C. Hill has gone to Brandon to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Church. On her return she will stop at Burlington to visit another daughter, Mrs. Fred Hutchins, and at Dr. A. S. C. Hill's in Winooski. Miss A. B. Fullington and her grandmother, Mrs. Andrews have gone to Montpelier to visit Mrs. Andrews' son, W. G. Andrews. Miss Fullington goes from there to Pittsburg, to resume her work in the school for the deaf and dumb. At the corporation meeting held Monday evening it was voted to elect a committee of three who, if they considered it to be for the best interests of the village, are to purchase the water power at Ithiel Falls and equip it for an electric light station. The committee appointed were F. G. Bicknell, W. H. Nye and C. N. Farrington. Johnson has two inmates in Vermont insane hospitals. It costs the state about $390 a year and is paid from the tax on corporations, there being no state tax. If Johnson paid this, as formerly the case, it would mean a town tax of 7.9 cents on every dollar of the grand list. Clement condemns the present system of caring for the insane. Do you? If not vote the Republican ticket September 4. Dr. Maynard of Burlington was called here Sunday to perform an operation for strangulated hernia on George Bedell. Mr. Bedell was taken ill Saturday and came to the village and consulted Dr. Prentiss. Sunday morning the doctor was called there and found him in a very critical condition. He telephoned immediately for Dr. Maynard, who reached here in his automobile about noon. Mr. Bedell rallied from the operation but at this time is very low. At the Republican caucus held last Saturday night and which was largely attended, W. E. Tracy was chairman and J. E. Foster Secretary. The only name presented for Representative was that of Fred G. Bicknell, who was nominated by Harry Stiles and seconded by E. M. Sherwin. Mr. Bicknell accepted the nomination and promised if elected to serve his town to the best of his ability. The Democrats held an informal gathering the same evening and put up B. A. Hunt as their standard-bearer. The justice ticket, as agreed upon by both parties, is as follows: T. J. Baker, J. J. Hickey, W. H. Stearns, B. T. Ober, E. P. Grow, H. W. Peck, Geo. Dillingham. The Knights of Pythias' Annual Oram Bake, held at Ithiel Falls last Thursday was attended by about 55 Knights. The lodges of Cambridge, Waterville, Morrisville, Johnson and Barre were represented. All report a fine time and vote Johnson Lodge top-notchers as entertainers. The address of welcome was made by State's Attorney Bicknell and was given in his usual pleasing manner, which made everyone feel at home and glad they were present. Uncle David Holdridge was an honored guest, acting as caretaker for the grounds, which were pronounced ideal for the occasion. Considerable time was taken up after dinner in speech-making, the first speaker being B. A. Hunt, who gave a rousing address for the good of the order. Caterer Cook, who recently located in Johnson served the dinner, and thereby established a reputation for first class work, which will not be forgotten by Johnson people. EAST JOHNSON. Franklin J. Sinclair is convalescent. Bert Scribner is under the doctor's care. Will Hayford of Burlington is visiting friends in town. Dr. Minott and family visited at Freeman Boyce the first of the week. The permanent work on road, leading through Broadway, has come to an end for the present on account of exhausted funds. Mrs. Bertha Metcalf, who has been stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hadley, for the past six weeks, returned to her home in Albany, N. Y., last Friday. A large attendance were at the Grange meeting last Thursday evening and a very interesting program was carried out. The next meeting will be Sept. 6th and will be under the management of the ladies.

Mrs. Chaffee, the aged mother of Mark Chaffee, died at her son's home Monday night of troubles incident to old age. Mrs. Chaffee was in her eighty-eighth year. Funeral services were held this morning. The long continued dry spell has played havoc with water supplies. Many springs having failed entirely. C. E. and F. O. Burt are fighting a bad forest fire which is threatening some of their best spruce, Nebraska way. At the stockholders meeting held at Lake Mansfield Thursday a committee of seven was elected to look over the situation and obtain terms of sale and lease from C. E. and F. O. Burt, the present owners of the land surrounding the lake. W. K. Bigelow, of the well-known firm of Almy, Bigelow & Washburn of Salem, Mass., has been spending a few days with Stowe relatives, returning home Monday morning. Mr. Bigelow gave an interesting talk on the West Indies at the West Branch church Friday evening. At the next regular meeting of Mt. Mansfield Grange, No. 274, Aug. 25, 2 p. m., the following program will be given:—Music, Grange choir; selection, Jessie Gibbs; paper, Practical Housekeeping, Mrs. C. F. Eddy; Outline more equalizing system of taxation, Mrs. Blodgett; song; When should crops be harvested, D. Douglas; recitation, Mrs. George McAllister. Stowe has four inmates in Vermont insane hospitals. Their maintenance costs the town nothing. It costs the state about $780 a year and is paid from the tax on corporations, there being no state tax. If Stowe paid this, as was formerly the case, it would mean a town tax of 10 cents on every dollar of the grand list. Clement condemns the present system of caring for the insane. Do you? If not vote the Republican ticket September 4. No caucus was called by the Republican town committee and nomination papers have been filed for L. L. Harris, Republican, and Henry T. Raymond, Independent Republican. The Democrats at their caucus Monday night placed no candidate in nomination, but endorsed Mr. Raymond. Both gentlemen have been life-long Republicans, have a large number of friends and either would creditably represent the town. CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. Estate of Reuben A. Savage. LICENSE TO SELL. State of Vermont, District of Lamolite, ss.—In Probate Court, held at Hyde Park, in said District, on the 21st day of August, A. D. 1906. Harriet E. Savage, Executrix of the estate of Reuben A. Savage, late of Stowe in said District deceased, makes application to said Court for license to sell all the real estate of said deceased, to wit: The home place including about sixty acres and buildings, representing that the sale would be beneficial to all interested in said estate. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court that said application be referred to a session of the Court to be held at the Probate Office, in said Hyde Park on the 8th day of September, A. D. 1906, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered, that all persons interested be notified hereof, by publication of notice of said application and order thereon, three weeks successively in the News and Citizen, printed at Morrisville and Hyde Park before said time of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and, if they see cause, object thereto. By the Court.—Attest. EDWIN G. WHITE, Judge.

THE REPUBLICAN OUTLOOK. Chairman Chapman of the Republican State Committee, in speaking of the outlook for a Republican victory Sept. 4, says:—"Lamolite county, claimed as a strong Fusion county two weeks ago, will give a Republican majority of 1000." He also adds:—"I am not prepared to state positively what the Republican majority in the state will be, but a close and conservative estimate places the figures close to 20,000. I have every reason for believing that the majority will exceed 20,000, but it is not my intention or desire to overestimate our strength."

Estate of Lucy Lathe. LICENSE TO SELL. State of Vermont, District of Lamolite, ss.—In Probate Court, held at Hyde Park, in said District, on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1906. A. A. Fisk, Administrator of the estate of Lucy Lathe, late of Stowe, in said District deceased, makes application to said Court for license to sell all the real estate of said deceased, representing that the sale would be beneficial to all interested in said estate. Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court that said application be referred to a session of the Court to be held at the Probate Office, in said Hyde Park on the 5th day of Sept. A. D. 1906, for hearing and decision thereon; and, it is further ordered, that all persons interested be notified hereof by publication of notice of said application and order thereon, three weeks successively in the News and Citizen, printed at Morrisville and Hyde Park before said time of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and, if they see cause, object thereto. By the Court.—Attest. EDWIN G. WHITE, Judge.
