

Neighborhood NEWS

FROM MURRAY HILL.

Warner Edwards and Tommie Campbell made a business trip to Denison this day.

Quite a bunch of the young folk of this place attended church at Achille this week.

The Little Angel called at the home of Mr. Eddings' Thursday morning and took their little boy away.

A large crowd attended the pie supper at Murray Hill Saturday night and all enjoyed a nice time.

Quincy Sarratt of Dallas, Texas who has been visiting his uncle, W. H. Sarratt of this place, returned to his home in Dallas.

B. L. Cubies' folks have been on the sick list this week, but are improved now.

Miss Ollie Sarratt, Bill and W. H. Sarratt motored to Durant Thursday morning.

Everybody is fixing up for a nice time at the Achille picnic the 25th and 26th.

Mrs. D. P. Weemer is quite ill at this writing.

Miss Lena Bell Weemer was the guest of Miss Dossie Elliott Saturday night.

Mrs. J. H. McNabb of near Roberta was visiting her parents at Murray Hill Saturday night.

ITEMS FROM FRENEY

Threshing is still in full sway around here, as the rain knocked them out several days last week.

Several around here attended the F. L. U. picnic at Caddo Saturday and Saturday night.

Mrs. Gladys Sullivan of Chelsea, Okla., is visiting her sister-in-law here this week. Mrs. Monroe Nixon, Grady Harris took dinner with Ulysses Nixon Sunday.

The dance at Cecil Wright's Thursday night was attended by a large crowd.

Bro. Baker from Bokchito will preach here next Sunday morning. Everyone is invited to come.

Mrs. Storey has been on the sick list but is some better.

H. T. Nixon and son Paul was visiting in Platter Saturday and Sunday.

Singing was well attended Sunday night at Mr. G. E. Culpepper's. Everybody reported a nice time.

FROM ROBINSON

The rain that fell Wednesday delayed the threshers for a while.

Mrs. Gladys Prentice and children spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Arnold.

Michael Harley of Lehigh is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Cora Baxter.

Miss Janice Crockett of Caddo spent the weekend with her aunt Mrs. C. D. Robinson.

Miss Evelyn Baxter spent the weekend with Miss Sewell Barber in Caddo.

Little Eugene Copeland fell off of horse and broke his arm Saturday.

Miss Anna Hodde is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hibdon near Midway.

Mrs. George Tagwell and children are visiting her mother in Durant this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hadle spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gardner and family spent the weekend with Mrs. Mary Pierce.

Miss Susie Phergo returned home Wednesday after spending a few days with Mrs. Warner Adair.

R. C. Freency visited E. G. Baxter this week.

Mrs. Melvin Hall and daughter spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ben Smith.

Miss Blanch Pierce spent Thursday night with Miss Louise Arnold.

Miss Coline Thompson of Caddo spent Wednesday night with Miss Opal Baxter.

FROM OLD ALLISON

Mrs. Watts is here this week visiting around among neighbors and relatives.

Mrs. Donahue was among the Circle Indies here last week, also visiting prospective members.

Prof. Shirley and family were out a little while Monday morning.

Miss Odie Jordan spent the weekend with relatives.

Ray Ave is home in Saturday night and returned Sunday to the Twelve-Mile Prairie to thresh.

Jack Kelso was seen on the streets in Durant Saturday.

W. G. Murphy left last week for an extended visit among relatives in Texas.

Mrs. King spent Saturday last in Durant.

Raymond Spears and Clint Horton came in Saturday night and returned to the thresher Sunday.

Austin Chestnut and Othal and Glenlon King did not come home to spend Sunday.

Mr. Anders lost a yearling Saturday night supposed it got some of the dip Tuesday.

Mr. Beaubien's mare that he raised a week ago and placed in a swing is improving.

Mrs. Nettie May Chestnut is working in the Laundry in Durant. Miss Bell Beaupin is keeping house for her father.

Mr. Hobbs and Mr. Smithson made a business trip to Durant Saturday.

Mrs. Anders made a trip to the Twelve-Mile Prairie Saturday.

ITEMS FROM MEAD

The boll weevil seems to be quitting the cotton in this section of the country.

Rev. White began a meeting here Sunday evening. There will be services every morning at 10:30 o'clock and evening services at 8:00 o'clock. Everybody invited.

The members of the F. L. U. of A. entertained a great crowd from everywhere with a picnic here last Friday. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the Farmers Union picnic at Caddo Saturday.

In order to pay for the church organ there will be a pie supper here Saturday night.

Misses Alfred and Madge Phergo of Robinson attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Weaver is very ill at this writing.

Frank Losos and Ernest Freeman were the guests of Lillie and Gussie Sorrells Sunday afternoon.

W. C. and Myrtle Weaver attended the all day singing at Pleasant Hill Sunday.

ITEMS FROM PIRTE

On account of illness and so many being late there wasn't any Sunday School Sunday.

The big meeting which was going on here wasn't any success.

Miss Delta Cox returned home Saturday after spending a few days with sister here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hickman boy. Mother and baby doing nicely.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis fell Sunday and broke his arm.

A large crowd was over Friday evening hearing Miss Eva Loftis sing.

Quite a number of people from here visited Miss Zora Coler of Elm View who was operated on Thursday night for appendicitis. The reports say she is doing nicely.

Miss Emma McLain spent Sunday with friends at Durant.

Mrs. Lydia Risner is able to set up in a chair at this writing.

Grandma Stanford isn't any better at this writing.

Grandma Hayes' brother left Tuesday for his home after spending a few days here.

Ed Cooper made a business trip to Durant Monday.

