PROBATE NOTICE. Until further notice...

MORRISVILLE. Another girl at Dr. Kable's. Henry Warden is in town for a few weeks.

Edmond Phelps is very sick with pneumonia. Olin Sturges is home from Hanover for a short time.

St. Albans Messenger and News at the coming year for $2.75. Prof. Kent will be here in about three weeks to form a class in writing.

George Clark is home again. The day of the marriage is not yet decided upon.

J. Safford & Sons are doing quite a business in the way of getting out "clair stuff".

R. J. White of Wolcott has rented the rooms now occupied by the 5 cent man, and will soon open a jewelry shop.

Henry Warden recently purchased of mine host, Boynton, a quantity of small tin ware. Warden refuses to be interviewed.

Joshua Small's "lecture" will appear next week, as will a very good list of the late editor by one of our correspondents. All fall this week.

Christmas has gone by with Tift hasn't. His store is still well stocked. Goods coming in every day. His prices are below any other man's in the county.

Christmas trees and appropriate exercises, at all three of the churches on Saturday evening. Santa Claus was never in better spirits. He didn't seem to give anybody the go by.

The Morrisville Dramatic Club will present "Fashion" or "Life in New York" at Town Hall on Tuesday Eve. Jan. 3. A good admission will be expected. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Our partner in the law business has a pair of premium, white Brahma chickens that weigh 15-14 lbs. We conclude the Governor found them a tolerably fool piece of business when he came to pay for them.

The Grand Army boys met at their rooms on Saturday, and made up Christmas gifts for the widows of their deceased comrades. This mark of regard must have been very gratifying to those remembered.

Dr. Nichols will for the present make Morrisville his home. He is doing a thriving business and meeting with great success in all cases so far. Those having horses that are out of order should call on him.

Notwithstanding the ground is still bare, yet people come for miles to trade with Hale. They do it because it pays. His coffee, tea, hats, caps, clothing, in fact any thing he keeps (and he keeps everything), is of the best, and so cheap.

Dr. Chas. F. Sturges of Burlington, will be at the Drug Store of C. L. Burke on Friday of this week, for the purpose of fitting his truss to those who may desire to try it. Dr. Sturges comes highly recommended by Burlington Physicians. The Dr. will be at Johnson Dec. 31st.

In addition to a large stock of dry goods and groceries, boots, rubber goods and clothing, will be found, beef, pork which may be had whole or by the half, quarter or pound, also ribs and tenderloin just as you wish and at small advance on cost. At the brick block.—Geo. J. Clayton.

The Spiritualist Society of Morrisville, will hold a business and conference meeting at Burke's hall next Sunday, January 1st, at the usual hour. It is requested that all members of the society, and all interested in the cause of liberation will be present as business of importance is to be discussed. Per order of committee.

We would suggest to those two married men, that it would be safer to hire a hack, or station a reception committee just outside or else load light on the return trip; less liable to fall into the hands of the enemy. We conclude that the young ladies (?) who skipped out about the same time have forgotten that "straws tell which way the wind blows." Better have celebrated Christmas some other way.

Messrs. Editors.—The public are looking into your columns to see what the Temperance people are going to do in Morrisville, after so much positive proof of the sales of intoxicating liquors; we answer, that legal notices have been served upon the well known "offenders"; that they must cease, at once and forever selling, giving away, or in any way furnishing or causing to be furnished any intoxicating liquors, including beer and cider, or they will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. This notice is signed by business men and backed by many of the most prominent citizens of Morrisville.

HYDE PARK.

"Mac" remembered the boys. Another wedding in town this week. The day of good resolutions draweth near.

Many thanks for the "consolidated mittens". Annual ball at the American next Monday evening.

The lumbermen would like a little snow just about now. Mr. and Mrs. Porter spent "Xmas" with their parents at Underhill.

Frederick Bliss, of Georgia, a young brother of the Doctor, spent Christmas in town. Mrs. C. M. Strong has gone to Putney; called there by the serious illness of her mother.

S. F. Vilas, the richest man in Plattsburg, was born and reared on Sterling Mountain. This weather makes sidewalks very slippery, and Judge Small says one must "C-sharp or he'll B-flat."

Remember that subscriptions are received at the News & Citizen's office as all the leading newspapers and magazines at the lowest rates. Bert Crane, who has been working at Stone for several months past, is home on a vacation.

Fred. Gauthier has rented the store in front of the News & Citizen's office, and will soon open a harness shop. Rev. J. D. Emerson of Underhill, is expected to lecture in this place on Saturday evening of next week, and on the following day will occupy the pulpit of Union Church.

Lyceum next Friday night; same subject as announced for last week. W. C. Maxfield is confined to the house; threatened with a fever. J. M. Hill, of the "Rambling Sunbeam," is in town on his annual visit.

The school at Centreville is taught by Jennie Stowell, and the one in the Wiswell district by May Allen of Grand Isle, at both of which places we learn good satisfaction is given. The Christmas tree exercises at Centreville passed pleasantly. Every body was made happy.

Rev. Mr. Wheeler, Christian minister, preached at Centreville and North Hyde Park last Sunday. He preaches at these places every Sunday. Rev. Mr. Bushnell preaches at the first named place nearly every Sunday afternoon.

It is now thought that Rainville will be "on the town" but a short time, as there is a prospect of his receiving a little property. A guardian will be appointed. Frank Deming, a young man well known in this place, has got into trouble at New Orleans; some deficit in funds. It is hoped, however, that he may be able to make an honorable showing in the case.

