening of the killing.

Witness said he went from the hardware store to Arch Craig's. The regular path leading to Mrs. Long's house is not across this vacant lot. After the shooting witness thought he came out of the pool room by himself. Does not know when Jake Alexander came out. He was very much excited at the time. He went to the stable and at once went to find Officer Pack. He found the officer about a block from the stable. Did not talk to any one until he saw Mr. Pack. His intention when witness got to stable was to go to 'Squire Rickett's office. Witness could not recall where he was at the exact time when he decided to give himself up.

The Attorney-General consulted with associate counsel for a few moments and then announced that he had finished the cross-examination.

Re-Direct Examination.
Witness was examined by G. T. Hughes. Witness said he got $150 from his mother to pay the expenses of his marriage and to take him to St. Louis. His mother knew what he wanted with the money. His wife frequently visited his mother while they lived in St. Louis. His wife also visited Mrs. John Frierson at Mt. Pleasant and his brother William in Nashville. His mother also visited his wife in St. Louis; so did his brother Robert.

Witness said he first went to Mrs. Frierson's before going to Mrs. Long's, because they could not get the room until a day or two later than they had expected. They spent a day or so at Mrs. Frierson's before they went to board at Mr. Long's.

Witness was asked about trouble with his wife about signing a paper. That was merely a misunderstanding and no trouble, he said. This was merely a release to her father of his guardianship.

Witness was in jail when his last child was born. He has been in jail since June 6 last.

Some further immaterial matter was gone over, and defendant's long searching examination was over and he was told to take his seat behind his counsel, and a recess was taken until 1:30.

WILL DEVELOP FINE OIL LANDS

COLUMBIA CITIZENS HAVE VALUABLE LANDS IN EASTERN TEXAS.

A tract of 200 acres of land lying about a mile from the town of Leary, and about ten miles west of Texarkana, in Bowie county, Texas, was recently sold by Mr. A. Maxville to a party of Tennessee capitalists. It is their purpose to develop the land by boring for oil and gas. An expert recently went over the ground and examined it thoroughly and pronounced it a first class oil and gas field. It has been a general belief that both oil and gas would be found near Texarkana, as all the indications point to it and Texarkana is directly in the line of the oil and gas belt extending from Oklahoma to the Gulf and including the Caddo fields forty miles south of this city, and the Jennings, La., and the Beaumont, Texas, fields, near the gulf coast.

The gentlemen who have been interested in the proposition by Mr. Maxville have organized a company which has been chartered under the laws of State of Tennessee. The charter will be placed on record in Bowie county.

The officers of the company are as follows:

- President, Will Barker.
- Secretary and Treasurer, Louis Loeb.
- Manager, A. Maxville.
- Attorney, W. J. Towler.

These gentlemen with the exception of Mr. Maxville, are all residents of Columbia, Tenn.

The development of the land will begin at once.—Texarkana Daily Texarkanian.

"BUD" PHILLIPS NOT COMING BACK

GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA HOLDS PHILLIPS FOR TRIAL IN THAT STATE.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Aug. 26.—Gov. Haskell has declined to honor the request of the Governor of Tennessee for the extradition of "Bud" Phillips, wanted in Maury County, Tennessee, for first-degree murder committed ten years ago. Phillips is wanted for trial in Comanche County for an accessory to a murder alleged to have been committed by his brother, who afterwards committed suicide. He will be turned over to the Comanche County authorities for trial. Judge Parmenter of Lawton appeared on behalf of the Tennessee Governor. Tennessee officers came here after Phillips about a week ago, and have been waiting for requisition papers, which Gov. Haskell has turned down.

Deputy Timmons has not reached home from Oklahoma, where he went for Phillips. Both the Sheriff of Oklahoma and the Attorney General of the Circuit wrote Sheriff Webb to send for Phillips or an officer would not have made the expensive trip.

AMERICAN FLEET LEAVES SYDNEY

THOUSANDS WILL BID IT GOOD BYE TODAY—MOST ENJOYABLE STAY.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Thursday, Aug. 27.—The fleet of American battleships sailed from this port this morning bound for Melbourne. The sky was cloudless, the sun was warm, and only a moderate sea was running. At 8 a. m. the flagship Connecticut weighed anchor and led the warships in single line out past the sloping shores of the harbor, which were crowded with thousands of persons who had gathered to bid the fleet farewell. The Connecticut cleared the heads at 8:40, and the last battleship some twenty minutes later. Then followed the Glacier, the Panther and the Ajax. A mile outside they turned to the south and at a speed of ten knots soon disappeared.

LABOR LEADERS WORK FOR BRYAN

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE HELD BY GOMPERS, CHAIRMAN MACK AND OTHERS.

PLANS FOR AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Bureaus Will Be Established in All of The Large Cities.—To Furnish Speakers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Union labor's position in the Democratic National campaign, and the plans that have been formulated by officers of the American Federation of Labor to swing the labor vote to William J. Bryan, were subject matters of a series of conferences tonight between National Chairman Norman E. Mack and Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor; Secretary Morrison, of the Federation, and President McConnell, of the Machinists' Union. Chairman Mack announced before his departure for New York at midnight that he had approved the plans devised by Mr. Gompers and his associates to aid in Mr. Bryan's election, and that within a few days he would announce the Chairmen of the various labor bureaus which will be established in several of the larger cities and conducted under the general direction of the National Committee and the American Federation of Labor.

