

NEWS & CITIZEN.

MORRISVILLE.

John Utton, broke two or three small bones of his right hand last week.

Cyrus Woodward, a former clerk with E. B. Merriam, was in town last week from Chicago.

Work of connecting residences and places of business with the water main has been resumed.

New steps, with a granite base and iron rails are to be put in at the post-office, a much needed improvement.

Miss S. Carrie Chase is home from Northfield, where she has just completed her second year as preceptress of the academy.

The engine and machinery used in the steam mill at the foot of Sterling mountain was loaded on to the cars at this station on Saturday.

Hiram Howard, the rubber stamp man, from Burlington, has been in town for a few days visiting his father and brother.

Rev. W. A. Bushee occupied the desk at Union church, Hyde Park, on Sunday morning, Dec. 1st, preaching a sermon here in his absence.

The young son of J. P. Clement died Monday morning, and the funeral was held to-day at the house. His wife still continues seriously ill.

On account of the Camilla Urso concert this (Wednesday) evening, the regular meeting of the Good Templars is postponed until Saturday evening.

Mrs. Hannah Bailey, for several years a resident of this town, died in New York of her daughter, J. F. Whitney, in Wolcott, last week, the funeral being held on Friday.

The Camilla Urso party arrived at noon, and have rooms at the Morrisville House. About 400 tickets for the concert this evening have already been sold.

Mrs. B. W. Spaulding, of this town, has a calla lily one year old that is four feet high, with a leaf 14 inches long by 10 inches wide, and a blossom measuring 8 by 10 inches.

Rev. J. P. Hall preached at the Methodist chapel on Sunday morning, in Mr. Bell's absence. It is now expected that Rev. Peter Merrill, of Enosburgh, will preach at the same place next Sunday.

Capt. H. H. Brown, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will lecture in Woodward's Hall, Sunday, May 25, forenoon and afternoon, at the usual hours. He will also lecture in the evening at Morristown Corners.

The value of Bradley's Phosphate to the farmers is fully attested by the large increase in the sales. H. A. Slayton & Co. have sold this season over eighty tons. Hand them your orders early, before their stock is exhausted.

Josiah A. Wood, well known here, and a former graduate of the Academy, came to town last week, having completed a theological course in New York city. He left for Wisconsin, where he expects to locate as a preacher.

P. P. Roberts has sold out to Eli Boomhower, who has taken possession. Perley will remain in town until September, when he talks of going to Texas. Eli proposes to learn the business, and he will if he undertakes it. The "Prof." is a skillful mechanic and has done many a fine job. We see no reason why he cannot succeed in the country, and we are $21.56 ahead. The total list now stands at $8,999.83, including polls, $499, personal $1,907.22, as against $8,978.87 last year. As a fence is small, but sure, but it is on the right side. The lists, Campbell, Kenfield and Smith, we believe, have done their work thoroughly, and to the satisfaction of all reasonable parties.

Last Thursday afternoon the farm house and horse barn of R. B. Goodell, under Elmoro mountain, was destroyed by fire, the conflagration being witnessed by several villagers. The fire is supposed to have originated in a lot of kerosene shavings in the shed chamber. By the exertion of Mr. Goodell and son and the neighbors a considerable quantity of the household goods were saved. Quite a number of chickens and two dogs were burned with the horse barn. The loss, it is supposed, is nearly covered by insurance.

S. H. Tift has just returned from New York with a nice lot of dry goods, in all the new styles; gloves and underwear specially. Also dress goods in new shades, satins, lawns, cordettes, repps, chambrays and gingham in large and small plaids. A finer assortment can't be found in the county. Also men's and boys' clothing just received. Thayer's buttons constantly on hand. Seed wheat $1.75 per bushel, and guano to make it grow like the mischief, $2 per 100 pounds.

