

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

ITEMS FROM CADE

Miss Gladys Christholm of Georgia is visiting this week with her mother Mrs. W. A. Cariker. Mr. W. M. Duty had some old friends and neighbors to surprise him with a visit Sunday. A Mr. Winchester, and Nephew and Mr. Anderson of Soper. Rev. C. L. Hoover is making wrap up this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hughes spent the week-end at A. G. Morgan's. Mrs. Martindale of West Texas is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Hoover. Mrs. Bryant Jones is taking her vacation in Texas. School began Monday at Timber Hill. The thresher will be through here this week. Some oats are good, and some very sorry. Elijah Duty made a business trip to Durant Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Old Church and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols visited at B. F. Caldwell's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Morris are taking their vacation. J. W. Briggs, Loff Olsen, Benny Scott and Chas. Boydston attended a F. L. F. picnic in Bokchito Saturday. Mrs. E. T. Dobson visited with Mrs. Bud Taylor in Bennington this week. Author Reed of Hugo visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reed the week-end.

ITEMS FROM FRENEY CHAPEL

Some few are through threshing in this community. There was several attended singing Saturday night. Quarterly Conference meets at Freney Chapel next Friday night. Every member is expected to be present. Prayer meeting was well attended Sunday night. There was no Sunday School at the Chapel Sunday morning. Several from around here have been attending the protracted meeting at Post Oak last week. We are erecting a new brick school building in our community. The men are progressing rapidly on it and will have it ready to fill our regular class at the end of August. Miss Pearl Mitchell was visiting her grandparents last week.

ITEMS FROM BLUE BEN

Church was well attended Sunday night at Elm View. Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson visited home folks Saturday night. Mrs. Adell Bellamy visited her sister, Mrs. Jewel Loyd Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hank attended church at Roberta Saturday night. Some of the people of this community attended the picnic at Bokchito last week. W. L. Norton was visited by relatives the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brooks are the proud parents of a fine baby boy. Jim McManus returned home from Marshall County Saturday. Miss Lilla Renfro visited home folks Saturday night and Sunday. W. E. Lottis and family are visiting relatives at this place.

ITEMS FROM PIRTLE

The farmers of this vicinity are about through with their crops. The sound of the old threshing machine can still be heard. Brother Green, the new Nazarine preacher, preached a nice sermon at Pirtle Sunday. D. M. Bonner and Tom Ballard attended the picnic at Bokchito Saturday. G. F. Rose and C. W. Rose and son and R. W. Hayes were shopping in Durant Saturday. A number of people of Pirtle have been attending preaching at Blue. Mrs. Hill of Talonah has been visiting friends in Pirtle. Alfred Rose who has been quite sick is some better at this writing. Grandma Hayes, who has been sick for some time is reported some better at this writing. G. W. Hayes attended preaching at Elm View Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hud on and family spent Sunday with relatives and friends near Caddo. Mrs. Viola Linley and son of Blue spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. G. F. Rose. Mr. J. W. Briggs is visiting relatives near Wilburton this week. D. M. Bonner and family attended preaching at Elm View Sunday. Mr. Girtle of Roberta made a business trip to D. M. Bonner's Saturday.

ITEMS FROM DOWNING CHAPEL

There was a farmers' union picnic at the Chapel July 28th. They had a basket dinner. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Combs are visiting his father in Caddo hills. Ralph Hubbard is here from Arkansas visiting friends. Miss Hazel Bryan has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Sarah at Stone-wall. Mrs. Jessie Nail of Nell's Crossing visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon the week-end. The Baptist revival, conducted by Brother Spire, closed Sunday. There were only three conversions. Chas. Daniel returned Wednesday from Atoka. Howard Tate was in Caney Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Battles left Monday for Arkansas to visit their daughter, Mrs. Walter Simmons. Miss Mae Tate has returned to Oklahoma City after a visit with her brother. Brother Mills will preach here Sunday at 11 o'clock.

ITEMS FROM KEMP

(Too late for last week.) The Christian people of Kemp are having a revival meeting. It is being conducted by Rev. Ashley. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan of Kemp are remodeling their home. Misses Ena Elrod, Grace Sears and Julia Carnes have returned home from the normal. Ben Ogden from Durant is visiting his parents. Miss Florine Lydie of Fort Worth is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Johns. Miss Nell Ogden is at home after a week's visit in Durant. Then Conner is still engaged in the happy business of running his Ford. Grady Ogden is at home after a long visit with relatives in different points in Texas. Mr. Joe Nichols is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan have been selected to teach another term of school.

