There were lively times at Cady's Falls festivities were all right, but the presence of some who had partaken too freely of body ought to get busy.

Shattuck-Carpenter

Last Saturday afternoon at five o'clock at the Cong'l parsonage occurred the marriage of Ward M. Shattuck, son of Luther Shattuck of Cambridge, to Miss Edna L. Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Carpenter of the Laport road, Rev. C. C. St. Clare officiating. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck left on the mail for a brief wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Johnson, where Mr. Shattuck has purchased the Robert Crispy farm.

The bride is one of Morrisville's well known and highly esteemed young ladies.
She graduated from Peoples Academy in the class of 1900, and has since been a very successful teacher in the public schools of this town. Mr. Shattuck resided in this town a short time recently and both have a host of friends in this and other parts of the county, who will extend heartiest congratulations.

A Successful Queen of the May

The Universalist Society scored another success in the entertainment field on Thursday and Friday evenings, in the presentation of the cantata, "Queen of the May," which was very successfully given to appreciative and fairly good-sized audiences. For the success of the affair very much credit is due Mrs. Ida Churchill for her untiring efforts in drilling the children in the musical part of the program and to Miss Ila Niles for her work in staging it. While the music of itself was catchy, the breezy, lively manner in which it was rendered, with Mrs.
Churchill at the piano, and with an orchestra consisting of C. A. Gile, cornet; F. L. George and James Reed, clarinet; Nat Freeman, violin, and P. C. Greene, cello, the result was all that could be desired.

As Queen of May, Miss Brenda Harris was all that the part called for and in her solo, "A May Morning," her sweet soprano voice was heard to good advantage.
The part of Florence, the children's teacher, was gracefully and very well taken by Miss Nellie Minott, and as her admirer, Clinton Cooper was easy and natural, the solos of both being well rendered and received. Misses Vivian Greene, Ruth Greene, Gladys Bedell, Winnie Bedell as maids of honor, and Misses Nora Green, Dorris Graves, Eloise Stafford, Stella Taylor, Susie Towne, Barbara Small as flower girls, with Kenneth Dodge as herald and Herbert Town as color bearer, in their solos, also the solo by Miss Vivian Greene and the duet by the Misses Hazel and Sadie Sherman all added much to the effect of the whole.
The chorus included Nellie Shattuck, Edith Spiller, Mary Gates, Dorothy Small, Rea Merrill, Ila Towne, Dorris and Elizabeth Barrows, Edith Stewart, Isabel Harris, Harold and Lyle Tiltonson, Edward and Elwood Emmonds.

The character song, "Don't You Want A Paper, Dearie?" by Miss Ila Niles, assisted by a chorus composed of Misses Vida Ellis, Grace Bedell, Nita Ellis, Nellie Minott, Jesse Waite, Clinton Cooper, Roy Stafford, Mark Cutting and Guy Stafford made a great hit and received en-cores both evenings. The clarinet solos by Miss Vivian Greene were also well received and heartily enjoyed and the Japanese fan drill by Misses Gladys Bedell, Winnie Bedell, Sadie Sherman, Dorothy Small, Vivian Greene and Ruth Greene was very pretty. While the singing was all exceptionally good, special mention should be made of the song, "The Little Pink Parasol," by Dorris and Elizabeth Barrows and Dorris Graves, the "Jumping Song," by Harold and Lyle Tiltonson and Elwood Emmonds, and the singing by Edward Emmonds, Isabel Harris and Edith Stewart.

The Alpha Theta Phi base ball team will play a game at 3 o'clock on the Old Fair Ground, next Friday afternoon, against a town team from Wolcott. Ralph Thomas will do the pitching for the local team.

W. C. Ward for some time. They will make their future home in Morrisville and expect to begin housekeeping as soon as they can find a suitable tenement.
The groom, who is a brother of C. B.
Davis, has many friends here who will extend congratulations.

whether preparing for college or not.

Masons Go Visiting

A party of 15, members of the Masonic fraternity, visited Mystic Lodge, No. 56, at Stowe last evening and witnessed the working of the third degree upon Prof.
Douglass. The work, under the direction of Most Worshipful Master, Dr.
Morgan, was performed in an excellent manner, those doing the work having their parts to perfection. After the work an elegant banquet was served. Remarks were made by M. P. Maurice, Dr.
Robinson, Dr. Morgan and the candidate.
The "boys" from here greatly enjoyed the event and say Mystic Lodge cannot be excelled as entertainers.
