

PERSONAL MENTION

H. P. Figgers is in Nashville today on legal business.

E. P. Hickman, postmaster at Puckett, was in Columbia today.

Prof. W. G. Klingman went to Nashville this morning and will return Saturday night.

Miss Lillian Fisher, of Mississippi, will arrive Monday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parker.

J. B. Garner has returned from Hohenwald where he has been during the past week in attendance on court.

Tom McLean spent Sunday night with his father, J. L. McLean, who has been right sick.—Lawrence Democrat.

Miss Clara Moore, teacher of the second grade in the public school returns to her home in Columbia this week. Miss Moore is a very lovable girl and has made many friends both in school and out.—Lawrence Democrat.

Mrs. J. W. Love the past three weeks, have taken rooms with Mrs. W. B. Cobbin on West Seventh street.

A cablegram was received here by A. M. Cochran Tuesday from W. S. Beasley to the effect that W. S. Beasley and his bride had reached Havana on their honeymoon trip.

H. E. Ritter spent Wednesday in Nashville on business.

Miss Kate Scott, of Birmingham, Ala., is visiting relatives here.

Misses Tessie and Sara Samuels are in Nashville today and will see the Spring Maid.

T. H. Williams, who has been in Florida three weeks or more, returned home Wednesday, after a delightful stay on the coast.

Rev. B. J. Reagin, pastor of the Edgefield Cumberland Presbyterian church at Nashville, is in Columbia today enroute to Lawrenceburg, where he formerly had a charge.

Hamilton Cultivator

Car just arrived, anything you want, walking or riding; either disc or shovel. Always the best. B. A. SATERFIELD & CO. d22/29/w2t

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Miss Bessie Frank White. The remains of Miss Bessie Frank White arrived Thursday night from Monrovia, Calif., and were carried at once to the home of her grandfather, A. W. McDonald, on the Campbellsville pike.

W. J. Overton. W. J. (Pet) Overton died at Los Angeles, Calif., Thursday afternoon, where he has been for some time with a hope of regaining his health: He was a son of the late W. I. Overton, and his mother and four sisters survive him.

Monroe Cox.

Monroe Cox died at his home last night two miles from Hampshire, after an illness of some duration. He was a man of family and was esteemed in the community, being a good citizen. The funeral arrangements had not been announced today at noon.

A. J. Baxter.

A. J. Baxter died at his home in the Kettle Mills Community aged sixty-nine years old. He was a good citizen and is survived by a large family of children, his wife having preceded him to the grave about twenty-five years.

Mildred Hayden Harris.

The two year old daughter of Mrs. Nannie May Harris died Tuesday, February 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dean on Embargo street. The funeral was conducted by Dr. W. T. Haggard at 2 p. m. Interment followed at Rose Hill cemetery.

AROUND TOWN.

Misses Rosie Lee and Mary Dickinson Ashworth, of Nashville, are the attractive guests of Misses Sadie and Louise Clawson at their country home on the Mt. Pleasant pike.

James Andrews was in Nashville Tuesday.

Miss Fletcher Fariss has returned from an extended visit to Texas and Oklahoma.

W. G. Mayberry and Miss Ida Mayberry left this morning for Zellwood, Florida, for a month's visit to Mrs. Morton.

Charles A. Wright and John A. Dixon, big mule buyers, have gone to Indiana and Missouri to buy a load of young mules.

Mrs. H. E. Dawson and Mrs. J. W. Walker, of Williamsport, are attending the sessions of the Women's Missionary conference at Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos M. Warfield, who have been the guests of Mr. and

J. E. LOFTIN HAS HIS FOOT CRUSHED

J. E. Loftin, a young man who works at the McNeal Marble Works, had his foot badly mashed while at his duty there Wednesday afternoon, by the fall of a heavy stone on it.

A physician was called and his foot was dressed, and he was carried to his home in South Columbia.

Maury Dry Goods Company

A TAILORED suit or coat will not long keep its shape if it is not made from reliable fabrics, which have been properly handled in every process of manufacture from the raw material to the complete garment.

We emphasize, therefore, the fact that our "ready-to-wear" stocks all come from manufacturers who use none but thoroughly dependable materials.

The serges, tweeds and other cloths used are all of excellent quality and every garment will hold its shape and graceful appearance as long as you wear it.

The linings in all our suits and coats are also guaranteed to give long and satisfactory service.

Ladies Skirts

A shirt waist suit is always convenient, appropriate and attractive. We have the Skirts. Our line is complete and at prices that will be most attractive.

Ready-to-Wear Dresses

In navy, blues, tans, greys, mixtures, small stripes in serges.

Our Spring Wraps

Never have we had a larger assortment or more beautiful line of spring wraps. We have them in silks, Bedford cord and fine mohair.

New Wash Fabrics

An unusual bargain, our 32 inch French gingham, beautiful line of colors in plaids and stripes, worth 25c per yard, for 15c

Best Red Seal Gingham, per yard 12 1/2c

Utility, the best ten cent gingham on the market, a dime a yard.

Something new in a fancy wash dress goods, our fancy bouclé voile, all shades, 25c a yard

New Penangs and Percates for Men's Shirts and Ladies' House Dresses, 10c and 12 1/2c per yard.

Sampson's Galatea for Children's Dresses and Ladies' Skirts.

