ALWAYS KEEPS CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IN HIS HOUSE

"We would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is kept on hand continually in our home," says W. W. Kearney, editor of the Independent, Lowry City, Mo. That is just what every family should do. When kept at hand ready for instant use, a cold may be checked at the outset and cured in much less time than after it has become settled in the system. This remedy is also without a peer for croup in children, and will prevent the attack when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, which can only be done when the remedy is kept at hand. For sale by Freemon Bros.

Five Tooth Horse Cultivator

Made by David Bradley Mfg. Co.,
Bradley, Ill., U. S. A.

Below is the picture of a cultivator we are selling to farmers and gardeners. A glance shows it to be adapted to fast work and big jobs. There should be a lot like it used in this section. Make it a seven tooth cultivator, if you want; we can furnish the extra shanks and shovels. Also a horse hoe attachment that will hill up in fine shape anything that needs hilling. Strong steel frame. Two levers enable you to regulate width and depth perfectly. We're rather proud to have the handling of such an implement. Don't you think it's just about what you've been needing? Come in and see it some day and then give us your answer.

Wedding

Of Mr. Darr and Miss West an Elegant Affair--Many Guests

FLATWOODS.

TOUCHMENT.

No tongue can tell of the beauty nor the grandeur of that night, when bridegroom from the altar led his fair and happy bride.

The most beautiful of all the happenings in the society circle, of this community, was the marriage which occurred at New Bethel church, at Park Grove, Sunday, February 25, at 7 p. m. The contracting parties were Mr. Lester Darr, of Indiana, to Miss Myrtle West, of this place, Rev. Bone officiating in a most pleasing manner. Miss Edna Neelley, of Lawrenceburg, rendered the wedding music.

The pretty bride was arrayed in a white gown of rare beauty, and the groom was handsome in his faultless attire, which was a pretty black suit. The maid of honor, Miss Mary West, by whom the bride was led to the altar, wore a beautiful dress of white organdie made over blue, while the groom's best man, Mr. J. T. Buchanan, wore becoming black clothes, matching those worn by the groom.

The bridesmaids, Misses Ethel West and Edie Darr, who were attended by Messrs Lou Harmon and Will Rippey, were also beautifully dressed in white organdie made over blue. The ushers were Messrs Jinks Moore and Will Springer, of Lawrenceburg.

When the maid of honor gave away the bride and the best man presented her the man of her choice, they were all now at their places under the beautiful light of the church lamp, and we wondered in our hearts, could she have shed her radiant light o'er a more beautiful scene.

After the ceremony the invited guests followed the bridal party to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. R. W. West, where they were received in the hall by Miss Ethel West and pointed to the parlor, where the bride and groom were and received the congratulations of a host of friends. They were the recipients of many costly presents, whose beauty are unsurpassed. An infare dinner was given Monday at the home of the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. Darr which was attended by the bridal party and a few friends.

The bride and groom left on the evening train Monday for Indiana, their future home. They were accompanied, as far as Nashville, by Misses Ethel and Mary West, and Mr. John Buchanan. The Misses Wests will remain at the Rock City several months in school.

Among the number from your city who attended the reception Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rippey, Mrs. Dr. Stockard, Mr. & Mrs. T. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Miss Vera Clifton and Miss Thompson, Messrs John and Sam Buchanan, Jess McArthur, Will Rippy, Will Springer, Jinks Moore, Ed Richardson, Mr. Thompson, and Rev. Bone. Those from Ethridge were Misses Bessie Williamson and Hazel Decker, Messrs Decker and Brient.

A FAVORITE REMEDY FOR BABIES.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Freemon Bros.
