LOCAL NEWS.

MORRISVILLE.

Tucker Chapter holds a special Friday evening of this week for work on R. A. degree.

Dwight Holton of North Wolcott is a guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred O. Lunt.

Miss Minna Seely of Jeffersonville has been a guest several days this week of Miss Alice Miner.

Mrs. C. H. Slocum was in Montreal a short time the last of the week, returning home Saturday.

Frank Greives and wife and son, Phillip, of Craftsbury visited recently at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. R. W. Cheney, in the west part of town.

James Kelley, who was detained from his duties at the station a day or two the last of the week, on account of illness, resumed his duties Monday morning.

Mrs. C. E. Robinson and Fred Allen of Providence, R. I., were guests several days the first of the week, with friends and relatives in town, returning Tuesday by way of Northfield, where they will make a short visit.

B. J. Kelley & Co. have just placed a large sign on the north side of their building, which contains a landscape painting and altogether presents a very attractive appearance. It is the work of A. N. Adams, the firm's painter and decorator.

Oscar Reed, one of the P. A. graduates this year, leaves Friday for Burlington, where he will begin duties as waiter on the boat, Vermont, Saturday, the same position which he held during vacation last summer. John Lamberton began work in the same capacity Monday. The boat makes headquarters at Plattsburgh.

At the instigation of Game Warden, J. T. Steverson, action has been taken against E. G. Foss for illegal fishing on the Bedell brook in the south part of town and the case will be heard before Justice J. H. Aitchison next Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. States Attorney Bicknell prosecuting, T. C. Cheney appears for the defense.

Elizabeth Powers, the little daughter of George M. Powers, met with a painful accident this morning. While playing in the school yard she fell in front of a team driven by D. H. Bedell and before the driver could stop the horse a wheel of the wagon passed over her foot. It is thought that there are no bones broken, although the member is badly bruised and swollen.

Gospel Mission

Union Gospel Mission of the Congregational and Methodist churches, beginning Sunday morning June 4 at the Congregational church, and continuing every evening, except Saturday, under the leadership of the Rev. W. J. Cozens, of Newton Highlands, Mass., for some years Lt. Col. of the Salvation Army, having charge of the work in New England. Mr. Cozens is a most attractive speaker and wherever he goes large congregations greet him. Practical sermons and spirited singing. You cannot fail to be interested and helped. All the congregations of the village are cordially invited to come and participate in these services, and those who are not Christians to come and get saved. Get right with God.

Young Men's Entertainment Course

An entertainment course in Morrisville for next fall and winter is assured and a contract with the White Entertainment Bureau was signed last Friday evening at which time a number of Morrisville young men met Elbert Foland, a representative of the bureau, and decided upon a course, which will consist of four concerts and one lecture, all of a high order and selected with a view of pleasing as many as possible of the lovers of wholesome entertainment in this vicinity. The price of season tickets is placed at $1.50 and although the young men have bought a first-class course, they are looking for a sale of tickets sufficiently generous to make the undertaking a success. The undertaking is supported by twenty young men, who have elected the following officers:—W. F. Benson, Pres.; D. L. Sanders, Sec'y and Treasurer; Executive Committee, Rev. C. C. St. Clare, W. F. Benson, Jesse Waite, W. M. Sargent and H. Smalley.

Hutchins--Mohr

A very quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Hutchins last Sunday evening, when their son, Harry Hutchins, and Miss Minnie Mohr, of New York City, were united in marriage. Rev. Dr. Booth, of Stafford, Conn., performing the ceremony in the presence of only the family of the groom. The groom is a well known Morrisville young man and is the junior partner in the recently formed grocery firm of D. N. Hutchins & Son. The bride has made many friends in town, having spent several weeks here last summer and two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins will have apartments in the Hutchins residence for the present, where they will be at home to their friends after June 1st.

Death of William N. Silloway

The announcement of the death of William N. Silloway, which occurred at his late home on Maple street last Saturday noon, although hourly expected for several days, came as a shock to his large circle of acquaintances and friends in this county, and especially in this town and Elmore, where he had resided practically his whole life. He was taken ill on Saturday night, just two weeks previous to his death with a severe cold, which very soon developed into typhoid pneumonia, the disease having such a hold that from the first his recovery was doubtful. The end came as a relief from intense suffering a few minutes after noon on Saturday, May 27.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Maple street Monday afternoon, Rev. O. M. Boutwell of Hyde Park officiating, assisted by Rev. P. A. Smith of the M. E. church in Morrisville. The funeral was very largely attended and the floral tribute was unusually large and beautiful. All of the brothers and sisters and children of the deceased, whose names are given below, were present with their families. Interment was in Pleasant View Cemetery.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral, besides the near relatives, were Wesley Spencer and wife, George Wheeler and wife, Mrs. Frank Olmstead, Carl Silloway and W. L. White and wife of Hardwick; A. C. Merriam and wife, Frank Merriam, F. L. Slayton and wife, Charles Cooke and wife, Luther Woodcott and wife and son, Judge H. C. Parker, Martin Spaulding and wife, Elmer Robinson and wife, Oliver Bacon and wife and Fred Griswold of Elmore; Geo. E. White, F. B. Morse, C. C. Fisher and wife, Glen Silloway, Wolcott; S. Cameron and wife of Calais, G. Ainsworth and wife of Belvidere and Mrs. Sadie Piper of Greensboro.

