Uncle John—Well, what do you mean to be when you get to be a man? Little Tommy (promptly)—A doctor, like pa. Uncle John (quickly)—Indeed; and which do you intend to be, an allopath or a homeopath? Little Tommy—I don't know what that awful big words mean, Uncle John; but that don't make no difference, 'cause I ain't goin' to be either of 'em. I'm just goin' to be a family doctor an' give all my patients Hood's Sarsaparilla, 'cause my pa says that if he is a doctor, he's 'bused to own up that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best family medicine he ever saw in his life.