Warner Post No. 4 will appear in uniform Decoration Day. Comrades Camp, Pierce and Gay are detailed to decorate the graves in the cemetery at Elmoro, and the graves of the dead soldiers of the war. Flowers may be left at Mr. Kelley's of the committee. Comrades H. O. Spaulding, Huse and Bridge are detailed to decorate the graves in the Wheeler cemetery in Morristown. Flowers may be left at Mr. Wheeler's, Comrades McClintock and Pierce are detailed to perform the same duty at the cemetery near the Falls; flowers may be left at the entrance to the cemetery. Comrades Davis, Farnsworth and Currier are detailed to perform the same duty at the cemetery at the Four Corners; flowers may be left at the entrance to the cemetery. Comrade George W. Foss is detailed to perform the same duty at the cemetery in the Glines neighborhood in Elmoro. Comrades Wheelock, Darling and Ellsworth are detailed to perform the same duty at the cemetery on Hyde Park Plain. Comrades will provide themselves with flags previous to the day, one to be placed on each comrade's grave. Quartermaster Gates will issue the flags on requisition of the committee. On Friday, May 30, at 12.15 p. m., all details will take the line of March, meeting at the various places designated there by the committee. The march will be performed by the Post. After decorating the graves the ceremonies will conclude at the Town Hall with music and an address by Comrade A. O.

Gates. A cordial invitation is extended to all clergymen, and citizens generally. An special invitation is extended to all the Sabbath schools to attend and join the procession in a body. We invite contributions of evergreen wreaths and flowers. All old soldiers, war veterans, and those who have served in the army or navy, are invited, and expected to unite on this day to commemorate the patriotism, sacrifices and devotion of our fellow countrymen. G. W. Dorr, Com. A. A. NILES, Adm.

GRASS PARK. Grass is growing nicely. Dr. Bliss is again on deck. Pasture for rent. Enquire at printing office.

Mrs. George D. Sherwin and son are stopping at Mrs. Sherman's. Jewell has moved into the new dwelling apartments over his shop. About time for base-ball. What has become of the Hyde Park club. A handsome new upright piano has been placed in the American House parlors.

Attention is called to the advertisement of James Kelley's Hyde Park Landing.

Over fifty tickets were sold in this place for the Camilla Urso concert at Morrisville.

Rev. F. A. Holden, of Pittsburgh, Mass., will preach at Union church next Sunday.

We notice considerable steel rails have lately been laid between this place and Morrisville.

Quite a number of our people attended Capt. Brown's lectures at the American House Sunday.

C. S. Page is now the owner of the C. J. Patch store. "What will he do with it" is the public question.

Crane's store (occupied by Rogers) is being re-painted a handsome color, which is a marked improvement.

F. N. Gale, of Chicago, was in town a few days last week, called east by the death of his uncle at Barre.

C. J. Patch, who went from this place to Hyde Park, Mass., about a year ago, is now living in Dorchester, Mass.

A boy put up at Barney Roddy's last Friday, and he looks like the surroundings will make it his permanent home.

Who can beat this? C. H. Andrews has a lamb three weeks old that weighs 37 1/2 pounds. Now fetch on your lambs.

From the number of new lives about the jail house, we should judge Sheriff Lanpher intends adding largely to his staff.

R. L. Flagz has sold his horse to Ed. Laberde.

We understand that Dr. Flagz has been having much rain here the past week, which is not very encouraging to farmers. The hills have also been very muddy, and the roads are showing that old winter still holds sway.

Anna Raymond left this week for her school in Waterville.

Old Sherman's daughter Cora, who has been very sick with diphtheria, is reported as being some better.

Frank Wilcox has sold one pair of his cows to Mr. E. H. Brown.

Robert Mackey seems to be the only one who is making improvements in this village at the present time, he having put up a veranda and newly painted his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Page shipped a car load of sugar last week to parties in New York. The funeral services of Mrs. Edward Hebb, who died on Friday, were held on Saturday last, at East Cambridge.

Miss Laura Allen has been getting up a class in Kensington work.

We have received this week another car load of hats and bonnets for ladies and children, trimmed and untrimmed, and all selling them at very low prices. Call and examine my stock and prices before you purchase elsewhere, and you will be convinced that we sell the lowest figures. Yours with much respect, Mrs. P. J. DOUGHERTY, Morrisville, Vt.

CAMBRIDGE. The cold snap of last week terminated in a snow storm which was well informed, by one who witnessed it, of a similar storm on the 15th and 16th of May, 1834, exactly 50 years ago. The depth of snow was about 18 inches and a number of sleighing parties were out on the roads. The snow was given up, fortunately, as the snow rapidly disappeared the next day.