ITEMS FROM BUFFALO

Willie Dollins is on the sick list this week. Tommie Cable visited his sister, Mrs. Parham near Post Oak Saturday and Sunday. A large crowd from Buffalo visited the Hollins meeting at Post Oak Sunday night. Rachel Sullivan visited her grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Sullivan Wednesday. Ace Works who has been working in the harvest fields of Kansas has returned home. Mrs. Works' father from Louisiana has been visiting relatives here the last two weeks. Dee Smith visited Pritchard Wednesday. Thermo Linley from Rock Springs visited Forrest Sullivan Sunday night. Mr. Self visited Mr. Jimmie Washburn Sunday. Frank and Hance Dollins from Pritchard visited their cousin Elma and Wendle Dollins. Mrs. Myrtle Jones visited her mother, Mrs. Mattie Smith Sunday.

ITEMS FROM MIDWAY

We are having lots of hot weather which is a great help to cotton. Walter Boyd returned home after a two months trip to Sulphur Springs Ark. for his health. Mr. and Mrs. Granville Moman are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy, mother and baby doing fine. Miss Ruthie Ballard of Armstrong was visiting Misses Carrie and Nita Cheevers Sunday. Vile and Victor Graham were in Caddo Saturday. C. F. Cheevers and Frank Boyd went to Bokchito Saturday on business. Singing was a grand success Sunday night. Misses Carrie and Nita Cheevers were in Durant Saturday shopping. Miss Katie Bell Graham visited her brother, Saturday night and Sunday. There was quite a crowd out for Sunday school Sunday afternoon. The farmers of this community are pretty busy hauling in their oats the last few days. Brother Green from Durant will preach here the second Sunday in August. Vile Graham was in Durant Monday on business.

ITEMS FROM OLD ALLISON

The school opened with a fairly good attendance on July 26. There will be many more to enter later. Threshing is gone and most of the farmers have sold their grain at from 18 to 22 cents per bushel. Hauling and hauling hay are now in full swing. Most of the hay is being stored; as the market is very poor. Mrs. Berryman is improving rapidly. She was able to sit up a few minutes Monday. Prof. Shirley is teaching some of the ninth grade studies to the eighth grade pupils. Earl Ward attended preaching at Roberta Sunday night. Mrs. King's children have all gotten well and are going to school. Mrs. Campbell has had visitors from Achille. Mrs. Eva Garrett of Roswell passed through on her way to Achille Friday.

ITEMS FROM BLUE

Threshing is almost over in this vicinity. Dr. Alder is on the sick list this week. Mrs. W. B. Corley and children are visiting relatives in Texas. Burris and Blue ball teams played a game of ball Sunday evening. The score being 6 to 7 in favor of Burris. A crowd of young people from Hatcher attended church here Sunday night. Misses Allie and Myrtle Corley of Dallas, Texas are visiting relatives here. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brooks who are staying with Mrs. Brooks' mother, July 28.

ITEMS FROM BENNINGTON

Mrs. Lee of Vallant visited her son, L. L. Lee last week. His sister Mrs. Dawson of Weatherford spent two days here and returned home Sunday. Miss Junia Lewis of Durant is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Morris Smith. Mrs. Lambkin who has been real sick is improving. The Presbyterian meeting being held under the Tabernacle will close Wednesday night and the Christians will start their revival Thursday night. Today there has been several professions and about eight ac-cessions to the Presbyterian and one to the M. E. Church. The church has been revived and all who heard Bro. Hatchkin cannot but be inspired to lead a better life. Rev. C. J. Ralston was here over Sunday and Monday and assisted in the meeting. Mrs. M. W. LeFlore of Kiowa is visiting Mrs. M. S. Smith. Mrs. LeFlore has been in the mountains near Anders where Mr. LeFlore is camping on his ranch. The picnic given to the Boosters Tuesday who have been so faithful during the meeting, was a grand success. About 75 children and 25 older people were taken in cars to Sulphur swimming and wading were the order of the day and even to the smallest enjoyed it. A grand dinner, including watermelon was served. They gave a program at the tabernacle Tuesday night, consisting of yells and songs.