The deceased was born in Elmore 51 years ago on Nov. 16, last, the son of W. M. and Phoebe T. Silloway. He spent his whole life, with the exception of a short residence in Calais, in his native town, until two years ago, when he moved to this village and built a residence on Maple street. He was married July 23, 1876, to Ella A. White and their union was born four children, Mrs. Hattie Woodcott, Mrs. Myron Whitcomb and Charlie Silloway of this place and Mrs. Walter Spaulding of Elmore, all of whom survive him.

He was for many years prominent in the town affairs of Elmore and represented that town in the legislature of 1900. He was a man who commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him and his untimely death is a direct loss to the community and a great blow to his family. He was one of fourteen children, ten of whom survive him as follows:—A. O. Fred W., W. S. Silloway and Mrs. Blanche Carpenter of Elmore, Edgar E. Silloway, Alma M. Reynolds, Bessie A. Cheever, Edith M. Scott of Barre; Clara J. Potter of Woodstock and Mrs. Geo. A. Morse of Morrisville. He also leaves an aged mother, who resides with Mrs. Morse in this place. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their great bereavement.

Properties Change Hands

THE LAMOILLE LIVERY

Almon C. Bedell has purchased of Alton Littel, the latter's interest in the Littel & Aller livery stable, and possession was given last Saturday. The firm name in the future will read Bedell & Aller. The new member of the firm has had considerable experience in the livery business in Morrisville in the past and will make a worthy successor to the retiring member of the firm. The many friends of Mr. Aller are pleased to know that he retains his interest in the business and the new combination will doubtless receive their share of the business. Mr. Bedell has decided back to Harvey Bennett his interest in the farm, known as the Ben Greene place, on Elmore road.

MORRISVILLE STOWE STAGE LINE

Alton Littel and Homer Smith, who recently bought the Morrisville-Stowe stage line of C. L. Gates, will take possession to-morrow. The sale included the horses, wagons, and everything connected with the business. Headquarters will be located, as in the past, at Morrisville, the new firm having leased Mr. Gates' barns for the term of one year. Mr. Gates has conducted the business for the past three and a half years and during that time has largely increased the patronage and by square and live methods has made a large number of friends, who will regret his retirement from the business, which is made on account of ill health. The new firm are both hustlers and will no doubt keep up the reputation of the firm. Mr. Gates expects to remain in Morrisville and for the present will take a much needed rest.

A CARD!—In retiring from the ownership of the Morrisville-Stowe stage line I would here by extend thanks to the public that has given me such generous patronage during the past three and a half years, a continuance of which I respectfully bespeak for my successors, Messrs Littel & Smith.

C. L. GATES.
Morrisville, May 26, 1905.

Lovely weather, this.

Thirty-Fifth Graduation

Commencement Exercise of the Thirty-Fifth Graduating Class at Peoples Academy.

This is Commencement Week in Morrisville, an annual event which is not only looked forward to by the members of the graduating class but also by former students and friends of the old Academy, whether in Morrisville or elsewhere. It is the occasion when former graduates return to their Alma Mater and live over again for a brief time the scenes of their school days. To those who are in town this week in attendance upon the exercises of the class of '05 this paper extends a hearty welcome. The present Commencement exercises began Sunday evening, when the baccalaureate sermon was preached in the Congregational church by Rev. Otto Raspe of Tufts Divinity School. The largest audience seen in the church since the dedication was gathered there on this occasion, every seat being filled in both auditorium and vestry and several settees were brought from the M. E. church. The front of the church was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers and in front of the pulpit, suspended the class motto, in the class colors, brown and gold, "After Conflict Reward." Following a beautiful organ voluntary by Miss Watts, the church quartette sang an anthem, after which the class was ushered from the parlors to their seats in the center of the auditorium, by class marshal, Hugh H. Tyndall, the march being played by Miss Watts. Rev. P. A. Smith and Rev. Dr. Booth assisted in the service and a most pleasing number of the musical part of the service was a solo by Miss Ida Niles, who sang "The Good Shepherd," (music by Beardsley Van de Water,) in her fine voice, which was much appreciated by all. The speaker took his text from Luke 9:51, "He steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem," using the word Steadfastness for his theme. The sermon was a concise and scholarly effort and the speaker was closely followed by the large audience. The peroration, directed especially to the class, was given with much earnestness and expression and made a very favorable impression upon the large audience, many of whom heard Mr. Raspe last Sunday evening for the first time.