A special meeting of Post No. 10, G. O. E., took place Monday evening, the 19th. It was decided to build a hall for the use of that order. Comrade William Scott has undertaken the wood work, and the members of the Post are to furnish the underpinning. The location selected is the lot east of the hotel, between that building and the marble shop. The following resolutions have been adopted by Pearl Lodge, No. 44, I. O. of G. T.:

For the first time in the seventeen years' history of Pearl Lodge, death has entered our circle and taken from our number a sister in the flower of her youth. Resolved.—That in the decease of sister Minnie Leach we have lost a faithful member a worthy officer and a true sister.

Resolved.—That the heartfelt sympathy of the lodge be extended to brother Leach, and that he be buried in the cemetery, and to the circle of mourning friends who lose a loving companion.

Resolved.—That the resolutions be placed upon our records, a copy be presented to our brother, and a copy be placed in our copy paper for publication.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE. E. H. Rice has a force of men to work on his barn frame with H. E. Fullington as boss.

R. M. Blaisdell has sold that fine pair of oxen to Mr. Gowen of Grand Isle for $280.

M. L. Davis recently sold a hen-hawk that measured 54 inches from tip to tip of its wings.

WATERVILLE. One morning last week Fred Darrah took his horse and slipped down through the floor into the basement. The horse still alive and improving.

The horse herd slipped down through the rain and snow storm of last week, consulting themselves with the cheering prospect of the good times coming in May.

John Wilbur and family started on Monday morning for the West.

A new sign appears upon the house of the Wheeler cemetery in Morristown, which is the method of "leaching out" the soil milk. Each farmer now has a chance to get his right share of that article. There are many things about a creamery of interest to everybody and we are sure a visit to this institution will amply repay any one.

Mrs. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb and wife of Edmund Hebb, who lives on the Whiting place on the Johnson road, died on Saturday night after an illness of but a few minutes. She ate supper and appeared to be in her usual health, but a short time after was found by her husband, who had left her but a few minutes before, sitting in her chair and breathing heavily. After doing all that was in his power to relieve her, he summoned his son, who lives on the adjoining farm, but almost as soon as they reached her she expired. Mrs. Hebb was a large woman and well along in years, some seventy. We believe it is supposed she died of heart disease. The remains were taken to Cambridge Monday for burial.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Brigham & McFarland, lawyers, in another column. This is a new firm among us and one in which the people may have confidence, both in the fidelity and promptness with which they will do any business that may be intrusted to them. The new firm's offices are in the rooms so long occupied by Brigham & Waterman. Call in and see them.

JOHNSON. Mrs. Carrie (Whiting) Whitten has been visiting here for two weeks past, the guest of Miss Dodge. She returned to Plymouth Monday.

A very handsome new monument has recently been placed on the John Scribner lot in the new cemetery. It is of granite, handsomely carved and highly ornamental to the ground, as well as a credit to the artist. It was erected by the late Mr. Scribner, and is the gift of his son, Mr. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb.

Mrs. Emma Fullington was recently called to her former home in Barton by the sickness and death of her father, Mr. Taylor, for many years a resident of that place.

Cyrus Woodward, of Chicago, is in town.

Rev. Mr. Hatch, of East Berkshire, preached from the Congregational pulpit on Friday, having exchanged with Mr. Smith.

E. E. Foster, of Morrisville, has finished and put up of a very ornamental stone of Bartland marble for Lucy Whiting, wife of C. H. Woodward.

The health house has been divided and drawn back to the river, and now forms two tenements.

The building of the McFarland house on the corner of State and Main streets, already begun near the old tub factory, will be finished in a few days.

The Ladies' Ways and Means Society will furnish dinners for all who wish on Decoration Day, at their vestry.

About 50 tickets were sold here for the concert this evening. Morrisville and more might have been sold had it been known that a train would run down here after the concert.

JEFFERSONVILLE. We are pleased to see the familiar face of Oscar Woodford in this place. He has been away for some time, under medical treatment, and has returned much improved in health.

R. L. Flagz has sold his horse to Ed. Laberde.

We understand that Dr. Flagz has been having much rain here the past week, which is not very encouraging to farmers. The hills have also been very muddy, and the roads are showing that old winter still holds sway.

Anna Raymond left this week for her school in Waterville.

Old Sherman's daughter Cora, who has been very sick with diphtheria, is reported as being some better.

Frank Wilcox has sold one pair of his cows to Mr. E. H. Brown.

Robert Mackey seems to be the only one who is making improvements in this village at the present time, he having put up a veranda and newly painted his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Page shipped a car load of sugar last week to parties in New York. The funeral services of Mrs. Edward Hebb, who died on Friday, were held on Saturday last, at East Cambridge.

