THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

"Peace on earth, good will to men," the blessed message of the Master, proclaimed and ever more and more nearly practiced, through all these nineteen centuries, is the sublime epitome of this holy season. When its beautiful realities reign supreme in the hearts of men and the hopes of nations then war will cease and all the depths of woe and want, and hate and cruelty and greed, will vanish from the earth leaving in their stead, happiness and plenty and sweet content.

Let us imbibe this time spirit putting out of our lives and hearts all selfishness and uncharity in the Christmaside, and then highly resolve in all the coming days to discharge with faithfulness the duty which the Master has imposed. Let the parent not forget the rights of children to be well-born, well reared, well taught; that no hereditary taint of body or of mind be transmitted to hurt and hamper during all its days; that no unwholesome environment or evil example shall touch its pure young life to sear and blister and scar forever; that its mind and soul be ennobled and strengthened by the incalculable beneficence of a right and thorough education. Let the man not forget his duty to his fellow-man; that the evil hand now resting on the worlds tolling masses be lifted and that the laborer in field, mine and factory shall produce the fabulous feast of wealth and receive but scanty share, shall turn the machinery of the worlds progress and get poverty in return. The laborer is of right entitled to shorter hours of toil, to comfortable and healthful environments, to educational advantages, and to a fairer share of the wealth produced by the labor of his hands.

As a citizen let us not forget the heavy debt we owe to every man beneath the flag, to create and maintain just, and efficient governmental conditions to the end that property and personal rights be safeguarded; and that the laws be supreme; that honesty, efficiency and economy characterize our public life; and the great guarantee of good government be made true.

When all these conditions prevail we will have indeed a good old earth, and in very real and happy truth, "Peace on earth, good will to men." Pray God the time may come, and in its coming, may you and I have a hand!

It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no equal. Try them.