ITEMS FROM PLATTER

Antone Matz visited friends in Platter Sunday. Mrs. Dick Smith and children of Colbert visited relatives in Platter Saturday and Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Author Davis on Saturday a fine baby boy. Mrs. T. H. Lee is very ill at this writing. A crowd of young folks from here attended church at Finchtown Thursday night. Dick Owens is on the sick list this week, but is reported better. The doctor said he had a slight attack of typhoid fever. Quite a number from here attended the Calera picnic Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Davis are the proud parents of a baby girl. Mr. and Mrs. John Washer visited their son, Melvin Washer here Friday and Saturday.

ITEMS FROM MEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Scott visited friends in Aylesworth Sunday. Death stalked into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Murphree and claimed their baby daughter, Melba Louise

ITEMS FROM MATOY

The cotton outlook is a little better since the past week of dry hot weather. Mrs. Hazel Gardner of Banty is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nickles. T. P. Lane and family of Eufaula visited A. P. Tidwell of this place Saturday and Sunday. They went from here to Cade to visit Mr. George Moffitt. F. M. Tidwell, Mack and Jesse Cummings, Clarence Tittat and some few others from here attended the big day at Bokchito Saturday. They report a fine time. Elton Tillet returned from Texas where he has been for the past few weeks. He says there is no place like home. Mrs. Pearl Gray who has been attending Normal returned home the last of the week. She will begin a school near Durant Monday. They will move there in the near future. Our protracted meeting will begin here Friday, the 5th. Let every body prepare to attend and let us expect a good time. The Ladies' Aid will sell ice cream Saturday at this place. Will Gray, Sr. took a load of chickens to Caddo Monday.

ITEMS FROM MATOY

The cotton outlook is a little better since the past week of dry hot weather. Mrs. Hazel Gardner of Banty is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nickles. T. P. Lane and family of Eufaula visited A. P. Tidwell of this place Saturday and Sunday. They went from here to Cade to visit Mr. George Moffitt. F. M. Tidwell, Mack and Jesse Cummings, Clarence Tittat and some few others from here attended the big day at Bokchito Saturday. They report a fine time. Elton Tillet returned from Texas where he has been for the past few weeks. He says there is no place like home. Mrs. Pearl Gray who has been attending Normal returned home the last of the week. She will begin a school near Durant Monday. They will move there in the near future. Our protracted meeting will begin here Friday, the 5th. Let every body prepare to attend and let us expect a good time. The Ladies' Aid will sell ice cream Saturday at this place. Will Gray, Sr. took a load of chickens to Caddo Monday.

ITEMS FROM MATOY

The cotton outlook is a little better since the past week of dry hot weather. Mrs. Hazel Gardner of Banty is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nickles. T. P. Lane and family of Eufaula visited A. P. Tidwell of this place Saturday and Sunday. They went from here to Cade to visit Mr. George Moffitt. F. M. Tidwell, Mack and Jesse Cummings, Clarence Tittat and some few others from here attended the big day at Bokchito Saturday. They report a fine time. Elton Tillet returned from Texas where he has been for the past few weeks. He says there is no place like home. Mrs. Pearl Gray who has been attending Normal returned home the last of the week. She will begin a school near Durant Monday. They will move there in the near future. Our protracted meeting will begin here Friday, the 5th. Let every body prepare to attend and let us expect a good time. The Ladies' Aid will sell ice cream Saturday at this place. Will Gray, Sr. took a load of chickens to Caddo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lex James spent Sunday in Platter with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Rains. Mulberry and Platter had a game of ball Sunday afternoon, the score being 14 to 9 in favor of Platter. Miss Gladys Fisher visited relatives in Madill this week. School started Monday with a large attendance. Miss Rogers enrolled 30 and Mrs. Underwood 20. Mrs. Lee is reported quite ill. It was first thought it was an attack of appendicitis, but later indications proved it a mistake. Miss Lilla Banty of Durant was a visitor here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood returned Saturday afternoon to resume their school work Monday morning. Mrs. Reeves was called to Hugo Monday to attend the funeral of her nephew, Julius Finch. The news quite a shock as she did not know of his illness. He died of appendicitis Sunday evening in the Paris sanitarium. Mrs. Edd Love is in very poor health and it is feared an operation is going to be necessary. Little Louis Halvira of Madill is with her grandmother this week. Will Stewart of Atoka visited friends here Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Owens has been quite ill this week. Ruth Wood spent last week-end at home. Mrs. Joe Ann Abley of Wichita Falls, Texas spent last week with her father, J. R. Wood. A little girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Davis last Thursday and has decided to make it her home. Miss Juanita Rogers returned Sunday evening from Commerce, Texas via Denison. Mr. Bishop is the new teacher employed for the ensuing term. We wish him much success. Carol Anderson is among the sick this week. Thelma Childress is spending her months vacation at home. She will return to Durant to resume her school work when the fall term begins. Mon Stewart, who has been away for the past few months, is spending the week with friends here. Mrs. S. W. Raines is on the sick list this week. Mr. and Mrs. James of Fulsom visited her mother and father Sunday.