Miss Laura Allen has been getting up a class in Kensington work.

We have received this week another car load of hats and bonnets for ladies and children, trimmed and untrimmed, and all selling them at very low prices. Call and examine my stock and prices before you purchase elsewhere, and you will be convinced that we sell the lowest figures. Yours with much respect, Mrs. P. J. DOUGHERTY, Morrisville, Vt.

CAMBRIDGE. The cold snap of last week terminated in a snow storm which was well informed, by one who witnessed it, of a similar storm on the 15th and 16th of May, 1834, exactly 50 years ago. The depth of snow was about 18 inches and a number of sleighing parties were out on the roads. The snow was given up, fortunately, as the snow rapidly disappeared the next day.

A special meeting of Post No. 10, G. O. E., took place Monday evening, the 19th. It was decided to build a hall for the use of that order. Comrade William Scott has undertaken the wood work, and the members of the Post are to furnish the underpinning. The location selected is the lot east of the hotel, between that building and the marble shop. The following resolutions have been adopted by Pearl Lodge, No. 44, I. O. of G. T.:

For the first time in the seventeen years' history of Pearl Lodge, death has entered our circle and taken from our number a sister in the flower of her youth. Resolved.—That in the decease of sister Minnie Leach we have lost a faithful member a worthy officer and a true sister.

Resolved.—That the heartfelt sympathy of the lodge be extended to brother Leach, and that he be buried in the cemetery, and to the circle of mourning friends who lose a loving companion.

Resolved.—That the resolutions be placed upon our records, a copy be presented to our brother, and a copy be placed in our copy paper for publication.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE. E. H. Rice has a force of men to work on his barn frame with H. E. Fullington as boss.

R. M. Blaisdell has sold that fine pair of oxen to Mr. Gowen of Grand Isle for $280.

M. L. Davis recently sold a hen-hawk that measured 54 inches from tip to tip of its wings.

WATERVILLE. One morning last week Fred Darrah took his horse and slipped down through the floor into the basement. The horse still alive and improving.

The horse herd slipped down through the rain and snow storm of last week, consulting themselves with the cheering prospect of the good times coming in May.

John Wilbur and family started on Monday morning for the West.

A new sign appears upon the house of the Wheeler cemetery in Morristown, which is the method of "leaching out" the soil milk. Each farmer now has a chance to get his right share of that article. There are many things about a creamery of interest to everybody and we are sure a visit to this institution will amply repay any one.

Mrs. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb and wife of Edmund Hebb, who lives on the Whiting place on the Johnson road, died on Saturday night after an illness of but a few minutes. She ate supper and appeared to be in her usual health, but a short time after was found by her husband, who had left her but a few minutes before, sitting in her chair and breathing heavily. After doing all that was in his power to relieve her, he summoned his son, who lives on the adjoining farm, but almost as soon as they reached her she expired. Mrs. Hebb was a large woman and well along in years, some seventy. We believe it is supposed she died of heart disease. The remains were taken to Cambridge Monday for burial.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Brigham & McFarland, lawyers, in another column. This is a new firm among us and one in which the people may have confidence, both in the fidelity and promptness with which they will do any business that may be intrusted to them. The new firm's offices are in the rooms so long occupied by Brigham & Waterman. Call in and see them.

JOHNSON. Mrs. Carrie (Whiting) Whitten has been visiting here for two weeks past, the guest of Miss Dodge. She returned to Plymouth Monday.

A very handsome new monument has recently been placed on the John Scribner lot in the new cemetery. It is of granite, handsomely carved and highly ornamental to the ground, as well as a credit to the artist. It was erected by the late Mr. Scribner, and is the gift of his son, Mr. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb.

Mrs. Emma Fullington was recently called to her former home in Barton by the sickness and death of her father, Mr. Taylor, for many years a resident of that place.

Cyrus Woodward, of Chicago, is in town.

Rev. Mr. Hatch, of East Berkshire, preached from the Congregational pulpit on Friday, having exchanged with Mr. Smith.

E. E. Foster, of Morrisville, has finished and put up of a very ornamental stone of Bartland marble for Lucy Whiting, wife of C. H. Woodward.

The health house has been divided and drawn back to the river, and now forms two tenements.

The building of the McFarland house on the corner of State and Main streets, already begun near the old tub factory, will be finished in a few days.