Our White Goods Department

Is complete in every respect. The line is especially attractive and the ladies can prepare all spring sewing while the weather is cool and avoid work in the long hot days.

Special for Saturday and Monday Only for Cash

Boys Knee Pant Suits, sizes 8 to 17. $3.50 and $4 Suits, $2.98; $5 Suits, $3.98; $6 and $6.50 Suits, $4.48; $7.50 Suits, for $5.48

YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT OUR STORE.

SOCIETY.

Leap Year Party at Mt. Pleasant. The young ladies of the town entertained last Friday night with a Leap Year Party complimentary to the visiting young ladies. Frappe and sandwiches were served.

Rook and cards were enjoyed until 10:30 o'clock when the young folks started to dancing. The rooms were decorated with red hearts and the score cards were little red hearts tied with red ribbon. The visiting girls were Misses Gill, of Kentucky; Miss Tucker, of Columbia; Miss Sowell, of Santa Fe, and Miss Frances Craige, of Williamsport.

Music was furnished by Prof. Haskell and Miss Louise Cherry, of Columbia.—Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Cocke Entertain.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Sunset Cocke entertained a crowd of young people. The object of the afternoon was to give prizes to the tuckiest young man and young lady. The fortunate ones were Miss Lera Ussey, who received a fine box of stationery, and Mr. Hutcheson.

There were present Misses Lillian Bates, Edna Bates, Alma Ware, Lera Ussey, Brownie Dowell, Mabel Cocke, Ethel Shaw, Mary Ried, and Willie Ware, Mr. Hutcheson, and Parls Mitchell Davies and several young men from Mt. Pleasant. The evening was a very pleasant one for the entire crowd of young folks, which will long be remembered.

Linen Shower for Miss McKay.

Mrs. Wallace Sellers was the hostess last Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 with a beautifully planned linen shower for Miss Jane McKay at Carters Creek, Tenn., whose wedding will take place Thursday, February 22, to Herschel Hardison. The decorations were ferns and red carnations, red hearts being mingled among the decorations, added to the attraction of the rooms Mrs. Sellers was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. A. Beall, of Carters Creek; Miss Annie Lou McKay, of Fayetteville; Miss Mary Pettus, of Nashville, kept the register.

Mrs. Sellers was dressed in blue mesaline; Mrs. Beall in lingerie; Miss McKay in blue marquisette, and Miss Pettus in lavender crepe de chene.

A salad course was served; the Valentine idea was carried out in the refreshments. The little favors for the guests were dainty heart shaped cards. A novel idea was carried out in the distribution of the presents. A shrill whistle announced the postman had arrived with a sack well filled with packages for the bride.

Music was one of the enjoyable features of the evening.

Bryan-Manning.

The marriage of Miss Veronica Manning and I. P. O'Bryan, of Owensboro, Ky., occurred at the residence of the bride's parents at St. Joseph, Ky., Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. They left at once for Columbia, arriving here at 10:27 last night, and are now the guests of the brother of the groom, Dr. M. E. O'Bryan, on North High street, where they will be several days.

Hardison-McKay.

The marriage of Miss Jane McKay and H. H. Hardison took place Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cam McKay, near Carters Creek. The groom is a son of Dr. T. J. Hardison, of Jamison's store, and is one of the most prominent men of that section. His bride is the daughter of Mr. Cam McKay, a farmer and phosphate contractor, and is one of the most amiable young ladies of the county.

Washington Entertainment.

The Kindergarten and primary department of the Columbia Institute will have a Washington entertainment tomorrow, Thursday, morning, February 22, 1912, at 11 o'clock, in the Kindergarten rooms under the direction of Mrs. Mary Hine and Miss Pauline Journey.

Entertained Visitors.

Mrs. W. P. Erwin gave a bridge party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Eba Lillard and Miss Gertrude Douglass, of Murfreesboro, who are the guests of Mrs. E. E. Erwin, and Miss Sue Todd Walker. There were three tables and Miss Mittie Elam was the winner of the highest score.

Fancy Work Circle.

Mrs. James Andrews entertained

SECOND WEEK INVENTORY SALE

BOGATZKY & BAUMAN MUCH PLEASSED WITH THE PATRONAGE.

The twenty day inventory sale of Bogatzky & Bauman is proving a big success in every particular, and is now nearing the close of its second week. The roomy quarters at the new location has been a great assistance in handling the increased patronage on account of the sale, and has added much to the comfort of the patrons. This sale is to continue until Monday, March 4 (the first Monday in March). During the fine weather of last week and the early part of this week the trade was of the most satisfactory nature, and even during the severe weather since the change the trade has been exceptionally good.

BERKSHIRE MEN CALLED TO MEET

FOR PURPOSE OF ORGANIZING ASSOCIATION AND PLANNING FOR SALE.

The Registered Berkshire hog breeders are called to meet in the county court room in Columbia Monday, March 4, for the purpose of organizing a Berkshire Breeders Association in the county and also for the purpose of looking to the holding of a Berkshire sale in Columbia within the near future. All breeders of this class of swine are urged to attend the meeting and help in making the effort a success.

Subscribe For The Herald.

OUR deposits today are just fifty-one per cent. more than they were a year ago today. Doesn't that say something for safety, service and satisfaction.

Columbia Bank & Trust Co.