Walter Hayes, L. A. Rose, G. F. Rose, W. M. Lindley made a business trip to Durant Saturday.

Mrs. Maud Rodman and daughter, Nellie from Tioga, Texas is visiting relatives here.

Pig Link has returned to his home after spending a few months in Tioga, Texas.

The tucky party was well attended at Nick Risner's Saturday night.

Mrs. Jimmie Green is quite sick at present.

Willie Green and family spent Sunday with relatives at Wade.

Mrs. Cora Hayes is on the sick list.

Mrs. Lottie Hudson and family spent Sunday with her sister near Blue.

E. N. Patterson made a business trip to Durant Friday.

Singing was well attended Sunday night at Mr. G. E. Culpepper's. Everybody reported a nice time.

FROM ROBINSON

The rain that fell Wednesday delayed the threshers for a while.

Mrs. Gladys Prentice and children spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. J. T. Arnold.

Michael Harley of Lehigh is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Cora Baxter.

Miss Janice Crockett of Caddo spent the weekend with her aunt Mrs. C. D. Robinson.

Miss Evelyn Baxter spent the weekend with Miss Sewell Barber in Caddo.

Little Eugene Copeland fell off of horse and broke his arm Saturday.

Earney Rider and John Andy Garner attended the ball game at Durant Tuesday evening between Dallas and Durant.

Quite a few of the Robertaites attended the picnic at the Smith-Lee farm Friday and Saturday. All reported a good time.

Sunday School was well attended Sunday.

County Supt. J. L. Cunningham of Duran visited relatives here Sunday.

Landa Thomas made a business trip to Durant Saturday.

Quite a number of the Roberta people have been attending the meeting at Wolf Creek.

Earney Rider and John Andy Garner attended the ball game at Durant Tuesday evening between Dallas and Durant.

Quite a few of the people here went to Durant Saturday night to hear Jack Walton, Mayor of Oklahoma City and Democratic candidate for Governor of Oklahoma speak.

Prof. Charley Lewis spent Sunday in Kieford Oklahoma.

Miss Sue Phergo returned home Wednesday after spending a few days with Mrs. Warner Adair.

R. C. Freency visited E. G. Baxter this week.

Mrs. Melvin Hall and daughter spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ben Smith.

Miss Blanch Pierce spent Thursday night with Miss Louise Arnold.

Miss Coline Thompson of Caddo spent Wednesday night with Miss Opal Baxter.

FROM OLD ALLISON

Mrs. Watts is here this week visiting around among neighbors and relatives.

Mrs. Donahue was among the Circle Indies here last week, also visiting prospective members.

Prof. Shirley and family were out a little while Monday morning.

Miss Odie Jordan spent the weekend with relatives.

Ray Ave is home in Saturday night and returned Sunday to the Twelve-Mile Prairie to thresh.

Jack Kelso was seen on the streets in Durant Saturday.

W. G. Murphy left last week for an extended visit among relatives in Texas.

Mrs. King spent Saturday last in Durant.

Raymond Spears and Clint Horton came in Saturday night and returned to the thresher Sunday.

Austin Chestnut and Othal and Glenlon King did not come home to spend Sunday.

Mr. Anders lost a yearling Saturday night supposed it got some of the dip Tuesday.

Mr. Beaubien's mare that he raised a week ago and placed in a swing is improving.

Mrs. Nettie May Chestnut is working in the Laundry in Durant. Miss Bell Beaupin is keeping house for her father.

Mr. Hobbs and Mr. Smithson made a business trip to Durant Saturday.

Mrs. Anders made a trip to the Twelve-Mile Prairie Saturday.

ITEMS FROM MEAD

The boll weevil seems to be quitting the cotton in this section of the country.

Rev. White began a meeting here Sunday evening. There will be services every morning at 10:30 o'clock and evening services at 8:00 o'clock. Everybody invited.

The members of the F. L. U. of A. entertained a great crowd from everywhere with a picnic here last Friday. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the Farmers Union picnic at Caddo Saturday.

In order to pay for the church organ there will be a pie supper here Saturday night.

Misses Alfred and Madge Phergo of Robinson attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. W. C. Weaver is very ill at this writing.

Frank Losos and Ernest Freeman were the guests of Lillie and Gussie Sorrells Sunday afternoon.

W. C. and Myrtle Weaver attended the all day singing at Pleasant Hill Sunday.

ITEMS FROM PIRTE

The boll weevil seems to be quitting the cotton in this section of the country.

Rev. White began a meeting here Sunday evening. There will be services every morning at 10:30 o'clock and evening services at 8:00 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Grace Glover is visiting relatives near Barwick this week.

Mrs. Grace Scott is visiting relatives in Aylesworth this week.

Miss Beatrice McAlister spent Sunday with Miss Nathie Wallace in Aylesworth.

Mrs. Cox has been quite ill, but is very much improved at this writing.

Miss Ruth Williams spent Monday with Miss Azyleene McAlister.

Olan Gray has been on the sick list this week.

Miss Nettie Woods has been on the sick list this week.

ITEMS FROM BUFFALO

Threshing of this community is almost over.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Prentice entertained a crowd of young folks Wednesday night with a party.

Misses Bethie Rice and Ruby Craig spent Tuesday evening with Miss Mary Nixon near Freney.

Several of this community were attending church at Matoy this week.

Mr. Flossie Craig spent Friday night with Miss Edith and Alvin Skinner near Franklin.

Misses Flossie and Ruby Craig attended the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wright Thursday night at Freney.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore and Mrs. Nola Moore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Harmon.

Misses Flossie and Ruby Craig visited Mr. and Mrs. John Davis Saturday and Sunday.