Go right over to Tift's and get a suit of clothes for yourself or boy.—Never such a chance before in prices. Just so with every thing he keeps. We thought we would have a hearty story this week that would equal one of "Hi Atkins", but must wait until we learn further particulars. How ever we will say that bear tracks were seen in town last week, near the Craftsbury road, by Ed. Cutler and others, and were followed over into Hartwick, where it is said Ed. caught a glimpse of him, but just at that time sundown started for home to attend to some important business, and before the rest of the party could get a sight, old brain had disappeared.

The Christmas exercises at the town hall came off Saturday evening, and were duly appreciated by the large audience. The little folks doing splendidly. The tree was loaded with hand some gifts, almost everybody being remembered by "Old St. Nick." Rev. Mr. Bushnell was the recipient of a string of greenbacks long enough to make a gentleman's scarf. A pleasant event was the gift to Union Sunday School of a copy of the Commandments handsomely worked on perforated cardboard, nicely framed in gilt, from Fannie Spicer, now Mrs. Bailey of Roxbury Conn. The school acknowledged the gift by tendering a vote of thanks.

It was a very pleasant event that called together about fifty of the residents and intimate friends at the residence of Wm. B. Briggs, Esq., on the evening of the 22d inst., to witness the marriage of his daughter Julia to Henry M. McFarland. At precisely 7 o'clock the attention of the company was directed to the happy couple, who had presented themselves in the parlor to be united in holy hands. The ceremony was performed in a felicitous manner by Rev. H. A. Bushnell, after which came the usual congratulations and wedding cake. Few persons unite their interests under more pleasant circumstances, or with the kind wishes of a larger number of true friends, than do they. Mr. McFarland has been for several years the principal of the Lamoille Central Academy, and was admitted to the bar at the last April term of court, and soon after opened an office in this village. Since he came to Hyde Park he has made many friends. The bride has always been a resident of this place, is an accomplished lady, and is greatly beloved by all. Following is a list of presents received:

Caster, A. L. Noyes and wife; Butter Knife, Rev. and Mrs. Bushnell; Framed Motto, Mary Brigham; Jewelry Casket, A. B. Noyes and wife; Spoon Holder, Hon. L. S. Small; Pillow Shams, Mrs. L. S. Small; Dozen Knives, Mrs. L. S. Noyes; Berry Spoon, G. L. Waterman; Wife; Dozen Tea Spoons, Mabel J. Noyes; Jean Ingles' Spoon, Mrs. H. S. Parker and wife; Bronze Statuette, Ellen Randall; Dozen Napkins, H. M. Noyes; Jean Ingles' Spoon, Mrs. L. S. Noyes and wife; Vase, L. H. Lewis and wife; Knife Rest, Mrs. Mary Lewis; Motto, Mary Brigham; Jewelry Casket, Holder, Gertrude Patch; Card Receiver, Chas. Noyes; Fair of Vases, A. O. Gates and wife and Nettie George; Butter Dish, Mrs. W. Towels, A. P. Smallley and wife; Pickle Dish, Hon. R. S. Page and wife; Berry Dish, C. S. Page and wife;

THE VILLE AND THE BORO. By latest reports from C. W. Turner he is now at Poutney, visiting at his father-in-law's home, with Mrs. T. Jack Council is at work on a Central freight train. W. Stevens is now canvassing Cambridge for Applicant's Cyclopaedia. Our intelligent citizens are not slow to appreciate the favorable terms he offers. Mrs. Sablin has just returned to Montpelier, having paid a nice long visit at home. Latest from our young friend, Ella Griswold, represents her as growing in wisdom and stature, and in favor both with "God and man."

We understand that J. Parker, Surveyor, photograph rooms at the Boro about the first of February. CURTIS BROWN has caught another bear. Joel C. Hodgkins cut his thumb nearly off while fixing the planer in the factory. While attempting to plane a board in Hodgkins' shop the planer was entirely cleared above the bench, breaking the rolls and spinning the knives, necessitating a new set. Mr. Brown part owner of the 'nub' shop near the Junction, talks of moving into a part of Thomas Shattuck's house. Eld. Gregory, of what place we are unable to learn, has been holding meetings at the Junction the past week, remaining over the Sabbath.

Saturday evening was observed at the Junction by a Christmas tree, which was well supplied with both useful and ornamental presents. EAST FLETCHER The Belle of Brooklyn has gone to Burlington for a while. Work on the new wood shed has commenced. The wood choppers are making it lively in the woods now-a-days, having cut 700 to 1000 cords, besides some mill logs etc. Miss Annie Flood took to herself a man a few days ago, and has moved to the village of Belvidere. We wish them success. Our genial friend Will, (better known as the R. H. as "Jody") Reed came along last Saturday on No. 6, smiling and happy, and on the cigars, was not then knowing of the fact that he had been married, and that a fair young lady running his engine and upon inquiry they said it was "Jody's" wife. Please accept thanks for cigars and WATERVILLE.

The stores in our village are all well filled with Christmas and New Year's goods. The Sabbath school here have decided to use this year, the Berean lesson text instead of Cook's Quarterly. The school never was in a more prosperous condition than at present. Rev. Mr. Story is superintending.

On Sunday evening last, a Sabbath school concert was held at the church. The exercises were very interesting, and a large congregation was present. There was a Christmas tree was held at the church in Belvidere, and the same at our church on Monday evening following. Some families in town had a tree at home for their children.

On Saturday and Sunday next, the exercises of quarterly meeting will be held here. The quarterly conference is here on Saturday afternoon and a sermon Sunday forenoon by Rev. P. M. Grainger, Presiding Elder.