The Ladies' Ways and Means Society will furnish dinners for all who wish on Decoration Day, at their vestry.

About 50 tickets were sold here for the concert this evening. Morrisville and more might have been sold had it been known that a train would run down here after the concert.

JEFFERSONVILLE. We are pleased to see the familiar face of Oscar Woodford in this place. He has been away for some time, under medical treatment, and has returned much improved in health.

R. L. Flagz has sold his horse to Ed. Laberde.

We understand that Dr. Flagz has been having much rain here the past week, which is not very encouraging to farmers. The hills have also been very muddy, and the roads are showing that old winter still holds sway.

Anna Raymond left this week for her school in Waterville.

Old Sherman's daughter Cora, who has been very sick with diphtheria, is reported as being some better.

Frank Wilcox has sold one pair of his cows to Mr. E. H. Brown.

Robert Mackey seems to be the only one who is making improvements in this village at the present time, he having put up a veranda and newly painted his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Page shipped a car load of sugar last week to parties in New York. The funeral services of Mrs. Edward Hebb, who died on Friday, were held on Saturday last, at East Cambridge.

Miss Laura Allen has been getting up a class in Kensington work.

We have received this week another car load of hats and bonnets for ladies and children, trimmed and untrimmed, and all selling them at very low prices. Call and examine my stock and prices before you purchase elsewhere, and you will be convinced that we sell the lowest figures. Yours with much respect, Mrs. P. J. DOUGHERTY, Morrisville, Vt.

CAMBRIDGE. The cold snap of last week terminated in a snow storm which was well informed, by one who witnessed it, of a similar storm on the 15th and 16th of May, 1834, exactly 50 years ago. The depth of snow was about 18 inches and a number of sleighing parties were out on the roads. The snow was given up, fortunately, as the snow rapidly disappeared the next day.

A special meeting of Post No. 10, G. O. E., took place Monday evening, the 19th. It was decided to build a hall for the use of that order. Comrade William Scott has undertaken the wood work, and the members of the Post are to furnish the underpinning. The location selected is the lot east of the hotel, between that building and the marble shop. The following resolutions have been adopted by Pearl Lodge, No. 44, I. O. of G. T.:

For the first time in the seventeen years' history of Pearl Lodge, death has entered our circle and taken from our number a sister in the flower of her youth. Resolved.—That in the decease of sister Minnie Leach we have lost a faithful member a worthy officer and a true sister.

Resolved.—That the heartfelt sympathy of the lodge be extended to brother Leach, and that he be buried in the cemetery, and to the circle of mourning friends who lose a loving companion.

Resolved.—That the resolutions be placed upon our records, a copy be presented to our brother, and a copy be placed in our copy paper for publication.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE. E. H. Rice has a force of men to work on his barn frame with H. E. Fullington as boss.

R. M. Blaisdell has sold that fine pair of oxen to Mr. Gowen of Grand Isle for $280.

M. L. Davis recently sold a hen-hawk that measured 54 inches from tip to tip of its wings.

WATERVILLE. One morning last week Fred Darrah took his horse and slipped down through the floor into the basement. The horse still alive and improving.

The horse herd slipped down through the rain and snow storm of last week, consulting themselves with the cheering prospect of the good times coming in May.

John Wilbur and family started on Monday morning for the West.

A new sign appears upon the house of the Wheeler cemetery in Morristown, which is the method of "leaching out" the soil milk. Each farmer now has a chance to get his right share of that article. There are many things about a creamery of interest to everybody and we are sure a visit to this institution will amply repay any one.

Mrs. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb and wife of Edmund Hebb, who lives on the Whiting place on the Johnson road, died on Saturday night after an illness of but a few minutes. She ate supper and appeared to be in her usual health, but a short time after was found by her husband, who had left her but a few minutes before, sitting in her chair and breathing heavily. After doing all that was in his power to relieve her, he summoned his son, who lives on the adjoining farm, but almost as soon as they reached her she expired. Mrs. Hebb was a large woman and well along in years, some seventy. We believe it is supposed she died of heart disease. The remains were taken to Cambridge Monday for burial.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Brigham & McFarland, lawyers, in another column. This is a new firm among us and one in which the people may have confidence, both in the fidelity and promptness with which they will do any business that may be intrusted to them. The new firm's offices are in the rooms so long occupied by Brigham & Waterman. Call in and see them.

