Johnson-Harden

A marriage quietly solemnized at the Maxwell Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock was that of Miss Selene Elizabeth Harden and Mr. Robert Charles Johnson, both of West Point, Tenn. Rev. P. Marion Simms of Lebanon, who is a brother-in-law of the groom, was the officiant. Mrs. Simms, Miss Neison and Mr. Payne Blair witnessed the ceremony, and the bride made an attractive appearance in a white silk gown, lace trimmed, with a yoke seeded in pearls, and a bouquet of bride roses.

The wedding though anticipated by the friends of the young people, was in the nature of a surprise, an earlier date being selected. The bride was here on a visit, and Mr. Johnson came to the city to have it solemnized here. He is a mine superintendent of the Sheffield Coal & Iron Company, and both he and bride, who is the daughter of Mr. Cleo Harden, are well known and popular in their home community.

After spending the night at the Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson went to Lebanon to-day for a brief visit to Rev. and Mrs. Simms.

DEATHS.

Miss Maggie Barnett, sister of Mrs T L Cloud died at her home at Lawrenceburg, Monday night. She had just been spending several weeks with Mrs Cloud at this place. May God comfort the bereaved ones

Miss Ida Satterbak, daughter of Mr and Mrs O J Satterbak, of Dunn, died at St Thomas hospital, in Nashville, last Monday, of heart failure, at the age of 18. The funeral was conducted here at the Lutheran Church by Rev. Carl Zenselmeier, of Nashville. She had been in school here, and the pupils met the train, bringing her body, and their sadness and tears, with the profusion of flowers were eloquent witnesses of the love of her comrades for the sweet young life so soon called to the luminous valleys of God. At her request F E Ranck, Noble Freeman, John North, Rollie Beckham, Jess McArter and Albert Brown acted as pall-bearers. Interment at Zion Cemetery

Bussy

FLEETWOOD.

As our little village is on a boom we wish through your columns to tell the outside world what we are doing.

Keeton & Quarles are doing a bustling business buying and shipping wood to the Charleston Mining Co. at Mt Pleasant.

Craig and Crittendon are doing a fine mercantile business with a good prospect of having established a E. E. agency, and also a Post office, two much needed enterprises.

The above mentioned firm are both men of push and enterprise and deserve success.

A. J. Augustin our progressive farmer and lumber man who has accumulated quite a fortune in the past few years, is doing quite a business here.

Hollander Bros has the best Sawmill in the county, and is now running on full time, working about 40 men.

The Craig Lumber Co., W. S. Craig proprietor, who is also senior partner in the mercantile firm, is doing a very lucrative business.

Mr. George Keeton of this place and Miss Lizzie Norwood of Giles county were very happily united in the bonds of matrimony a few days ago. So George has quit this single life of blessedness and gone into double harness.

We wish them success through life.

Miss Mamie the estimable and accomplished daughter of Mr. Keeton is teaching school at this place and is very popular as a teacher.

Mr. Allen Dabney is still pulling the lever at the Craig mill.

There is a great many people here at work and not an empty house near here.

Mr. J. W. Little who runs the boarding house for the Craig mill is doing well in that line.

Oscar Craig is still bidding the chips skin down at his brothers mill.

There is something near 100 teams running at and near this place.

Who said Bussy was not on a boom. Success to our paper and its Editor.