CONCERNING THE CLASS

The class of 1905 numbers 14 members, eight young ladies and six young gentlemen, of which number three took the classical course and one the latin course. Eight of the class honors the normal course. The class honors were won by Mollie P. Andrews, Valetictorian, and Grace B. Bedell, Salutatorian. The class officers are, President, Oscar W. Reed; Vice President, Berdie P. Morway; Secretary, Winnifred J. Towne; Treasurer, George C. Cole.

ANNUAL PRIZE SPEAKING

The annual prize speaking for the Sanborn prizes, which is open to all P. A. students, with the exception of the graduating class, was held at Academy hall last evening. The contestants all did exceptionally well and the program rendered showed careful preparation and was listened to by a large audience. The prizes were awarded as follows:—Lou R. Slocum, first prize, Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, Carroll P. Fisk, second prize, a volume of "British Poets of the Nineteenth Century"; third prize, Noyes Slayton, which was a book of poems. While it was difficult to select a favorite all did so well, special mention, we think, should be made the rendition "How He Saved St. Michael's" by Leigh C. Stewart. A committee of three, consisting of H. M. Rich, Miss Ida Niles and Levi Munson were appointed as judges. Mr. Rich made the announcement in a pleasing speech, in which he paid a high compliment to all the contestants. Following was the program as rendered:

MUSIC
The Traitor's Deathbed.....Carroll P. Fisk
The Doom of Claudius and Cynthia.....Noes Slayton
The Island of the Scots.....Eden Jackson

ALUMNI BANQUET.
The annual reunion and business meeting of the Alumni was held this afternoon at the Academy following the class day program. This evening a reception will be held in the Randall parlors, at 8 o'clock, after which a banquet will be served. The post-prandial exercises will be in charge of Danu M. Dugan, of Worcester, Mass., who was a principal of Peoples Academy 24 and 25 years ago. The principal speaker of the evening will be Hon. Harlan P. French of Albany, N. Y., who will speak on subject, "Looking Backward." Other speakers will be Rev. V. M. Hardy, Rev. C. C. St. Clare, Hon. F. G. Fleetwood, Hugh H. Tyndall for the class of '05, and Herbert Rice of the U. V. M. for the class of '03.

Memorial Day in Morrisville

The Memorial Day exercises in Morrisville this year were fittingly observed by James M. Warner Post, G. A. R., and kindred organizations and also by the public in general, who turned out in large numbers to the exercises, both the Memorial sermon Sunday at the Universalist church and the Decoration Day exercises yesterday at Town Hall drawing large audiences. Sunday afternoon the largest line of march seen for years formed at G. A. R. hall, including 28 members of the G. A. R. Post, followed by 17 Sons of Veterans and 50 members of J. M. Warner Post, W. R. C., and marched to the Universalist church, where an excellent sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Booth. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the music, which was of a very high order being furnished by the Cong'l church quartet, Messrs Fleetwood and Camp and Mrs. Geo. M. Powers and Mrs. P. G. Hill, with Mrs. Churchill at the piano. Following an anthem by the quartet, prayer was offered by Rev. C. C. St. Clare, followed by scripture reading by Rev. Otto Raspe. Mr. Booth took his text from the 20th chapter of Revelations, the 12th verse, "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." This discourse was interesting and helpful and closely listened to by the large audience.

The exercises yesterday, while carried out according to the usual custom, were very impressive, a large number of people gathering from the surrounding districts to view that grand and solemn spectacle of the parade of the old veterans and the other organizations, to the village cemetery, where the usual exercises were once more rendered. The column was formed at Grand Army Hall, shortly after one o'clock, led by the Morrisville Band, under the leadership of Don A. Sanders, followed by 8 of V, under arms, school children with their teachers, with flowers, J. M. Warner Post, Orator of the Day, W. R. C., etc. Following the exercises in the cemetery the following program was rendered in town hall:—

Rev. P. A. Smith
Reading of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address
Lambert Lamberton
Memorial song, Male Quartet
Howard Smith, F. M. Meuld, E. W. Gates, R. L. Barrows
Flag Drill
Twelve Girls, Intermediate Department
Declaration, Whittier Gates
Drill, Twelve Boys, First Primary
Solo, Miss Ida Niles
Address, Rev. W. A. Warner, Barton, Vt.
Benediction, Rev. G. W. Kellogg
Music by Morrisville Military Band
Don A. Sanders, Leader

Much credit for the success of the Memorial exercises is due Commander Sanders, who put much time and thought into the preparations.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mason B. Hoyt and Mrs. Lizzie A. Westover, both of this town. The wedding took place at the home of E. A. Pike in Irasburg Tuesday, May 23rd, and was performed by Rev. E. P. Treat. The bridal party will be "at home" on the Gallup farm near Cady's Falls after June 1st.

