The school year at People's Academy begins September 4. Anyone in doubt where to send his son or daughter should consider the advantages of a course at People's Academy. Located in one of the prettiest villages in Vermont, with surroundings of a decidedly healthy nature the student cannot but be benefited by the influences around him. As a preparatory school our Academy is the peer of any in Vermont.

Mrs. Susie Comstock, daughter of Dan Smith, proprietor of the Lamoille Hotel, returned to her home in Northville, Mich., Monday noon, after a visit of two weeks with her father here. This is the first visit of Mrs. Comstock in Vermont, and in fact the first meeting between Mr. Smith and his daughter, the latter being born after a separation between Mr. Smith and his first wife and after he had returned to Vermont.

Elisha Cady and family of Gorham, N. H., are visiting their many friends here and are passing considerable time at the home of Mrs. Cady's sister Mrs. Elbridge Goodale, up under Elmore mountain. Mr. Cady is now successfully engaged in the drug business in Gorham, N. H.

W. A. Choate, wife and daughter of Albany, N. Y., are spending the week with his father, O. D. Choate, at the Randall. Will was formerly a Morrisville boy and is now a successful business man, being engaged in the school furnishing business with his brother, Fred Choate, in Albany.

The west side of the Drowne dry goods store is given up largely to the display of a fine line of ladies' shoes. In keeping with other lines carried by this firm their stock of shoes is complete and of the latest style. Read what G. P. has to say in this issue in regard to "Our Patriotic" shoe.

H. E. Cutler and family of Barre arrived in town last Saturday. Harry went Monday evening to Boston, to be present at the Convention of New England photographers. He is now running a studio in Burlington, in addition to his business in Barre. Mrs. Cutler and children are passing a few days at the home of her father, Henry Churchill, in Elmore.

One Morrisville man took the defeat Saturday in a very philosophical manner, and was heard to remark after the game:—"By gosh, that game was all right! Our boys made them Hyde Park fellers run 'round them bases 15 times, and they couldn't budge our boys an inch by third base. When our fellers got onto a base they'd hang for dear life."

T. B. Ellis, the groceryman, with his little gun, went down to Whitney's mill last week and, as usual, returned with proof of his proficiency as a marksman. This time it was a crane, measuring six feet from tip to tip. After the game Saturday, the bird was given to Hurlbut, the pitcher. This was not according to contract, but "Bloom" allowed that he had earned the bird, all right.

Prof. Andrew J. Blanchard of De Kalb, Ill., made a brief call upon friends in town Monday, going from here to Mt. Mansfield for a short visit with Mrs. Grace Churchill. Prof. Blanchard was an old-time teacher in People's Academy, coming here in 1858 and teaching until '61, when he enlisted in Co. E, 3d Vt. He returned here in '75 and remained at the head of our school until '78. For a good many years he has been a teacher in the public schools of Sycamore, Ill., but three years ago resigned and has since resided at De Kalb, Ill. He is now 74 years of age.

The "Free trip to Buffalo" contest, conducted by H. Waite & Son, will close Saturday night, Aug. 31, at 9 o'clock. The coupons will be counted by Town Clerk Niles at his office and the one holding the largest number of coupons at that time will be put off at Buffalo free of charge. In view of the short time left they are offering great inducements to coffee buyers. Read their business notice.

The public will be pleased to learn that the granite shed deal so long hanging fire has been closed. The committee have made arrangements whereby the firm of Pike & Boynton will take the sheds formerly occupied by the Arnold Granite Co. and move them to their lot south of the depot, adjoining the Maplewood Sugar & Syrup Co's. building and who will continue the granite business, employing a goodly number of men. The Pike & Boynton firm is well-known in this vicinity, having done business here for several years. They will get the sheds into running order as soon as possible, as they have a large number of orders ahead that must be filled at once. Here's success to the industry.

With the aid of A. R. Campbell's field glass a fine view can be had of the boarding house at the asbestos mines—thirteen miles away.

The Circus.

The Walter L. Main show has come and gone and the verdict generally is that the show was well worthy of patronage. The equine acts were excellent, and especially interesting was the grand display of horses in the pyramid act by Prof. Dockrill. This act was ahead of anything before shown here. The ladder specialty by the Judge brothers was a great act and there were others too numerous to mention. The parade was very good, although not up to the standard set by the Wallace circus last year. It was witnessed by a large crowd of people. The general appearance of the show was neat and those connected with it had an orderly appearance that was refreshing. About 5600 tickets were sold for the show in the afternoon. No drunks and no arrests.