JOHNSON. Mrs. Carrie (Whiting) Whitten has been visiting here for two weeks past, the guest of Miss Dodge. She returned to Plymouth Monday.

A very handsome new monument has recently been placed on the John Scribner lot in the new cemetery. It is of granite, handsomely carved and highly ornamental to the ground, as well as a credit to the artist. It was erected by the late Mr. Scribner, and is the gift of his son, Mr. Hebb, mother of Smith Hebb.

Mrs. Emma Fullington was recently called to her former home in Barton by the sickness and death of her father, Mr. Taylor, for many years a resident of that place.

Cyrus Woodward, of Chicago, is in town.

Rev. Mr. Hatch, of East Berkshire, preached from the Congregational pulpit on Friday, having exchanged with Mr. Smith.

E. E. Foster, of Morrisville, has finished and put up of a very ornamental stone of Bartland marble for Lucy Whiting, wife of C. H. Woodward.

The health house has been divided and drawn back to the river, and now forms two tenements.

The building of the McFarland house on the corner of State and Main streets, already begun near the old tub factory, will be finished in a few days.

The Ladies' Ways and Means Society will furnish dinners for all who wish on Decoration Day, at their vestry.

About 50 tickets were sold here for the concert this evening. Morrisville and more might have been sold had it been known that a train would run down here after the concert.

JEFFERSONVILLE. We are pleased to see the familiar face of Oscar Woodford in this place. He has been away for some time, under medical treatment, and has returned much improved in health.

R. L. Flagz has sold his horse to Ed. Laberde.

We understand that Dr. Flagz has been having much rain here the past week, which is not very encouraging to farmers. The hills have also been very muddy, and the roads are showing that old winter still holds sway.

Anna Raymond left this week for her school in Waterville.

Old Sherman's daughter Cora, who has been very sick with diphtheria, is reported as being some better.

Frank Wilcox has sold one pair of his cows to Mr. E. H. Brown.

Robert Mackey seems to be the only one who is making improvements in this village at the present time, he having put up a veranda and newly painted his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Page shipped a car load of sugar last week to parties in New York. The funeral services of Mrs. Edward Hebb, who died on Friday, were held on Saturday last, at East Cambridge.

Miss Laura Allen has been getting up a class in Kensington work.

We have received this week another car load of hats and bonnets for ladies and children, trimmed and untrimmed, and all selling them at very low prices. Call and examine my stock and prices before you purchase elsewhere, and you will be convinced that we sell the lowest figures. Yours with much respect, Mrs. P. J. DOUGHERTY, Morrisville, Vt.

CAMBRIDGE. The cold snap of last week terminated in a snow storm which was well informed, by one who witnessed it, of a similar storm on the 15th and 16th of May, 1834, exactly 50 years ago. The depth of snow was about 18 inches and a number of sleighing parties were out on the roads. The snow was given up, fortunately, as the snow rapidly disappeared the next day.

A special meeting of Post No. 10, G. O. E., took place Monday evening, the 19th. It was decided to build a hall for the use of that order. Comrade William Scott has undertaken the wood work, and the members of the Post are to furnish the underpinning. The location selected is the lot east of the hotel, between that building and the marble shop. The following resolutions have been adopted by Pearl Lodge, No. 44, I. O. of G. T.:

For the first time in the seventeen years' history of Pearl Lodge, death has entered our circle and taken from our number a sister in the flower of her youth. Resolved.—That in the decease of sister Minnie Leach we have lost a faithful member a worthy officer and a true sister.

Resolved.—That the heartfelt sympathy of the lodge be extended to brother Leach, and that he be buried in the cemetery, and to the circle of mourning friends who lose a loving companion.

Resolved.—That the resolutions be placed upon our records, a copy be presented to our brother, and a copy be placed in our copy paper for publication.

NORTH CAMBRIDGE. E. H. Rice has a force of men to work on his barn frame with H. E. Fullington as boss.

R. M. Blaisdell has sold that fine pair of oxen to Mr. Gowen of Grand Isle for $280.

M. L. Davis recently sold a hen-hawk that measured 54 inches from tip to tip of its wings.

WATERVILLE. One morning last week Fred Darrah took his horse and slipped down through the floor into the basement. The horse still alive and improving.

The horse herd slipped down through the rain and snow storm of last week, consulting themselves with the cheering prospect of the good times coming in May.

John Wilbur and family started on Monday morning for the West.

A new sign appears