"The Democratic National Committee will receive the co-operation of the American Federation of Labor in every way," said Mr. Mack, "and Mr. Gompers tonight submitted to me the plans which have been formulated to effect an active campaign in the labor world in the interest of Democracy. These plans I regard as highly satisfactory, and they will be adopted. The plans provide for the establishment of labor bureaus in several labor centers with a central labor bureau in Chicago at the Democratic headquarters. The National Committee will appoint only members of the American Federation as heads of these bureaus, and Mr. Gompers has given me a list of names of those who would be regarded as acceptable to the Federation.

"Plans for sending out labor literature were talked over, and the National Committee will furnish dates for labor speakers."

Congressman Frank Clark, of Florida, Secretary of the Democratic Congressional Committee, called on Mr. Mack and talked over the Congressional situation.

Chairman Mack will organize the headquarters in New York tomorrow, and the middle of next week will return to Chicago.

GLASGOW, Ky., Aug. 26.—Jesse Coe, negro desperado, who, with George Williams, colored, killed Policemen Pittcock and Russell, in Indianapolis, Sept. 30, 1906, and who had been sought ever since, was shot and killed on the Cumberland river in Monroe county yesterday by Sheriff Bryant and a posse.

Claud Andrews, another negro, was with Coe, and they were squirrel hunting. Coe was raising his gun on a squirrel, when the officers appeared. He started to fire on them, and Bryant dropped him.

HARMONY FOR STATE G. O. P.

PROPOSED CONFERENCE OF HITCHCOCK AND BROWNLOW AT BRISTOL.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Frank H. Hitchcock, Republican National Chairman, will visit this section in a few weeks, to have a conference with Congressman Brownlow and his leaders, with a view to harmonizing the party in Tennessee. He will go from here to Chattanooga to see Clay Evans and Newell Sanders. Brownlow's leaders say that since the other faction refused a gubernatorial primary, they will make no peace proposals whatever and are willing to "fight it out." In fact, the majority of them are opposed to having anything whatever to do with the other side, and favor putting out two sets of candidates for every office in the State.

THIRTY PERISH IN BURNING MINE

AWFUL DISASTER OCCURS NEAR HAILEYVILLE IN NEW STATE OF OKLAHOMA.

EXPLOSION ENTOMBS THE MEN

Cut Off From Rescue by The Fierce Flames.—Barrel of Oil Explodes, Cause.

McALESTER, Okla., Aug. 26.—One of the worst mine disasters in the history of this part of the Southwest occurred at Haileyville, fifteen miles east of here, today, when between twenty-five and thirty miners were entombed in the Hailey-Ola coal mine No. 1, the result of a fierce fire which, it is believed, has shut off all means of escape. The men are all in the lower part of the mine. At noon a telephone message from the scene stated the fire was burning so fiercely that it was impossible for rescuers to enter the shaft, and it was then believed the entombed men must surely be burned to death. All of the miners are foreigners.

The fire is said to have started at 8:30 o'clock this morning, soon after the day shift went to work. It appears that a barrel of oil caught fire and later exploded, spreading oil in all directions. The fire spread with such rapidity that the miners on the lower tiers were unable to reach the shaft and all escape was cut off.

The mine is owned by Dr. D. B. Hailey, of McAlester, and is one of the biggest mining properties in the State.

Soon after the fate of the entombed men became generally known crowds of wildly excited women and children, relatives of the unfortunate men, appeared at the mouth of the shaft. Their grief was pitiable, and their fruitless cries for the entombed miners added much to the confusion. Those who were able to reach the surface were greeted with shouts of joy. The officials of the company, aided by the mine bosses and others, immediately set to work to rescue the men still in the mine. It was soon apparent, however, that no one could enter the mine, as volumes of smoke began to pour from the openings.

SALOONS SHOW A BIG DECREASE

THERE ARE NEARLY 10,000 LESS IN THE COUNTRY THAN YEAR BEFORE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The monthly statement of the collection of internal revenue shows that the total for July, 1908, was $22,029,316, which is a falling off of $2,899,508 as compared with July, 1907. By far the larger part of this decrease is in the collections from spirits. The most noteworthy decrease is in the receipts from the retail liquor dealers' special tax, which amounts to $216,149. This indicates that $646 retail liquor dealers went out of business during the month of July, which is said to be largely due to the prohibition agitation in the various States.

YOUTH HAS GONE CRAZY AS LOON

BOY WHO, WITHOUT REASON, SHOT NEGRO AT SELMA, ALA., IN A BAD WAY.

SELMA, Ala., Aug. 21.—Martin Partin, the 14-year-old white boy who, without rhyme or reason, shot and badly wounded Peter Davis, a well known colored citizen, has gone stark mad since his arrest. He jabbers like a monkey and tears his garments in two. He does not recognize his nearest relatives. It is thought his mind became affected by reading of the Springfield riots, and this caused him to shoot the negro.