The rains were laid to rest in the Mead Cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community. On account of the rain the men working with the thresher came in Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Warren of Durant were visiting here Thursday. Mrs. W. R. Davis visited the bedside of her granddaughter, at the Sherman hospital last week. Jim Yarbrough happened to a very serious accident last Thursday afternoon by falling on a picket fence and breaking a rib. He is doing nicely now. We are all glad to see Pearl Beal able to be up again. Inez Trout is numbered with the sick this week. Little Mildred Davis of Durant is spending the week with her grandmother. Mr. Jack Pierce is on the sick list this week. The Bell Telephone men are doing some repair work through here now. Mr. and Mrs. Clive Templeton visited friends in Durant Friday. John Raines of Calera visited here Thursday. Miss Tula Richardson of Calera is visiting her sister Mrs. O. J. Adcock, Sr. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lindsay of Durant was here Sunday.

ITEMS FROM SILO

Luella Harris of Durant has been visiting Mrs. J. T. Harrison. Several of the Silo folks attended church at Brown Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. James of Fulsom Grove were visiting in Silo Saturday. Mrs. Joe T. Robinson was on the sick list last week. Mrs. Agnes MacDuffy preached here Sunday morning. The lecture which was given by G. F. Deck of Durant at 3:00 p.m. day afternoon was attended by large crowd. His subject was "Shine and Shadow." Music was furnished by an orchestra. Spurgeon Bishop of Carlton, Texas spent Sunday with home folks. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hampton and daughter, Marie and Mrs. Eva O. of Durant attended church here Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Coon of Durant was in Silo Monday night. Hattie Tucker of Ft. Washita spending the week with her brother, Rev. J. E. Tucker. Maggie Nicholson spent last week with her brother, T. C. Nichols at Brown. J. M. Baker of Lone Oak moved to Silo Monday to take up his school work. E. W. Talley and wife were visiting in Durant Sunday. Prof. M. E. Bishop left here Sunday for Platter where he will be teaching. School started Monday, August 1st with 85 pupils enrolled.

RETURNED FROM ARKANSAS

Obe Shannon and family have returned from a two week's visit Arkansas, where they made the trip in cars and camped out where fishing was good. They report splendid time.

Not Too Late To Buy These Splendid Values In Voile And Organdy Piece Goods

45-inch Swiss Organdy in Rose, Blue, Lavender and other colors worth $1.95, our close-out price is only per yard 98c. These wide Voiles represent values you have not seen this Season. Priced at even less than half, ranging from 19c to 5c. One big Lot of pretty Lace and narrow Embroidery, priced at only 5c. One Lot Wool Serge in Black and Colors 40 inches wide, same quality that sold last season for $1.95, priced now at only 89c. Better buy now as to wait. Also see these bargains in Remnants.

LADIES' SUMMER DRESSES REDUCED

We have quite a few Dresses in Organdy and Voile materials made up in good style, priced while they last at only $3.95. One big rack of fine Voile and Dotted Organdy— Dress values to $19.50, priced now at $9.85. Dress values to $29.50, priced now at $11.85. Polly Anna Underwear at bargain prices. Made from splendid quality Long Cloths and Wash Silks, the only three-in-one garment that gives perfect satisfaction and comfort. Prices now are 98c, $1.45, $1.98 up to $3.78. Every Spring and Summer garment in the house is reduced almost half. Come in and price them.

LADIES' PUMPS AND OXFORDS AT $3.95

One big Lot Pumps and Oxfords out on table, fairly good run of sizes, mostly high heels, not a shoe in the lot originally marked less than $8.00 up to $12.50, you have your choice of the lot for only $3.95.

MEN— better get a pair of these good Oxfords at $1.95. For these hot days we suggest one of these soft collar Pongee Shirts in Tan or White, priced only $2.45 and $3.45.

Men's Straw Hats at REAL BARGAIN PRICES.

Jenkins Dry Goods Co. THE STORE FOR ALL THE PEOPLE. DURANT, OKLA.

Telephone 649 120 North Third