On Thursday forenoon their little daughter underwent a very successful operation for the removal of the tonsils and adenoids, the operation being performed by Dr. A. J. Vallean, assisted by Dr. W. M. Johnstone. Mr. Morse came down Thursday night and all returned home Saturday night.

The closing entertainment in the Peoples Lecture Course will be given at Town Hall, Friday evening of this week. The Marshalls, a trio of lady musicians, have been engaged for the number and the Committee feel that their choice for the closing event of a successful course will be appreciated. The program given by the Marshalls is a varied one, including instrumental and vocal selections and readings, each member of the Company being an artist of much ability. The following notice from Topsfield, Mass., is gleaned from a large number of flattering press notices:—As charming, dainty and entertaining as ever but showing finer and greater skill and larger versatility is the estimate of our people on last evening's excellent entertainment by the Marshalls. Our John Robinson Course owes them much for a very auspicious beginning.

THE DEMON LOBSTER

[A parody satire on the advertisement in verse that has been running in the News and Citizen for the past few weeks.]

It was midnight, dark and dreary; I was lying listless, weary, Conning over many a weird tale of Poets' ghostly lore—

Gently breathing, almost sleeping—suddenly there came a creeping, As of some one slyly peeping—peeping at my chamber door.

"Tis a mouse," I breathless muttered, "creeping by my chamber door," Only this, and nothing more."

Long I lay there, trying—with my mental forces prying— To explore the uncanny crawling, ending just above my door;

When I heard a horrid throbbing, ominous, like muffled sobbing, All my resolutions robbing—and I could not close my door!

And such strange, uncanny throbbing, never mortal heard before— This I heard, and nothing more."

And I waited further token, in that darkness, dense, unbroken— For no "separate dying embers wrought their ghosts upon the floor"

From no palid bust, reflected, light fell on that beast infected (Phyctic in my mind dissected) with demonic thirst for gore!

Then I said, my heart to quiver, "'tis the wind that moves my door— 'Tis the wind, and nothing more."

But, what honor was created when my room seemed all inflated With a dense Plutonic odor, wafted from above my door!

And on him who wrote that ballad of "A Little Lobster Salad," With set teeth and lips all pallid, Heaven's wrath I did implore!

Upon him who murders rhythm like a fiend from Pluto's shore— Upon him, nevermore!

For I knew no stately raven, but a Demon, evil, craven, Hung upon the moulded casing "just above my chamber door;"

And I vowed no "Law Unwritten," him should save from being smitten; Not by him should I be bitten—by that Lobster of my door!

With my grandsire's pond-ruffin-lock, down I smote him from my door! He shall haunt me, nevermore!"

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferer from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Godsend, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Fly Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Do It in March

It's an annual affair, this saying "yes" or "no" to the man who wants to run a saloon, and the date on which the saying is done is not very far off. The Northfield News gives some excellent advice as to what to do on these yearly occasions, and we pass the paragraph along to the NEWS AND CITIZEN readers as worthy of careful consideration:

"The best work for prohibition in Vermont can be done at the coming March meeting. If every citizen who believes that the sale of intoxicating liquors in his respective town is a detriment to it, will do a little intelligent work in support of his position, and above all else get out to town meeting and not only cast a 'no' vote but interest himself thoroughly in electing efficient town officers—if he will do this there will be even less license towns than ever before, and prohibition will mean prohibition. On the contrary, if he stays at home, deplores the loss of the former prohibition law, kicks the old chopping block under the impression that he is giving the local option law a bad half hour, he is likely to wake up the next morning or the morning after the next, and find that his town has voted itself into the undesirable list. Let's all attend town meeting and do our duty this year."

STATE NEWS

There were 18 marriages, 43 births and 42 deaths in Stowe in 1907.

R. W. Bishop, patent attorney of Washington D. C., reports the issue of the following patents to residents of Vermont: Ribbon-fastener, A. H. Gardyne of Barton Landing; smokeless powder, F. A. Halsey of Swanton.

A memorial has been presented Congress by Senator Redfield Proctor from Editor M. J. Maloney of the Richmond Gazette remonstrating against the enactment of legislation to prohibit publishers from extending credit for newspaper subscriptions.

The wife of the Rev. E. A. Bishop, principal of Montpelier Seminary, died Friday morning after an illness of more than two years, the last 13 months of which she has been confined to her bed. Mrs. Bishop's maiden name was Clara Irene Brown. She was born October 25, 1827, at Pointville, N. J. In 1878 she was married to Dr. Bishop. Since the tragic death of their daughter, Helen, at Wilmington, Del., in 1900 Mrs. Bishop's health has never been firm. Mrs. Bishop is survived by two daughters and one son.

A LONG LIFE How to Conserve Energy and Prolong Life.

The time comes to every one when the life forces begin to fail. It is a little harder to climb a hill or walk up stairs. Exercise is taken less vigorously or abandoned, and we feel that the end of active service is drawing near.

It is probable that we have been over-driving the machine of the body which will give out like any machine if overtaxed, and we should immediately take steps to change the gear, build up the strength and restore the life forces. To this end nothing equals our delicious cod liver and iron preparation Vinol, which is far superior to all other tonics and cod liver preparations because it is made by a scientific, extractive, concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Vinol is unexcelled.

Try it on our offer to return your money if it fails. Arthur L. Cheney, Druggist. Vinol is also sold by M. J. Leach, Wolcott; G. B. Foss, Hyde Park; C. P. Jones, Johnson; Variety Store Co., Bakersfield.

Some Thoughts on Love.

It is difficult to know at what moment love begins. It is less difficult to know it has begun. A thousand heralds proclaim it to the listening air; a thousand messengers betray it to the eye. Tone, act, attitude and look, the signals upon the countenance, the electric telegraph of touch—all these betray the yielding citadel before the word itself is uttered which, like the key surrendered, opens every avenue and gate of entrance and renders retreat impossible.—Longfellow.

To write a good love letter you ought to begin without knowing what you mean to say and to finish without knowing what you have written.—Rousseau.

The first symptom of true love in a young man is timidity; in a girl it is boldness. The two sexes have a tendency to approach, and each assumes the qualities of the other.—Hugo.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Regulax. They operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

A Remarkable Savings Bank Record

From the Bennington Banner.

Hon. Carroll S. Page has been often pointed out as Vermont's leading business man, and he has more than once justified the title, but his latest achievement seems to be the most remarkable of his long and successful career.

During the past six months and including the period covering the most pronounced financial stringency in a decade he has increased the deposits of his bank at Hyde Park by $235,000 through a campaign of newspaper advertising in the daily and weekly papers of this state.

This achievement would have been remarkable at any time, but in view of the financial disturbances of the past few months it is nothing less than astonishing, yet when taken and considered carefully the process seems comparatively simple after all.

In the first place Governor Page who has dominated the Hyde Park bank has insisted on most rigidly conservative methods, studying always the security of the loan and the safety of the deposits rather than the prospect of big interest returns and financial benefit to the directors.
