SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL.

It is said that the medical examiners of the boys who were candidates for the table of apprentices in the navy found that nearly all of them were suffering from some form of imperfect eyesight, caused by smoking cigarettes.

Water pipes of paper have been satisfactorily tested by Dr. D. A. Lewis, and are 1,000 feet long, one inch in diameter, having been used for several years without leaking or imparting taste to the water.

Picture frames are now made with a composition of paper pulp, gesso, linseed oil, and whiting. The ingredients are mixed and heated to the consistency of molasses in a boiler. The mixture is allowed to be poured into suitable moulds where it is allowed to harden.

Spiders have been found by Dr. C. Keller, of Zurich, to be voracious destroyers of plant-feeding insects, and he contends that they play a more effective part in the preservation of forests than the insect-eating birds. He estimates the value of the service rendered by spiders has been shown by observations on cotton-wood trees, a few broad leaved trees, and apple trees.

The use of a compressed paper for car wheels and other articles is rapidly increasing in England. The material is a mixture of paper and rubber, and is made of paper. The material is made in blocks joined by salicylic acid. Compressed in this way the paper is said to be as strong as iron.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE HAS PASSED A LAW TO THE EFFECT THAT BICYCLES STOP RIDING WHENEVER THEY APPROACH WITHIN ONE HUNDRED YARDS OF A TEAM, AND AFTER DISMOUNTING REMAIN STANDING UNTIL THE TEAM HAS PASSED.

THE COLONEL'S HAPPY THOUGHTS. Col. Sumpter McBride, of Austin, has been spending several weeks in New York, a few days ago being in need of some money, he applied to a Broadway bank to cash a draft.

SHY'S WONDERFUL FIGHT.

Single-handedly Repulsed a Band of Hostile Apaches, and Saving his Wife.

Mr. Shy is a sturdy, plain-spoken, intelligent man, and apparently unacquainted with the art of boxing. He was sitting down to his dinner with his wife and had one arm in a sling because of some recent injury to a pointed Apachian straggling creeping up. Quick as thought he tore the bandages from his arm, sprang to the door of his room where his Winchester was resting, and seizing it wheeled around just in time to receive the fire of the Apaches.

After awhile there was lull in the firing. A few yards distant from Mr. Shy's house, a man in a blue coat, a yellow sash, and a black hat, was seen to be firing a rifle. He was firing a rifle. He was firing a rifle.

ONLY A SONG.

It was only a simple ballad, Sung to a careless throng, There were none that knew the singer, And few that heeded the song.

REAL ESTATE For Sale! FARMS, Village Residences, Building Lots, IN THE ALTMARKT, Timber Lots, Wood Lots, Store, Etc., Etc.

My Calf Skin Business is absorbing my capital, time and attention, and having decided to close out all of my other branches of business as well as my miscellaneous personal property and real estate, I offer for sale all the land I own except that occupied in my business and my dwelling, and will dispose of same at very low figures and on easy terms of payment.

The Following is a Partial List of my OFFERINGS OF REAL ESTATE:

One 250-Acre Farm with fair dwelling, barns, sheds, etc., entirely divided into pasture, wood, timber, sugar maple and apple orchard, running water at house and barn, school house on land that was formerly part of the farm, saw-mill within one-third mile, soil strong and productive, and farm would be regarded worth $3,000 as farms are selling. Will sell it for $2,000—500 down, balance $100 per year.

One 50-Acre Farm, fair buildings, good water, good soil; price $750—250 down, balance 50 per year.

One 5-Acre Farm near Hyde Park village, suitable for a laboring man who wishes to keep a cow and raise his own vegetables; price $300—150 down, balance 50 per year.

One Dwelling House in Hyde Park village, location good, buildings new and good size; price $1,000—300 down, balance 50 per year.

Sixteen Acres of Land just out of Hyde Park village—a choice desirable meadow, not one-half acre in the piece but what is good; price $30 per acre by measure. Will sell part or all.

Several Good Building Lots in Hyde Park village. To enterprising and industrious young men who can raise 200 dollars to put into land and labor, I will furnish the timber, lumber, stone, brick, nails, glass, doors, sash, shingles and lime, wherever to build respectable houses, and allow payment therefore to be made in $25 semi-annual payments. Land in parcels of one, two and three acres will be sold on favorable terms to those who want land with same near by. Price of lots, $75, $100, $125 and $150 each.

One Store in Hyde Park village, known as the "Corner Store," or "Page's Block." It is rented for five years at two hundred dollars per year, but arrangements can probably be made to have the lease vacated if desired. Price, $2,000—800 down, balance $100 per year.

Sixty Acres Timber Land in Johnson. This lot is lease land and not subject to taxation, but is subject to an annual rental of $12. Will sell my equity for $125. I never saw the lot, but am informed that it is within two miles of a sawmill, no bad hills between mill and lot, and is represented to me to be cheap for any man desiring a logging job. Terms, $50 down—$25 in one and $25 in two years, two dollars per M. stampage reserved until I am paid.

One Timber Lot of about one hundred acres, lying on the banks of the mill pond which supplies the new H. S. Haskins mill in Hyde Park. Price $300—$100 down, 25 per year. Two dollars per M. stampage reserved till lot is paid for.

One Building Lot in Belmont, Mass., within a few rods of both the Vt. and Mass. and the Fitchburg depots at Waverly. Price $100—100 down, balance 50 per year.

An examination of the property will show I believe that I have placed valuation much below what good judges would appraise it, but I am determined to close it out and relieve myself of the care of it at the earliest moment practicable. Parties desiring sale and paying investments will find this property well worth their examination. To such as want for their own use either of the parcels of real estate above offered, I confidently recommend AS CHREAP any one of the above described lots.

CARROLL S. PAGE. Hyde Park, Vt., Feb 2, 1885.

Whereas, It Being the New Year, That I will pay to me I go; on the railroad. That I will honestly and closely scan my neighbor's faults and help him to correct them. That I will not spend so much money on my neighbor's faults and help him to correct them. That I will not spend so much money on my neighbor's faults and help him to correct them.

Invoking a Story. "Ah!" said Smith, a commercial traveler, to a group of his acquaintances, "I was invited to a night just before leaving Chicago. And there he told how he had seen a poor German man with his wife and family of eight yellow-haired children, how he had become interested in them, and had learned that they had left their native land to seek home in the Northwest. He was touched by the tenderness of the father and saw him purchasing supplies for his family. All the family except the father had taken their seats on the train and he was just making his way to the car when he saw a small package when the train began to move out of the station. He made a rush for it, slipped, and, in falling, he saw the eyes of the man and his wife. He horror-struck passengers, his head was taken off by the car.

All the family except the father had taken their seats on the train and he was just making his way to the car when he saw a small package when the train began to move out of the station. He made a rush for it, slipped, and, in falling, he saw the eyes of the man and his wife. He horror-struck passengers, his head was taken off by the car.

Invoking a Story. "Ah!" said Smith, a commercial traveler, to a group of his acquaintances, "I was invited to a night just before leaving Chicago. And there he told how he had seen a poor German man with his wife and family of eight yellow-haired children, how he had become interested in them, and had learned that they had left their native land to seek home in the Northwest. He was touched by the tenderness of the father and saw him purchasing supplies for his family.