HYDE PARK.
Miss Helen Hall spent Decoration Day at St. Johnsbury.

Miss Agnes Dower of Hinesburgh is spending a few days here with relatives.

Maria Nichols has returned from her semi-occasional sojourn at Waterbury.

Mrs. Lottie Churchill from Barre visited relatives here recently.

H. B. Lanpher and family spent Sunday last with relatives at Elmore.

Mrs. Cora Thomas of Jeffersonville was a visitor at Mrs. Small's Monday.

The J. S. Waite cottage at the West End is in the hands of the painters.

Harry Titus and wife of Hardwick were visitors recently at the home of Irwin Lilley and wife.

Mrs. Howe from Whitefield, N. H., has moved into the upper part of the Grimes house on Roosevelt street.

Geo. Worsley and wife and Harry Hinds of Littleton, N. H., are visiting at the home of Sheriff Stevens.

Mrs. Clara D. Mudgett of Loudon, N. H., is at the home of her son, R. L. Mudgett, getting acquainted with that new grandson.

Wm. Benway and family and Mrs. Mabel Wilson and daughter, with Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hill picnicked at Elmore last Thursday.

W. N. Putnam and E. L. Noyes, went to Greensboro Monday and spent yesterday there in fishing. They had a good time.

Miss Carpenter, teacher in the Grammar Department of the L. C. A. has gone to her home at Waterbury to spend the summer vacation.

The Nature Club will meet this week Friday on the lawn of Mrs. McFarland "Flowering Ferns" and the "Rose Family" will be considered.

Miss Bessie Merrill from Waltham, Mass., is here for a six weeks' visit with relatives and friends. Bessie is delighted to get back to her old home.

The Ladies of the Home Culture Club have arranged with the White Lecture Bureau of Boston for a course of entertainments for next winter. There will be two lectures, two concerts and a magician. The price of a season ticket will be but $1.00 and the ladies will be pleased to have those who have not already agreed to take tickets to do so at once, so that they can know what to depend upon. Leave your name at the post-office. "Do it now."

J. L. Gleason, the new lessee of the Phoenix, took possession of the same Monday and is now getting "the bang of the schoolhouse." Mr. Gleason is very much pleased with the hotel and its surroundings and intends to give the patrons of that institution a hotel first-class in every respect. His wife, aided by a competent corps of assistants, will have direct oversight of the culinary department, and the fact that she has had large experience in this line at the "Bread Loaf Inn" at Ripton, amply qualifies her for this position. Mr. Gleason will give his personal attention to the management of the house.

Word has been received here of the death of Wallace Grant at Rome, Georgia. He died last week, after a few hours' illness. He was the husband of Diodora Smalley, the oldest daughter of the late A. P. Smalley. He was a Caledonia county boy and married Miss Smalley at Troy, this state, about forty-three years ago. At the time of his death he was at the head of the Fairbanks Scale Works at Rome. He had been in their employ several years, probably half a century, going from St. Johnsbury to Philadelphia, where he was a superintendent for years, and then a few years ago to Georgia. Besides his wife, he leaves two sons. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends and relatives here.

Lamoille Central Academy.

The "Class Day" exercises occur at the Cong'l Church this evening at eight o'clock. Admission, 10 cents. This is a very interesting event and should have a large attendance.

On account of illness Col. E. B. Sawyer, the representative of the G. A. R., appointed to visit the school Pre-Memorial Day, was unable to be present.

The presentation of certificates to the ninth grade is postponed until Thursday evening and will take place at the graduation exercises.

Help to buy pictures for the school by seeing the picture exhibit. Open every afternoon this week at Academy Hall.

The Pre-Memorial exercises of the graded school were held at the Academy Hall Monday afternoon. The program a very interesting one, is as follows:—

Decorations Day, Emogene Burbank
The Soldier's Prayer, Lois Davis
Remembrance, Inez Perry
Lexington, Byron Camp

National Flag, Lizzie Gallup
Decorations Day, Grace Strong
"No more the thunder of Cannon Amy Perry
Our Flag, Kenneth Fairbanks
Song, America.

The public is cordially invited to attend the graduation exercises at the Congregational church, Thursday evening. Following is the program:
