Mrs. E. C. Terrell and Mrs. V. B. Hayes received news last week to the effect that their mother, Mrs. Hardison at Paris, had fallen and broken her shoulder, and both left at once for Paris. Mrs. Hardison is quite old and it was thought her injuries might prove serious, but word received from Paris indicates that she is improving rapidly.

Cotton men are agreed that the little shower that hit this section Tuesday will be more of a benefit than a detriment to unpicked cotton. The roads will also be improved as in the sandy land the sand has gotten so deep as to make hauling loads almost impossible.

as to make hauling loads almost impossible.

CAREFULNESS A FIRST DUTY

IN the selection of candies use extreme care, for adulterated and chemically dyed sweets cause much ill health. Accompanying the extensive stock of drugs and other medical supplies in this store you will find an assortment of truly delicious candies warranted to be pure and wholesome. Fit for children as well as grownups. In moderation they will be found to be actually beneficial. Our cigars will gratify you.

COTTON ON THE BOOM

Cotton has been on the boom this week, and competition among buyers of bales went as high as $12.60. Over a hundred bales were sold on the streets Wednesday, and the lowest price paid was $12.15, while several bales went as high as $12.60. Cotton has commenced to come in pretty fast, but fast enough to suit the buyers.

TOM WELLS IN TOILS OF LAW.

Tom Wells of Benfic was arrested Saturday night by Sheriff Phillips and placed in the county jail, charged with violation of the prohibition law. Up until noon he had been unable to make bond. He is charged in two cases, which were returned through a court of inquiry.
